PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

FETE BY CHILDREN IN COVENANT CHURCH

Primary Department Entertains to Secure Its Annual Easter Offering

One of the prettiest entertainments of the week was that given last evening by Mrs. S. R. Harris, superintendent, and the children of the primary department of Covenant Presbyterian Church for the class Easter offering.

The program included a piano solo by Anna May Wert; "Famous People," represented by girls and boys in Mother Goose costumes; "Pop Corn Song," by ten girls; "Search for the Fairies," ten girls; flag song; humorous dialogue, "What Have I in My Pocket?" by Curtis Pritchard and Dunlap; "When I Was a Child of Three," Viola Black; "Solomon Levy" and "Pat Murphy," by S. P. Eby and S. R. Harris; piano solo by Mrs. Ethel Burd. Living pictures of "Mother Church," "Cradle Roll," "Infant School," "The Wo-he-lo Call," by the Camp Fire Girls; "First Aid to the Injured," by the Boy Scouts; "The Uneeda Biscuit Boy," "Daddy's Boy," "Prayer," "Love in a Bonnet," "Puritan Maid," "Dutch Cleanser Girl," "Nobody's Child," "Gypsies," "Heard But Not Seen," "Seen But Not Heard," "Liberty."

The entertainment was so successful and so many who wanted to attend could not get in, that there will be a repetition of the program after Easter.

MRS. MILLER ENTERTAINS HER SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Mrs. W. C. Miller gave an informal little entertainment at her home, 327 Hamilton street, to members of her Sunday school class of the Otterbein United Brethren Church.

St. Patrick green was much in evidence in the decorations and a social followed a business session.

In attendance were Mrs. J. Frank Slike, Mrs. Florence Opdergraff, Mrs. Sara Boyd, Mrs. Marie Greene, Mrs. Shirk, Mrs. Minnie Warfel, Mrs. Alice Miller, Mrs. Ellenore Miller, Mrs. Jennie Brownawell, Mrs. C. W. Miller, the Misses Ruth Miller and Vesta Hall.

Gilbert McNiff has returned to Pittsburgh after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McNiff, at their home on North Second street.

Ellis N. Kremer, Jr., is going to Overbrook the latter part of the month, to visit at the home of his brother, John Kremer.

Pneumonia Prevalent

Local physicians report much pneumonia due to changeable winter weather. They caution against neglecting even slight coughs and colds because Pneumonia sets in quickly after exposure to cold or wet. It can be avoided by taking Goff's Cough Syrup in time. Goff's loosens the congestion of a cold, drives out the inflammation that causes the cough, and heals the soreness, almost always stopping the development of pneumonia. Contains no opiates. If you have a cold or cough get Goff's today. Guaranteed by Grocers and Druggists. 25 and 50c.

PUBLIC DANGER

A Warning Which May Save Your Life or That of Your Children

Be careful what you take for a cold. Many so-called "cold cures," "cough balsams," etc., contain opium, morphine or other poisonous drugs. Remember that Father John's Medicine is absolutely free from dangerous drugs. Father John's Medicine has had more than fifty years' success for colds and throat and lung troubles.—Advertisement.

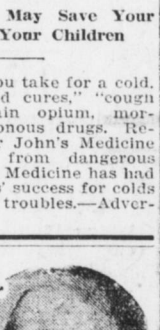
"INO" INNER-BELT CORSET

Illustrating the Abdominal Support



"INO" INNERBELT A Real Reducer

Ino Innerbelt Corset will positively reduce the abdomen four to ten inches without injuring one's health. Doctors and surgeons have pronounced it a blessing to women kind. One even said he could recommend it to 75 per cent. of his women patients. The belt of our corset is so attached and constructed that it gently lifts the abdomen enough to take the strain off the delicate muscles and properly distribute it so as to make life a pleasure. We have found this corset to be the greatest reducing corset ever offered to the public. Does it not look reasonable to you? Ino Innerbelt will make a large abdomen disappear and keep a good figure from getting "pody." Made-to-your-measure within two weeks. A trial will convince you.

Cunningham, Mrs. Cyrus E. Woods.

This is the first time that Mrs. Cox has given a recital in her home town, although she has frequently been heard in other cities.

St. Patrick's Bal Masque to Be Largely Attended

The committee in charge of the St. Patrick's Bal Masque to be given as a return dance to the ladies who entertained at a Valentine fete, Friday evening, March 19, has arranged with Pounds, a Lancaster costumer to be in this city to-morrow all day at the Commonwealth, for guests to choose their costumes. The Updegrove orchestra will play for the dancing and there will be special decorations and a supper.

The committee includes W. H. Johnston, Lee Laubenstine, James Q. Handshaw, Jr., J. Motter Fletcher and Redsecker Brinser.

MISS REILEY IS HOSTESS FOR SPRING BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Carolyn Reiley gave a little dinner of six covers last evening at her home, 129 Pine street, in honor of Miss Charlotte Adams who will soon be a bride.

The appointments were of yellow with daffodils featured in the flowers. The guests were the more intimate friends of Miss Adams, and included Mrs. William C. Wanbaugh, Mrs. Rexford M. Glaspey, Miss Mildred Astrich, Miss Helen Rinkenbach and Miss Reiley.

USE COCOANUT OIL FOR WASHING HAIR

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possiby injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The latter rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.

"ROBIN HOOD" BY NOTABLE COMPANY

Ever Popular Light Opera by De Koven Well Presented Last Night at Majestic

One broad assertion will suffice to give a clear conception of the production of De Koven's "Robin Hood" last night at the Majestic. In many respects the company and production equalled that of the New York revival of a few years ago when Bessie Abbott, Florence Wickham and George Frothingham, who died but recently, were the principal characters of the production. "Robin Hood," the gem of De Koven's operas never fails to please, but a cast and chorus of the character of the present De Koven Opera Company does more—it brings to one a great sense of gratification that among the great mass of light and comic comedies there is at least one that can live for years, one whose charm never dies. De Koven's Opera Company evidenced the fact that extreme care had been exercised not alone in the choice of principals, but in the choice of the chorus as well. Detail of staging too, received the most careful consideration — all of them combining to present a thoroughly balanced, well rounded-out production. The voices blended with exquisite delicacy in those delightful melodies that have lived for so many years and it was difficult for the audience in a number of the choruses to refrain from joining in the songs that have grown so popular.

It would be unfair to commend too highly the work of any artist and fail to mention any other one. The cast was equally good throughout with no one taking precedence over any one else. Everyone in their part was just exactly what they should be in order to present the production equal to what De Koven desired. Particularly well received were "Brown October Ale," which James Stevens to the delight of the audience encored twice; "O, Promise Me," sung beautifully by Cora Tracy; the "Round," the serenade by Harold Blake, who, despite the fact that he was suffering from a heavy cold, sang the part of Robin Hood with wonderful conception. "The Armorer's Song," sung with the rare bass voice of George Shields; "When a Maid Weds," sung with the charming soprano of Lorena Carmen; and "The Forest Song," delightfully sung by Ivy Scott, a vivacious Maid Marion. "Robin Hood" will live for years to the delight of generations to come, just as it has delighted over seven thousand audiences of its career of the past twenty years. The audience last night was enthusiastic in its reception of this light opera so perfectly presented by this admirable company.

CASCARETS FOR COSTIVE BOWELS, HEADACHE, COLDS

Tonight! Clean your bowels and stop headache, colds, sour stomach

Get a 10-cent box now.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and bad colds—turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels, or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.—Advertisement.

Rich Man Gets Divorce, but Poor Man Simply Goes Away From Home

By Associated Press

New York, March 11. — The Rev. Dr. William T. Manning, rector of Trinity church which is considered the wealthiest church in New York, if not in the country, declared in a sermon in that church last night that divorce was "the shameful luxury of the rich and well to do."

"The poor man," said Dr. Manning, "cannot afford divorce and so he simply follows the example of the illustrious names he reads about in the papapers and deserts his home. That is his way of accomplishing the same thing the rich men can accomplish by law."

After the California Expositions —take a Little Sea Trip

Here's the idea! Go out to California by way of Denver, Colorado Springs, Pikes Peak, the Wonderful Royal Gorge and Salt Lake City—all this by daylight and, without extra charge, provided you travel on the Burlington Route (C., B. & Q. R. R.), which has through service from Chicago and St. Louis.

After that, "do" California and the Expositions and then take one of those Magnificent new Great Northern Pacific Steamships—the finest on the Pacific—from San Francisco up to Portland, Oregon. Then, homeward bound, stop at either Glacier National Park or Yellowstone Park—the wonders of the world.

Now will you allow me to help you plan for such a trip? That's what I'm here for.

You are planning to spend a sum that entitles you to see the best scenery in the West. Give me an idea of when you want to go, how long you can stay, etc., and I will plan a trip especially fitted to your time and needs—also send you without charge, such pictures, maps and printed descriptive matter as will aid you to determine the best thing to do.
