CONNIE MACK HANDS OUT BIG SENSATION

On Eve of Departure of Quaker Teams For South Harry Davis Becomes Leader

Philadelphia, Feb. 26.—The departure of the Athletics and Phillies for southern camps to-day was featured with one sensational rational announcement. It comes from Connie Mack.

The veteran leader announced the appointment of Harry Davis as field captain of the Athletics for this year and Ira Thomas as chief coach for the squad of young pitchers who will try to fill the gaps left vacant by Bender, Plank and Coombs.

The complete roster of both clubs when all the players report follows: Athletics—Catcher, Schang, Lapp, McAvoy, Gaven and Thomas; pitchers, Bush, Bressler, Shawkey, Pennock, Wyckoff, Davis, Gardner, Reed, Volz, Harper, Meyers, Hamilton and Jensen; infielders, Davis, McInnis, Lajoie, Barry, Kopf, Crane, McConnell, Foster, Bostick, outfielders, Murphy, Oldring, Strunk, Walsh, Davies, Thompson, Sherman.

FEDS LOCATE IN NEWARK

Cut Out Proposition to Place Team in New York City

New York, Feb. 26.—Announcement that the Kansas City team of the Federal League will be transferred to Newark, N. J., is made by P. T. Powers and Harry F. Sinclair, who recently purchased the franchise.

Newark was selected as the home of the club in preference to the Bronx section of New York, and for the time, at least, sets at rest all talk of the Federals invading this New York territory of the National and American League. The fact that Sunday baseball can be played in Newark was a feature that appealed to Powers and Sinclair.

ANDY SEARS IS OUT OF GAME

Reading, Pa., Feb. 26.—With the pennant within their grasp, Andy Sears, the mainstay of the local five, sustained an injury to the right leg which prevented him from playing in last night's game and will keep him out of to-night's important game with Jasper on the Kensington floor.

The accident occurred at the outer station when the locals returned from Harrisburg. In stepping on the platform Sears twisted his right leg and badly sprained the ankle. Within a short time the ankle was swollen twice its natural size.

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC

This evening—"Uncle Tom's Cabin." To-morrow, afternoon and evening—Al. G. Wilson in "When Old New York Was Dutch."

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with matinees Tuesday and Wednesday—Howard Thurston, Magician. Thursday, matinee and night—"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

Saturday matinee and night, March 6—"Damaged Goods."

ORPHEUM

Every afternoon and evening—High-Class Vaudeville.

COLONIAL

Every afternoon and evening—Vaudeville and Pictures.

MOTION PICTURES

Palace, 10 a. m. to 11 p. m. Photoplay, 10 a. m. to 11 p. m.

Royal, 6 p. m. to 11 p. m. Victoria, 10 a. m. to 11 p. m.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN"

In many respects Kibble and Martin's "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which is at the Majestic, is the most important of the season's productions. In the first place it serves to exploit the memories of two of our country's noted artists, i. e. Ralph Brant's elaborate painting entitled "The Celestial Palace" and the grand structure of the New Orleans slave mart; and secondly it has brought back into prominence the memory of that grand old lady, Harriet Beecher Stowe, and serves to reveal the beautiful lessons really to be learned by careful attention.

COLONIAL

A corking good vaudeville skit, one that is nifty and clean cut, and contains much merriment, that of the Romeros at the Busy Corner during the last half of the week. The quintet consists of two men and three women, and their offering consists of an original potpourri of songs, dances and musical numbers.

THURSTON, THE MAGICIAN

For expertness of work, elaboration of illusion and artistic effect, Thurston's present program which he brings to the Majestic, three days, starting Monday, March 1, with Tuesday and Wednesday matinees, has never been excelled in this city. His work is agreeable, more so than that of Keller. He is gifted with an unusually likeable personality, and immediately establishes himself intimately with his audience.

"THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE"

The dramatization made by Eugene Walter of John Fox, Jr.'s beautiful story, comes to the Majestic next Thursday, afternoon and evening. It is said that Mr. Walter has taken the atmosphere of the Virginia hills, as well as the characters of Mr. Fox's story, deftly blending them into a romantic play of great power and charm, with scenes rendered more vivid in motion and color. The story of the paly is familiar to a wonder, and it is conservatively estimated by no less an authority than Scribner's that almost 3,000,000 copies of the story have been sold.

ORPHEUM

Many favorable comments over the Orpheum's bill are going the rounds these days. The kind of a vaudeville bill that local audiences enjoy the most seems to be here this week. There is something there to please all tastes. For those who enjoy singing there is the Omar Opera Company heard to excellent advantage in the best known operas or rather parts of them. They who like to laugh get more than one act to please them.

CLOSE EPSOM TRACK FOR TWO SEASONS

Duke of Portland Angry Because Officials Refuse Clubhouse For Use as Hospital

London, Feb. 26.—The Duke of Portland, who for thirty years has been one of the leading figures on the English turf has caused to be cancelled all racing entries for the Epsom track, including the derby for both 1915 and 1916, because of the refusal of the Epsom Association to do without the use of its clubhouse for a few days.

This building is now being used as a military hospital, and the Epsom Association is shortly to hold its regular meeting. When the association permitted the occupancy of its building as a hospital it stipulated that the house be returned to it for its coming conferences.

In a letter of protest to the club committee, the Duke wrote: "Surely for one year the few followers of racing should be only too glad to forego their luncheons if by so doing it becomes unnecessary to disturb British soldiers who have been wounded for the sake of their country."

The committee yielded partially, and said they would require only one floor of the building during race week. But this did not satisfy the Duke of Portland and he caused the withdrawal of all entries.

Garnets Here Tomorrow; Play Independent Five

When the Garnets, of Philadelphia, played the Harrisburg Independents here two weeks ago the final score was 45 to 44. Two extra periods were played. At the close of the regular periods the score was 34 to 34. The first extra period ended with the score 38 to 38.

Not in the history of basketball has there been a game that caused so much comment. The Garnets return tomorrow night for the second game with the local five and indications point to another record crowd. The teams will line up as follows:

Garnets. Harrisburg. Dienes, f. Rote, f. Hare, f. McCord, f. Karr, c. Geisel, c. Parker, g. Ford, g. Ehlers, g. McConnell, f.
