PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Says Indigestion Results From an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays or rots, for nearly the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by hyperacidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach, which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescing, and furthermore, to continue this for a week.

How Thin People Can Get Fat

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More

A Physician's Advice "I'd certainly give most anything to be able to fat up a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such a result is not impossible, despite past failures. Thin people are victims of mal-nutrition, in other words, they do not get the right kind of food.

Practical Prescription Against Stomach Acidity

Nine-tenths of all cases of stomach trouble nowadays are caused by too much acid. In the beginning the stomach itself is not diseased but if this acid condition is allowed to continue, the stomach wall becomes inflamed and produces stomach ulcers which may render a radical surgical operation necessary even to prolong life.

COLONIAL

Every afternoon and evening — Vaudeville and Pictures.

MOTION PICTURES

Palace, 10 a. m. to 11 p. m. Photoplay, 10 a. m. to 11 p. m. Regent, 12 noon to 11 p. m. Royal, 6 p. m. to 11 p. m. Victoria, 10 a. m. to 11 p. m.

"IL TROVATORE"

Mr. Sheehan is generally acknowledged the greatest exponent of this country, if not in the world, of the role of Manrico in "Il Trovatore," and he set about to gather a company with one object in view—namely—that each and every person must have one particular fame in the opera of "Il Trovatore. The result of such a course was to create a cast, the like of which never before appeared at one time in this country. There may have been opera companies with stars of equal magnitude, but there never has been in this country a cast to equal the one which will sing "Il Trovatore" at the Majestic, Saturday, afternoon and evening. —Advertisement.

GERMAN WAR PICTURES

There isn't much novelty about an exhibition of motion pictures of scenes and incidents in the European struggle, but there is decided novelty about an exhibition that is taken entirely from the German side of the battle line. In fact, the Majestic Theater is presenting the only authentic pictures of the German side of the conflict, now extant. The fact that the pictures were taken under the supervision of Kaiser's general staff, and that they are now being presented under the auspices of the New York State Zeitsung, attests to their verity. Frightful struggles have been visualized and actual scenes are shown of the German detention camp near Berlin. Scenes of the most important battles are shown. The pictures giving the German side of the struggle, are said to show the plain truth and to depict the struggle as it really is. —Advertisement.

"UNDER COVER"

Not since "Within the Law" was given the stage has any play achieved such instantaneous success as "Under Cover," which has scored the dramatic sensation of the year in both New York and Chicago. Selwyn and Company are responsible for both these productions, and "Under Cover" their latest big success, will be the attraction at the Majestic, Wednesday, afternoon and evening. "Under Cover" is like "Within the Law" in that the play is also a melodrama, but there the resemblance ends. It tells the story of an effort to smuggle a valuable necklace into the United States and the work which the secret service does to discover the fraud and prosecute the offenders. —Advertisement.

WHEN DREAMS COME TRUE

"When Dreams Come True," a new musical comedy by Philip Bartholomae, will be shown at the Majestic, Thursday, afternoon and evening. Frederick Santley is at the head of a cast including the services of some of the best known names in musical comedy: Connie Mack, Mabel Withers, Anna Little, Margaret Grace, Jack Mundy, Audrey Glassford and others will be in the line-up of principals—and a dainty, demure chorus of dancing darlings will help to whittle away the evening for the "stirred business man." —Advertisement.

ORPHEUM

Disappointing is the adjective to use when trying to describe the exceedingly funny blackface comedy that Comfort and King are presenting at the Orpheum this week, entitled "Cotton Town Divorcens." In brief, their act is a "legal satire," composed of a routine of particularly bright gags, sprinkled with vocal interpolations. The comedian of the duo enters the lawyer's office complaining about his wife and at the same time makes application for a divorce. The comedian later appears on the scene in exaggerated style, including a green wig, and plays the part of his wife. In both roles he is exceedingly funny and he gets his audiences just roaring with laughter at everything he says or does. Comfort and King are recognized as being among the most clever in their line. Comfort and King are offering the distinct comedy bit of a bill that is headed off by Trilzie Friganza, the delightful musical comedy star, who should be seen by every theatergoer in Harrisburg. —Advertisement.

COLONIAL

Vaudeville's celebrated bicycle funsters, known as the Six Franz Troupe, or perhaps even better known as the dippy cyclists, will hold the coveted position as headliner at the Colonial during the last half of the week. These daring comedians ride all sorts of vehicles on wheels and all sorts of wheels in fact most anything that goes around, and meanwhile inject no end of good comedy surprises. Another attraction of merit will be the appearance of Howard and Chase, character singing, talking and musical comedians. Cleveland and Marshall, in a comedy playlet, and Wilson and Lanore, variety entertainers, will round out the roster. Interesting moving picture features will complete the entertainment. —Advertisement.

ROMANCE OF CIRCUS LIFE AT REGENT TODAY

"The Circus Man," a Jesse L. Lasky production, with Theodore Roberts in the leading role, will be shown at the Regent to-day. This purely American photoplay, taken from George Barr McCutcheon's famous novel "The Road to the Ring," will appeal to all movie fans in that it discloses the love and thrills which go to make up the charm of life beneath the great white tent. That you may be sure to see this splendid Lasky production note the hours of its showing in our ad. "The Daughter of the People," a production by J. Searle Dawley, will be shown Friday, March 12. Laura Sawyer, Frederick DeBelleville and Robert Broderick will appear in this production. The play is intensely interesting. A daily change of two or three reels of good comedy are presented in addition to the feature. —Advertisement.
