"SAFETY FIRST" AT THE ORPHEUM; AN ELABORATE MUSICAL COMEDY

In announcing the engagement of "Safety First" to be presented at the Orpheum next week, the management declares that Harrisburg audiences will be among the very first to see the most sparkling, clever and by all odds, most pretentious musical comedy vaudeville has seen.

A good deal of local interest is centered in the players in the leading roles. They are Lou Anzer and Sophie Barnard, who both appeared at the Orpheum this season in "Singles."

SING "ROSE MAIDEN" AT ELIZABETHVILLE

Upper End Choral Society to Repeat Splendid Festival in High School Tonight

Elizabethville, Pa., March 13.—In response to the widespread demand for a return engagement, the Elizabethville Choral Society this evening will again sing Frederic H. Cowen's "Rose Maiden" in the High School Auditorium.

The chorus numbers fifty voices and is splendidly trained. The rendition of the "Rose Maiden" for the first time, Friday and Saturday evenings, of last week made a wonderful hit and the big auditorium full of enthusiastic folks encored the singers again and again.

Besides the big chorus of fifty trained singers the soloists include the following: Sopranos—Mrs. F. Blair Weaver, Mrs. Ruth Longenecker, Misses Frances Miller and Esther Schreiber. Tenors—P. A. Swab, V. E. Swab and C. E. Forney.

London, March 13, 9.25 a. m.—Count Sergius Julowich Witte, Russia's first Prime Minister, died last night, says a Petrograd dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company.

Count Witte was regarded in some respects as one of the most remarkable men his country had produced, but his reputation was even greater abroad than at home.

Witte gave subcontracts and government orders until factories and mills were running full blast. He had the state take over the private railroads. To do all this he borrowed immense sums in France.

At the Portsmouth conference, following the Russo-Japanese War, he succeeded in gaining terms under which Russia was not obliged to pay a cash indemnity to Japan.
