TELLS ENGAGEMENT

Mand Powell, one of the real great violinists of the world, who will play in Harrisburg in Easter week, possesses an interesting old violin which players and lovers of old instruments will be glad to learn about. It is a genuine Johannes Baptiste Guadagnini, and in her opinion is the fiddle for her work, gave a little party last evening to announce her engagement to the Rev. Alonzo S. Fite, pastor of the Hummelstown Methodist Church.

Green and white prevailed in the decorations, with hearts, plants and flowers carrying out the Color scheme in combination with St. Patrick's Day suggestions. The table centerplece was a basket of Irish potatoes, surrounded by flags of the Emerald Isle, and a green snake held the betrothal annoupcement.

In attendance were the Misses Mary Hoffer, Violet Cassel, Marjorle Nissley, Irene Gerber, Iola Fasnacht, Anna Jack, Mary Bolton, Esther Brinser, Mabel Landis and Zelma Landis, of Hummelstown; Miss Elizabeth Brothers and Mrs. Erdsman, of Harrisburg; the Rev.
