"Get a Man" Slogan of Derry St. Men's Class

Efforts are being made by the membership committee of the men's class of Derry Street United Brethren Church, Fifteenth and Derry streets, to boost the attendance to 350. Circular letters were sent out this week by C. Raymond Wolf, chairman of the membership committee, urging each member "to get a man." The letter says in part:

"Get that fellow that works beside you! Get your brother, your father, your grandfather, your chum, anybody you know that wears trousers and doesn't go to Sunday school. Tell the man you go after about the red-blood fellows they'll meet in the class. Tell 'em about the big chorus, the bang-up orchestra, and the livewire teachers they'll hear. Tell them how the class has helped you. Tell them anything that will bring them running. We just must have that 350!"

The Churches Invite You

The churches of this city are anxious to have everyone in attendance of the services on Sunday. There is a concerted effort being made to that end. Aside from what every church is doing in an individual manner, all churches are uniting in the sending out of a general invitation to come to church every Sunday.

And you should heed that invitation. Because it comes to you in some way other than a personal call, makes it none the less cordial or hearty. The churches are unitedly paying for this space that the invitation might be extended to you.

The churches have a message for you. It is the message of Eternal Life exemplified through the Living Christ, Saviour of Man. It is the message which if you will receive will bring to you a new meaning, and a new hope to life--your life, and the lives of your fellow-men. It will make you a power which nothing else can make you.

Embracing that message rests entirely with you. The churches are anxious to tell you about it. They invite you to come and hear it. Every church in Harrisburg extends the invitation, for on the plane of recognizing the Living Christ, all churches stand united.

Come to Church Tomorrow

If there is a church to which you belong, go there. If you have no church relations, go to the church nearest you, but go to some church to-morrow.
