STEEL MEN TO MAKE BID FOR TRADE IN FRANCE

New York, March 6.—Steel manu-facturers to-day considered the French government's action in annulling the tariff on rails as a direct bid for im-portations from the United States. It was thought that England's mills would be able to do little in filling the demand of French railways, because of labor shortage and the call of her colonial railways upon the surplus output. It is believed here that the tariff of $18 a ton probably will be re-stored as soon as the emergency has passed, and such advantage as manu-facturers may obtain from the change must be selzed quickly.
