HARRY K. THAW NEAR MATTEAWAN'S GATES

Supreme Court Justice Decides He Cannot Be Returned to New Hampshire

New York, March 16—Harry K. Thaw will not be sent back to New Hampshire by the state of New York as his counsel demanded, but must be returned to Matteawan Asylum, unless legal papers calling for his detention in New York county are served upon the warden of Tombs Prison. This was Supreme Court Justice Page's de-clision today in disposing of the formal motion to have Thaw returned to New England.

motion to have Thaw returned to New England. In the meantime counsel for Thaw, as if in anticipation of such a deci-sion, had obtained from Supreme Court Justice Bijur a writ of habeas corpus which will keep Thaw in Tombs Prison till next Friday when he must be produced in court. It was a close call for Thaw as plans had been considered by the state for returning him at once to Mattea-wan. Asylum attendants were in the court room ready to rush him there by automobile, but the writ of habeas corpus prevented this. Twenty Deputies Armed. Sheriff Griffenhagen, of New York county, had heard whisperings of a plot to abduct Thaw during the brief interval when he should be out of Warden Hanley's custody in going to and from the prison to the court room across the bridge of sighs. Accord-ingly, the sheriff armed twenty depu-ties with revolvers and scattered them throughout the crowd that packed the court room. iff said. "I am well heeled for an abduction." Thaw Was Disappointed. When the decision was announced, Thaw's smille changed to a frown. Plainly he was disappointed. He turn.: 4 quickly to John B. Stanchfield, of his counsel, who spoke a few words in an undertone and took his seat. A moment later, two of the sheriff's deputies led him away to the Tombs. Justice Page took occasion to com-ment, in his decision on the good faith displayed by the state of New York to-wards New Hampshire by placing Thaw on trial on the conspiracy charge. There had been no evidence, the court held, to warrant the charge that Thaw had been brought back simply to be sent again to Matteawan. Nor had there been adduced any ade-quate reason why Thaw should be sent back to New Hampshire after his trial and acquitta.

Genuine Persian Mahal Rugs . at Specially Low Prices

These are real Mahals, not the inferior Muskabad rugs so usually advertised and sold in reduction sales.

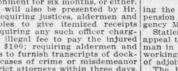

Mahal carpets are much closer woven, more artistic in colorings and designs. The wool used is of splendid quality; colors fast. The designs are Persian; many of them of the Saruk type. We mention a few sizes and prices as examples of the unusual values.

Mahal Rugs 12.8 x20.7 13.9 x20.8

This is just another instance of the many advantages in buying from a Rug House of international reputation and connections, where rugs are priced and sold STRICT-LY ON THEIR MERITS, and guaranteed for exactly
