ANGRY WOMAN BURNS BARN AND CONTENTS

Confesses to Committing Crime After Arrest; Had Made Threats to Do So

Sunbury, Pa., March 3.—As an act of revenge, Mrs. William Gademam, a well-known resident of Rushton, this county, applied a match to the large barn of W. H. Gulick, and before the fire was discovered the flames had gained such headway that the buildings were destroyed, together with practically all its contents, including five cows, nine hogs, 500 bushels of oats and quantities of wheat and rye. The barn was one of the largest and finest in this vicinity.

WHEAT PRICES DROP

Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 3.—A sudden drop in the price of wheat has caused quite a rush to the local grain dealers. Farmers who were holding their wheat expecting $2 a bushel are now rushing it to market and $1.50 per bushel is the price now being paid by the Dillsburg dealers.

Quickly Relieves Without Distress

The congestion of waste and refuse from the stomach, fermenting in the bowels, generates poisonous gases that occasion distress and invite serious illness. Health and comfort demand that this congestion be speedily relieved and the foul mass expelled.

The well-founded objection most people have to the violence of cathartic and purgative agents is overcome by using the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that is sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A dose at night brings relief next morning, without discomfort or inconvenience. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 452 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

Fill Empty Bins

yes, the furnace has to be kept going for some time to come, regardless of how whimsical March weather may be. Don't let your bins get empty. Fill them with and be prepared for any emergency.

KELLEY'S COAL

Kelley's Hard Stove at $6.70 is a favorite furnace size. Try it for more heat.

Made Rails For P. R. R. Company at Safe Harbor a Half Century Ago

HENRY WILL

By Special Correspondent. Marietta, Pa., March 3.—Henry Will, of Lancaster, one of the best known men in the county, died this week after an illness of two years. He was born in 1838 at Landisville and when a young man was employed at Safe Harbor, where he was one of the first to make iron rails for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Nearly half a century ago he removed to Lancaster, where he was prominently identified with council, and was the first superintendent of the city garbage plant. He was a member of the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias many years and affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal Church, at the time of his death being chairman of the board of trustees. He was a veteran of the Civil War, belonging to the Fiftieth Pennsylvania Regiment. He was the last of eleven children. His widow and a number of children survive.

Wm. Sansom, Lykens Baker, Erecting Modern Building

Special to The Telegraph. Lykens, Pa., March 3.—Several years ago William Sansom erected a new bakery and began business in Main street in the West Ward of Lykens. His business soon increased to such proportions that his present plant became inadequate to supply the demand. Not only did he supply the demands of Lykens and Wiconisco, but his teams carried his product into every town and hamlet of the upper end of the county. This increased business has forced Mr. Sansom to purchase a larger and more up-to-date establishment, to be erected within 300 yards of the square in Main street. Men and teams were busy this morning breaking ground for the new structure, which will be at least twice the size of the former one. The ovens will be placed and all modern machinery and conveniences necessary for a large output will be installed.

A New Store for Men

☐ To-morrow we shall place at the service of men and young men a new store.

☐ It will be the only store of its kind in Harrisburg in that it will be devoted exclusively to the sale of ready-to-wear clothing.

☐ From our years of association with one of the city's best-known clothing houses, we know the wants of Harrisburg people and will make strong efforts to fill them.

☐ Special attention will be given to providing dependable clothing at the popular prices—fifteen, twenty and twenty-five dollars.

☐ By thus specializing we will be able to offer apparel possessing greater value than is customarily procurable at the prices mentioned and in greater variety than other stores show.

☐ While the store will be located but a few steps off of Market street's beaten path, it is nevertheless out of the high rent zone. This means smaller fixed charges to be taken care of in our selling prices.

☐ What is saved in this way will be given in added value—quality, workmanship and service.

☐ Everything will be sold on a basis of absolute satisfaction—not only at the time of purchase, but after the garment has been subjected to the test of time.

We extend to you a cordial invitation to attend the opening of this new store to-morrow.

☐ You will not be importuned to buy—rather we shall strive to make it an occasion for getting acquainted, and revealing to you what will be most stylish for Spring and Summer wear.

☐ We want you to see our display, and judge it for yourself. Be critical, if you will, in your comparisons, but come.

☐ Again, we invite you.

Winter Coughs, the Early Form of Bronchitis

Winter cough is the early form of bronchitis and comes after exposure to wet and cold. Acute bronchitis or pneumonia often follows. A short, painful, dry cough, a feeling of rawness and pain in throat, and behind breastbone, and oppression in chest are danger signals. Goff's Cough Syrup will end the cough, ease the pain, reduce the inflammation and bring relief. Start taking it today. A few doses will make you feel better. Guaranteed by Grocers and Druggists. 25 and 50 cents. No opiates.

Suppose your husband did as this one—

Decided that you were entitled to the very best in kitchen appliances.

Consulted the gas company and found that he could secure a Cabinet Gas Range with glass door, heat indicator and enameled parts, on small monthly payments spread over an entire year—and a Gas Water Heater on the same liberal terms.

Thus freeing you from the drudgery of the coal bucket and the ash box.

Then he would do as this husband did.

He'd get you this all gas kitchen
