

THE GLOBE

Nailing a Lie--- To Our Friends, The Railroad Men---

A malicious attempt has been made to injure The Globe by the circulation of a false report that we had signed the petition for the repeal of the Full Crew Bill. We brand this statement as a scurrilous and malicious falsehood. Every man in our store signed a petition circulated by your railroad committee AGAINST the repeal of the Full Crew Bill. We have endeavored in the past to show our interest in, and friendship for, all the Railroad Men of this section, and have assisted financially and otherwise every movement in which you were interested, and we are positive that you Railroad Men who know us and know what The Globe has stood for in the past, will assist us in "Nailing the lie."

Very sincerely yours, J. H. BOILER

We're Proud of These Dollar Shirts---

Our collection of woven madras, mercerized pongee and crinkly crepe negligee shirts in new striped effects, including the latest black and white stripes, are the most beautiful we've ever seen--and worth $1.50 easily.

THE GLOBE "The Friendly Store"

You Should "Catch The Globe Fifteen"

If you do you'll be going some. The styles, models, fabrics and tailoring that goes into each and every "Globe Fifteen" Suit is so far ahead of those shown by other stores, that they can't keep up the pace. We've outdistanced them all. Every day brings new models--new designs. Every day we feature new styles in our windows--styles that attract the widest attention.

"Globe Fifteens" have the earmarks of the usual $20 suits shown elsewhere. Every garment is hand-tailored and bears our guarantee, which is your protection.

EAST BERLIN MAY DISSOLVE

Attorney General Grants Quo Warranto to Determine Whether It Can Give Up Ghost

Attorney General Brown has granted the use of the name of the State in quo warranto proceeding brought against the East Berlin Railroad Company, operating in Adams county, by its owner. The case is one of the most unusual ever known at the Capitol. The East Berlin is owned by W. G. Leas and last year suspended operations. It was brought to the attention of the Attorney General by Daniel E. Brandt and others residing along the road before the Public Service Commission with the object of securing the road for public use. The commission issued an order directing resumption of trains. The owner objects because of the unprofitable nature of the business in the past and has asked for a quo warranto to determine by court action whether the company may not be dissolved. Under ordinary circumstances the company could have voted to dissolve, but in the order of the Public Service Commission hanging over it court action is necessary.

Mr. Brown has also given an opinion to the Public Service Commission to the effect that the York Railways Company may acquire, hold and own stock and bonds of a light, heat and power company. A writ of quo warranto has been asked by E. N. Gowdy, of Montgomery county, against the Perkiomen Valley Traction Company. This company which seeks a franchise to construct and operate a trackless trolley line. The first amendment--The resolution to amend the woman suffrage constitutional amendment to the people of the State for action which was passed by the Senate last night will now be considered by the committee on the floor. It is the first of the proposed constitutional amendments to pass and will be diligently compared with the former amendments at the last session and arrangements made for advertising late in the summer. Local Option Discussion--The House and its committee will not meet this week. Arrangements have been made for a meeting next Tuesday, at which time it will be decided whether the bill will be reported out this month or hearing held. Some requests for hearings are being made, but the whole matter will depend upon what the Governor desires. The committee will give a hearing on the Evans early closing bill next week. This bill fixes 11 o'clock as the closing time for all saloons. The Gibbons bill for local option with compensation will be laid before the committee next Tuesday, having been referred to-day. Asking Charter--Advertisement has been made for a charter for the Harrisburg Automobile Company, Harrisburg. The Messrs. Blough and George G. McFarland are the applicants. Ex-Senator Here--Ex-Senator John C. Philadelphia, was a Capitol Hill visitor. Public Service Hearing--The Public Service Commission to-day heard testimony in Philadelphia. The hearing was held by the Philadelphia and Reading railroad has not complied with the orders of the commission requiring additional accommodations. A hearing on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad has not complied with the orders of the commission requiring additional accommodations. Attended Funerals--Senators Crow, Snyder and others attended the funeral of Charles A. Grady at Marietta to-day. Legislative Visitors--Visitors to the Capitol included Ex-Senator Enos Jones, Altoona; Ex-Representatives Joe Call, Philadelphia, and R. Scott Ammerman, Danville. Would Buy Negatives--An appropriation of $1,400 has been asked in a bill presented to the House for purchase of negatives of photographs showing development of the industry owned by J. A. Mather, of Titusville. They are for the state museum. Dean Lewis Here--William Draper Lewis was at the Capitol attending a hearing to-day.

Steelton Middletown & Highspire of GRADE CROSSINGS

Middletown Council Is Drafting Ordinance Closing New Ann St.; Will Open Wilson St.

Elimination of another of Middletown's railroad grade crossings is planned by the borough Council. An ordinance to close New Ann street will be acted upon within the next thirty days. The ordinance which is planned to eliminate the Pennsylvania Railroad at Ann street, and is one of the crossings in the borough. The ordinance, introduced in Saturday evening's special meeting of Council, calls for the closing of New Ann street from Ann street to the present crossing. It also calls for the opening of Wilson street from Grant street to the Harrisburg pike. In order to obtain an outlet from Grant street to the pike a bridge will be placed over the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks in Wilson street, near the Harrisburg pike. The ordinance was introduced by the Harrisburg State Park Association.

Girls' Club Will Give St. Patrick's Program

Pretty girls and catchy music will be features of a St. Patrick's entertainment to be given this evening in Cavalry Presbyterian Church, South Cameron street, by the Girls' Club. The proceeds will be devoted to the building fund.

Civic Club Has Plan For Public Playground

The Steelton Civic Club at a meeting in Trinity parish house yesterday afternoon decided to ask the borough council to permit the closing of a section of North Second street, to allow the ground to be used as a public playground. Members of the club declared that the street is little used north of Franklin street to Gibson and that, as there are few houses on either side, it would make an ideal playground. Begin Grading Complete Survey Arrest Foreigner Stucker Brothers, contractors, to-day began work on grading a portion of Pine street extension owned by Henry A. Kelker, of Harrisburg. The section will then be thrown open to development and laid out into building lots. William P. Callaghan and C. H. Hoffer, borough engineers, completed complete topographical survey of the Luther R. Kelker park tract. After terrifying women and girls in the lower end of Steelton for a week Sando Zsalanko, who says he lives at 470 Mohr street, according to the police was arrested by Constable John Gibb and Chief of Police H. P. Longaker last night.

Automobile Shows Are in Full Swing

The variety of the shows is enough to interest everyone whether or not he is a garage enthusiast. The ornaments, the decorations and souvenirs are attractions for those who cannot understand the workings of the demonstration chassis with slowly moving engines and dissected portions to show the internal working arrangements. Prices descending. Souvenirs and reduced catalogues are given out by exhibitors in such profusion as to load every visitor and keep him studying for months and arouse an interest in automobiles that may finally tempt him on to purchase when the price descends to his level. And prices for the big, fully equipped six and eight cylinder cars are dropping to such a point that the ordinary man can think more seriously of having a car, or at least a four-cylinder of modest size and price. One of the striking features of practically all models this year is the left-side steering wheel, which has been gradually coming into favor in recent years. Other noticeable improvements are the one-man top, which eliminates the central post supports for the canopy and greatly facilitates the raising and lowering, also the "lift" curtains, which can be set in a storm without the ordinary confusion, delay and profanity unavoidable with the old form of sectional curtains. The general design is smoother than ever, with more massive hoods over the engines and easier curves merging into the tonneau. No sharp corners or protruding parts can be seen and the first impression of the 1915 models is one of silent, massive strength.

Farmer and Wife Commit Suicide in Their Barn

Reading, Pa., March 16.--A well-known farmer and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seyfert, each 45 years of age, residing in Joanna, this county, committed suicide this morning by hanging themselves in their barn. Two sons, Jacob, aged 12, and Howard, aged 10 years, made it find upon going to the barn to feed the stock. There is absolutely no known motive for the double suicide.

Postpone Action on License Revision

Council Will Wait For Legislative Enactments Before Drafting Ordinances

Revision of Steelton's vending license regulations requested by the Merchants' Association, was postponed by Council last evening after a letter from Borough Solicitor George W. Wickersham, advising such action, was read. Further action on the traffic ordinance was also postponed on advice of Wickersham. Borough Solicitor advised Council that inasmuch as the borough code now before the Legislature will likely become a law, it would be inadvisable to pass any new ordinance which advised a postponement of a month or two, at least. In response to the vending license revision, his letter said in part: It would probably be better to hold this matter over for a month or two longer and await developments in the new Borough Code. As I stated in a former letter if the new borough code is passed, it may be necessary to revise all ordinances on this subject. After President Reinders pointed out the expense involved in changing the ordinance at this time and then again, possibly, when the code becomes law, the matter was laid on the table. It will be taken up later. With a few minor changes in the location of lamps, the ordinance revising the street lighting system was passed. A new 100-C-P lamp at River and Cranberry alleys, by Mr. Wagonbaugh; a new lamp placed at the intersection of C-P, Incandescent; the gas lamp at Trewick and Canal alley removed and a new lamp placed at the Franklin street bridge approach, by Mr. Zimmerman.

Open Paving Bids

Four bids for 7,000 square yards of paving in Conestoga, South Third and Highland streets, were opened. The bidders were: A. B. Kraft, Bennet and Randall, R. A. Rathbun, Charles T. Boudreau and the Standard Bitulite Company. The bids range from $1.25 per square yard for amosite to $2.95 for white bitulite. Bids on certain basins ranged from $1 to $2. Bids were referred to the highway committee for tabulation and a report at the next Council meeting.

Hold House Party

Latest British Order Is Displeasing to U. S.

Washington, March 16.--President Wilson to-day declined to discuss the British order to council shipping off trade with Germany because he had not had an opportunity to go over the official text as yet and had been only informally advised of its terms, but indicated broadly that the unofficial outline of its contents was very displeasing to the United States government.

Many Cases of Rheumatism Now

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry. Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat. Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water, and above all, take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid. Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism. At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well. Advertisement.
