WARSHIPS' SUCCESS RESULTS IN SERIOUS SITUATION IN GREECE

Governor of National Bank Unable to Organize New Cabinet

DESIRES NEUTRALITY

Great Battle Is Believed to Be Developing in Eastern Theater

Dispatches from Greece report the situation there as grave as a result of the political deadlock over the question whether the country shall intervene in the war on the side of the allies. M. Zaimis, governor of the National Bank of Greece, has not yet shown any indication of being able to get together a new cabinet to succeed that of Premier Venizelos, which resigned on Saturday because King Constantine did not approve the premier's aggressive policy for participation in the war. King Constantine is understood to desire the maintenance of neutrality, but Attens dispatches say popular feeling is with M. Venizelos, who has declared that he and his party will not support any new government which may be formed with a who has declared that he and his party will not support any new government which may be formed with a policy of neutrality.

The bombardment of the Dardanelles by the allies, which is primarily responsible for the present situation in Greece, has had its effect also on other nations. London dispatches says the Bulgarian premier has promised a statement concerning his government's position. Public opinion in Italy also is aroused, although there are no indications that this nation will change its policy of armed neutrality at this time.

Germans Lose 3,000
A Paris newspaper, in a description the recent battle at Notre Dame Derette says that the Germans lost 00 men. Although they succeeded capturing the three lines of French nehes they are said to have been celled from them in a furious night the battle.

The fighting in the Carpathians, which for prolonged and desperate encounters rivals any phase of the war, continues without a decisive victory for either side. Another Great Battle Is Developing on Left Bank of River Vistula

By Associated Press

London, March 8, 1.15 p. m.—The scenter of interest on the eastern front again has shifted with the announcement from Petrograd that a great battle is developing on the left flank of the river Vistula at a point to the west, and also to the southwest of Warsaw.

It is not yet clear, judging from messages reaching London, which side has taken the offensive, but inspired sources both in Berlin and Petrograd have been hinting lately that vital operations might well be expected in this region. Messages from the Russian capital have declared that the old field of action in direction of Posen and Silesia alone could serve as the decisive battleground, while Berlin has been practicing another brilliant action in the direction of Warsaw.

The snow and slush of Saturday evening seemed to have no effect on the opening of the first annual motorcycle and bicycle show at the Chestnut Street Hall. With the hall draped in the colors of the motorcycle club brilliancy of light effect and muscal selections by the orchestra, the dealers displayed their new models and accessories to a crowd of people which seemed especially interested in the comparative merits of the machines. Questions were asked freely and those in charge of the displays as well as their assistants were all busy explaining points of advantage in their re

Denver, March 8.—Brigadier General Hugh Scott, chief of staff of the United States Army, planned early today to begin a 120-mile overland journey into the desert country of Southeastern Utah, in search of Tse-Ne-Gat, a Piute Indian wanted by the federa authorities on a charge of murder. Tse-Ne-Gat is being aided in his effort to resist capture by his father, "Old Polk," and a band of Piutes, who are thought to be entrenched a few miles southwest of Bluff, Utah.
