

CURED OF CATARRH

OF
Twenty-Three Years Standing
MRS. J. H. BOURLAND
OF
Frankston, Texas

A FEW EXTRACTS FROM HER LETTERS:

- March 28, 1904—"Peruna cured me of catarrh of twenty-three years standing."
- April 13, 1906—"I shall spare no opportunity to speak a good word for the merits of Peruna."
- Jan. 21, 1908—"Peruna is all you claim it to be. Please accept my heartfelt thanks."
- Aug. 23, 1909—"I assure you that my first endorsement of Peruna was not exaggerated. I also regard Peruna as a very valuable household remedy."
- April 9, 1912—"I would state again that Peruna cured me of catarrh of twenty-three years standing."
- Aug. 18, 1914—"I always try to keep Peruna on hand during the winter, for coughs, colds and catarrh. I advise all mothers to do so."

Every one should have a copy of "The Ills of Life," which contains scores of testimonials from men and women equally honest and creditable as the author of the above correspondence.

BANK BARN COLLAPSES

Special to The Telegraph
Elam, Pa., March 2.—Three hundred persons narrowly escaped death yesterday afternoon at the farm of L. K. Schumann, when immediately after the sale, while the crowd was leaving, the large bank barn collapsed, due to a cave-in of the foundation of the east side.

SAP FREEZES ON TREES

Branches From Horse Chestnuts and Maples Covered With Icicles
Special to The Telegraph
Levittown, Pa., March 2.—A phenomenon in tree life was witnessed on the streets of this place, from the twenty-sixth of February until yesterday. Horse chestnut and maple trees that were trimmed by the electric light company, in the early part of February, to prevent interference with the wires, presented an appearance never witnessed here before. Two weeks in mid-February up until the twenty-sixth were very mild and the sap began to drop from the punctured places on the trees until the twelfth of March. On the twenty-sixth of February a cold wave appeared and on the morning of the twenty-seventh the trees presented a beautiful sight hanging full of icicles from 2 to 3 inches in length of frozen sap.

APPOINTED BATTLESHIP SECRETARY

Special to The Telegraph
Annapolis, Pa., March 2.—William E. Herr, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Herr, received an appointment from Secretary of the Navy, Daniels as Y. M. C. A. secretary on the battleship Delaware. Mr. Herr sailed February 20 from Philadelphia for Cuba.

Girls, Avoid Yellow Spots on the Teeth

"John, isn't it a pity Stella has such horrid teeth? What ugly yellow teeth she shows when she smiles, with that horrid gold front!"
Now, as a matter of fact, holes in the teeth and yellow teeth are usually caused by pure carelessness. When the teeth begin to turn yellow, blacken inside, little spots appear, when there is grit and tartar between the teeth and gums, when teeth are sore and begin to separate, when they are loose in their sockets and wobble about, rock to and fro by the tongue, one can overcome these conditions quite easily. According to a German scientist, all you need to do is to get from your dentist about four ounces of fluid ergan (you won't need more), and use morning, noon and night, merely holding a teaspoonful in the mouth a minute or so. The infestments and microbes will be washed out, the enamel cleaned and the dirty yellow coating, and your own white enamel appear. The sensitiveness to heat and cold, to sweets and tobacco, will no longer be noticed. Your teeth will be firm and strong again, all the mouth, tongue, upper palate and teeth will be clean, the disease condition disappear, and you save yourself a bill for store teeth.

TOBACCO HABIT

A very interesting book has been published on tobacco habit—how to conquer it quickly and easily. It tells the dangers of excessive smoking, chewing, snuff using, etc., and explains how nervousness, irritability, sleeplessness, weak eyes, stomach troubles and numerous other disorders may be eliminated through stopping self-poisoning by tobacco. The man who has written this book wants to genuinely help all who have become addicted to tobacco habit and says there's no need to suffer that awful craving or restlessness which comes when one tries to quit voluntarily. This is no mind-cure or temperance sermon tract, but plain common sense, clearly set forth. The author will send it free, postpaid, in plain wrapper. Write, giving name and full address—a postcard will do. Address: Edward J. Woods, 92 E. Station B, New York City. Keep this advertisement. It is likely to prove the best news you ever read in this journal.

HICKOK PLANT TO BE OF MODERN DESIGN

Buildings of Concrete, Brick and Steel Construction Will Cover Five Acres

The Hickok Manufacturing Company's new plant will be erected along the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks and will extend from Cumberland to Reilly streets. The new buildings, which are to cost $100,000, will occupy five acres and will be of concrete, brick and steel.

It was announced to-day that in the beginning of the present year would be employed, but as orders increased and business expanded, more employees would be added.

At present the company is situated at North and Chestnut streets, in that part of the Eighth ward which has been taken over for Capitol Park extension. The company recently received $210,000 from the State for the old buildings and the ground.

Will Start Work Soon

Work on the new plant will be begun within a month according to plans, and will be completed here in May. Day & Zimmerman, architects and engineers, of Philadelphia, are drawing the plans which are expected to be finished in a few weeks. The front part of the building will be two stories high and will contain the offices. The rear will be one story high and will be lighted from the roof. A roof tank will be erected for water in case of fire and for use in the iron and brass foundries, machine, wood, paint, blacksmith shops and modern plating department.

THURSTON, THE MAGICIAN

Few incidents of the regular theatrical season stir more general interest than Thurston, the magician, who is the attraction at the Majestic to-day and to-morrow, with matinee.

America is a trifle boastful of some of the accomplishments of the Yankee race, and certainly we have reason to be proud of Thurston, who has amused nations and made them pay for it. Americanese. He talks all the time he works—and then some. He uses language to divert you from what he is doing. If you speak English and understand what he is saying, you will find that his conversation luzzles, sparkles, electrifies. And here is the strange part—the people who do not know a word of English enjoy Thurston just as much as those who do, which shows you what a superfluity words are really.

"THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE"

For rush of action and intensity of surprise, Eugene Walter's dramatization of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" is without dramatic peer. It is a vivid visualization of the most widely read romance of the day, enhanced by one of the most artistic and realistic productions ever made—a series of pictures of youth—dewy, virgin youth—in the rugged frame of nature's scenery. A story of primitive love, it overshadows, in its stage presentation of tenderness and passion, the story of the "Lonesome Pine" in the original book. You must see June on the stage with her foolish obstinacy and general irresponsibility, wonderfully attractive as she is portrayed in perfect naturalness by Dixie Compton, who is the perfect embodiment of the

A Word About Quality In Spring Millinery

Many times, women in their enthusiasm over the stunning styles, quite neglect to investigate the quality of the hats they are purchasing, and others deliberately never mention it.

We must admit, this gives us pleasure, for there's pride back of the reputation we've mastered in selling only the very best qualities at the price asked, and when a woman purposely does not question the quality, we know she has confidence in the quality, and again when it is neglected, we're sure of gaining her confidence after the hat has given proper service.

A good thing to remember—Style is not EVERYTHING in Millinery. Thank you.

CHARMING MOUNTAIN MAID

The play comes to the Majestic Thursday afternoon and evening.—Advertisement.

RICHARD BENNETT'S CO-WORKERS IN "DAMAGED GOODS"

The Majestic offers for Saturday, afternoon and evening, Richard Bennett's co-workers in an absorbing theatrical drama, "Damaged Goods," from the pen of Eugene Brieux.

"Damaged Goods" enjoys the distinction of being the only play in the history of the stage which has paid for its "production" before the start of a nation was purchased. The original scenery for the play was loaned to Mr. Bennett by George C. Tyler, of the Liebler Co., the expectation being that there would be only one performance of the drama. The success of the play was instantaneous, and when the time came to return the scenery, the profits from the play had paid for it many times over.—Advertisement.

AT PHOTOPLAY TODAY

Ruth Roland, of the Kalem Company, comes to-day at the Photoplay in her Girl Detective Series, "The Mystery of the Tea Dansant," a two-reel drama, "The Rainy Day," two-reel Lubin drama, featuring Ormi Hawley and Earl Metcalfe, and a famous George Ade comedy fable, "The Cold Gray Dawn of the Morning After," completes the program.—Advertisement.
