The Garden of Spring Millinery Is in Full Bloom
Opening of the New Hat Styles Reveals a Magnificent Assemblage of Creations for Every Occasion

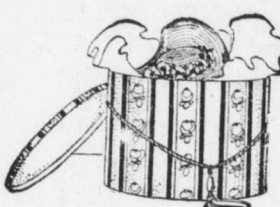

Strictly Tailored Hats Smart Suit Hats Dainty Party Hats Sumptuous Dress Hats
The Best Models of the Leading New York Ateliers Are Shown

The hats in this Festival of Spring Fashions surpass in beauty and variety any opening displays heretofore. The wonderful use of flowers naturally contributes a wealth of color that makes the effect all the more attractive.

As usual our showing is enriched with pattern hats of distinctive designing, each model of which was made for us expressly and is therefore its own guaranty of style exclusiveness.

Copies of latest imported hats abound in many interpretations at moderate prices, assuring a selection that embraces every mode and whim of the season.

Welcome, then, to Harrisburg's foremost Fashion Show, which continues formally till Saturday evening.

The Leading Shapes

Poke Effects, Wide-brimmed Sailors, Quaint Turban Shapes, Transparent Hats, Capeline and Shepherdess Shapes, Small Boat Shapes, Picturesque Tricorne, High-crown Pilgrim Hats, Large Hats with Rolling Brims.

The Fashionable Shades

Old Dresden Blue, Fanny Purple, Dove Grey, Sky Blues, Black and White, All Black, Cherry Red, Mulberry.

The Popular Trimmings

Flowers are in the lead as trimmings for Spring Hats—it seems, in fact, as if every creation must have something of this nature to lend color and beauty.

The little nosegays, long wreaths of small roses, buds and small flowers, fancy daisies, asters, roses, chrysanthemums, cherries and a whole host of pretty blooms of many varieties, colors and sizes are in evidence as never before.

Small fruits and berries, wheat, ostrich fancies, imitating military pompon effects and quills and wings all play an important part in the embellishment of the new millinery.

The Principal Materials

Fine Hems, Milan Hemp Liscere, Plain Hems, Lacy Horsehair Braids, Glycerine Braids, Beautiful Leghorns, Novelty Straws, Combination Straws.

The Largest Variety of Hat Styles for Girls and Misses We Have Ever Shown

Hats of the genuinely "girlish type"—designed by specialists in this class of millinery that requires an artistic mind and great skill to distinguish it from the mediocre.

In this unusually large showing are all kinds of straws including panamas and leghorns with trimmings of almost unlimited fancy in flowers, ribbons, streamers, quills, etc.

Shown are distinctive styles for little girls and very stylish effects for girls in their "teens."

SHOWS TO OBSERVE ST. PATRICK'S DAY

factory indication to all dealers of the increasing interest in automobile matters.

Continuation of excellent weather adds to the success and not only pedestrians and street car riders are visitors, but dozens of automobile parties drive up and the waiting cars line the streets for several blocks.

Shows are instructive. Although a number of direct sales of machines have been made by several dealers, the great benefit felt, according to the opinions of the managers, is the education of the public on general automobile matters. Innumerable questions are asked and comparisons are made between various makes of machines that could not be made anywhere but at an exhibition.

Dealers of accessories and supplies at both the Arena and Kelker street are the centers of inquiry for actual automobile owners regarding prices and comparative wearing qualities, and the agents are fully equipped to prove the truth of their arguments by demonstrations.

St. Patrick's Observance

Special St. Patrick's Day programs are being given at both shows. At the Arena to-night three of the demonstrators who are vaudeville artists, have consented to pull off some of their fancy stage work, and special Irish music will be played by Louis Cortese, the harpist and Arthur H. Robin, violinist.

At the Capital City show in Kelker street the vandy baz souvenirs given to each lady at the entrance are proving very popular, almost 2,000 of them having been given out so far. The Reese Concert Orchestra is continuing its excellent music, and dancing goes on after 10 o'clock each evening. The program for to-night is as follows: Part I—"Same Old Town," Gilbert and Smith; "When Dreams Come True," Silvio Hein; "Morenita," E. Murillo; "Lilac Domino," Charles Cecil; "Hollicking Priars," Manuel Klein; "Tip, Top Tipperary," Mary, Harry Carrol.

JOHN S. WEAVER DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

JOHN S. WEAVER. The survivors are a widow, one brother, Samuel K., and a half brother, George W., of Steelton. Edwin I. Weaver, manager of the Weaver Typewriting and American Multigraph Sales

Company, and Harry Weaver, of State College, are nephews. The funeral arrangements will be arranged later.

Born in Highspire

John S. Weaver was born in Highspire, Dauphin county, December 12, 1849. He was a son of the late John and Barbara Hoffman Weaver. The father was a truck gardener and farmer near Highspire. The son attended the district schools and when thirteen years old came to Harrisburg. He started in business as a clerk for the late Henry Felix, Harrisburg's earliest confectioner, who was in business for many years in Market square. Four years later, on May 1, 1868, Mr. Weaver accepted a position with Gardner and Sayford at 24 North Third street. This firm succeeded the late John Wise who opened a store in the College Block room soon after the close of the War of the Rebellion.

Enters Partnership

On January 1, 1873, the business was purchased from Gardner and Sayford by John S. Weaver and A. T. Hubley, and was thereafter conducted under the name of Weaver & Hubley, until 1909. On January 12, of that year came the death of Mr. Hubley; and on May 11 following the business was taken over by John S. Weaver who has since carried on the business under the name of the Confectionery Store. In addition to the candy business, Mr. Weaver also had a lucrative fancy cake trade. His store has held a reputation for high quality many years. In addition to looking after his candy and cake trade, for many years Mr. Weaver was a caterer and officiated at many prominent State functions, and at many weddings and anniversaries. Very Widely Known. He was a member of Zion Lutheran Church and for many years officiated as a deacon and elder. Mr. Weaver was also a charter member of the Young Men's Christian Association and was actively engaged in the work until a short time ago. He was at one time director and was instrumental in the adoption of special departments for young men and boys. He was a prominent Republican; an ardent baseball enthusiast, and was known by a vast array of acquaintances as a genial fellow, courteous to all, and a thorough and successful businessman.
