BASKETBALL RACE IN CRUCIAL STAGE

Championship Will Come With Final Games Next Week; Important Contests This Week

Special to The Telegraph New York, March 3.—Not until all games have been played will the intercollegiate basketball race be decided. Yale has the best chance. Princeton and Columbia will be important factors. The New Yorkers still have a look-in.

The present week brings a schedule which does not promise as much as the games set for the next week. Cornell and Columbia play at Ithaca Friday, a contest which should provide plenty of thrills, and on Saturday Yale plays Pennsylvania, and Princeton meets Dartmouth. On form the two leading fives should win handily. The present standing shows that Columbia's hopes of winning the championship are not altogether groundless at this time, a hypothetical situation can be constructed that gives the Blue and White at least a look-in, as Columbia beating Cornell, Princeton beating Yale and Columbia beating Princeton in the final game. This would make the Blue and White team one of three quintets tied for first place.

SENATE IN ANOTHER ALL NIGHT SESSION

Struggle For Many Hours Over Indian Appropriation Bill and Nominations

Washington, March 3.—The closing hours of the 63rd Congress to-day found many ends of legislation demanding attention. The Senate struggled throughout the night on the $11,200,000 Indian appropriation bill and scores of nominations including President Wilson's trade commission appointments. The Indian bill was passed without a record vote. At 6:37 a. m. the Senate passed the River and Harbor bill, the last of the big supply bills to come before it, and then recessed until 11 o'clock. The House was in recess until 11:30 o'clock waiting for the Senate to catch up with the rush of business.

It was only by taking the unprecedented step of excusing the Vice-President and requesting his attendance that a quorum was obtained to pass the River and Harbor bill. Shortly after 4 o'clock, Senator Oliver raised the point of no quorum in order to get full consideration for an amendment authorizing a new dam in the Pittsburgh harbor.

Vice-President Aroused Only 46 Senators could be found and two more were needed to make a quorum. A motion was made and carried for the issuance of warrants for the arrest of absentees. Senator Bryan, temporarily in the chair, declined to sign the warrants on the ground that they could be signed only by the Vice-President or president pro tempore, Senator Clark.

After parliamentary wrangle, however, Senator Stone moved that the Vice-President be requested to attend. This was carried and the Vice-President was aroused from his bed about 3 o'clock. Just before he arrived, however, Senators Nelson, Page and Dillingham reported and made a quorum. The Vice-President, however, resumed the chair. The River and Harbor bill passed the Senate substantially without amendment.

It carries $25,000,000 for the continuation of projects already begun to be spent under the directions of the Secretary of War and the Board of Army Engineers.

Much Work Remains Both House and Senate will be in practically continuous session until adjournment at noon to-morrow. One by one, the accumulation of bills and resolutions was being disposed of and the House for President Wilson's signature, but the closing hours were not without threats of failure of some measures.

To-day House and Senate conferees are deadlocked over the rural credits appropriation bill; there was likewise a deadlock over the railway mail pay provisions in the Post Office bill. Utterances to abandon the disputed points or let the bills fall were being exchanged between the contending sides. No differences appeared in the other large bills which were not sure to be composed.

Captain Joseph Thompson and Patrolman Kelley assisted in the arrest and recovery of stolen goods.

Unofficial Accounts of German Note Favorable

Washington, D. C., March 3.—Administration officials were manifestly encouraged to-day by the unofficial accounts of the German note. While uncorroborated reports from London on Great Britain's attitude on the same subject have so far been indefinite, the other way the view that the German note may have some influence upon it. Representative Metz, who is in communication with the German note in the United States, said at the White House to-day that there was practically no supply of dyes in the United States at present and that American textile mills are practically dependent upon German dyes.

THURSTON, THE MAGICIAN The graceful, suave and always the keenly watched master Thurston, with the thoughtful face and the slim, capable hands, will close his local engagement at the Majestic to-night. Thurston, the magician, has gone farther and more audaciously than either Hermat or Keller ever attempted, as his novelties attest and his genius asserts. Vaudeville now and again has produced some card experts and a few specialists in magic, but all of these are common place in the presence of this man's most ordinary efforts. Whether they are tricks, illusions, scientific problems, sleight-of-hand or what not, they are in a class by themselves, and each perfect.—Advertisement.

"THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE" Millions of readers know June, the girl with the charming mountain girl of the Virginia Hills, the heroine of the famous novel by John Fox, Jr., "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." No one of the many who have followed June from her cabin in the hills to the highway improvement fight for love over feudalism, can afford to miss actually seeing what their imagination has pictured. "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" as masterfully dramatized, has proven one of the greatest successes of years. The dramatist has faithfully mirrored the delightful scenes of the book. "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" comes to the Majestic to-morrow, afternoon and evening.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM Gowns made while you wait is the striking novelty of "The Fashion Show," the tuncful one-act musical comedy that is pleasing Orpheum patrons this week. A French designer of gowns, who by the by is a real, live designer of European reputation, injects much of the comedy. More laughs are due when a "rube" and his daughter hit the store, who have plenty of money and who want some gowns, but don't know what they cost. For her especially good as the "rube" while Blanche Lafel is just as funny as his daughter. The designer simply takes a number of straight pieces of costly materials, and in a few minutes a gorgeously dressed model steps from her pedestal. A number of fine comedy attractions, including "Twenty Odd Years," a comedy sketch enacted by Harry Beresford and Company, are included in the remaining acts. The Orpheum bill is clever and diverting throughout.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL Rusty Corner Store will be in order at the Busby to-night. Some regulation comedy surprises are in store for the shoppers and at the same time they will get their last opportunity to see "Bill Blithers Bachelor," the greatest comedy vehicle seen at the Colonial since the improved vaudeville went into effect there. A clever duo of singing comedians and a dainty songstress round out the vaudeville roster. "Vacation Land," a pretentious musical comedy, and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Murphy, the Harrisburg favorites, in "Clancy's Ghost," will be the cream of

FIELD GOAL STAR IN TRENTON LINE-UP

Jimmy Kane, Who Plays Guard For Tigers, Holds Record For Field Goal Shooting

Included in the line-up which Trenton will bring to Harrisburg Saturday will be Jimmy Kane, the leading field goal scorer in the Eastern League. Kane has hit the net for 125 field goals so far this season. This is a new record in scoring for the league, the former mark of 121 being held by "Jiggs" Donohue, of the Jasper team. In the final games of the season Kane will probably swell his total to a mark hard to reach in the coming seasons. Kane is a hard man to cover and has been shut out in but one game this season. The local guards will have to work hard to keep him from scoring most of Trenton's points.

The film is described as being a gripping, intense drama, and will be shown complete in five parts.—Advertisement.

AT THE REGENT All lovers of good film plays, well acted, will want to witness the dramatization of "The Straight Road," by Clyde Pitch, at the Regent this afternoon and evening. Miss Gladys Hanson portrays the character of "Holl O'Hara," the girl of the slums, who rises above the mire and her squallid and iniquitous environment to make one of the most tremendous sacrifices of which the heart of woman is capable.—Advertisement.
