Special to The Telegraph. Los Angeles, March 18.—Out of one of the most dramatic and thrilling finishes ever witnessed in southern California motor racing, Barney Oldfield came to victory in his Maxwell yesterday on the new Venice speedway. Without a stop in the 301-mile Grand Prix or even a gear shift the veteran speed master was ready in the final moments to close with the rush of a whirlwind the gaps which fate in its most freakish mood opened before him. Oldfield averaged 67 miles an hour. Half a minute behind Oldfield was William Carlson in a duplicate Maxwell. But for one 7 second stop he, too, would have made the speed journey from start to checkered flag without a call at the pit. Oldfield official time was 4 hours, 24 minutes, 9 seconds.

Special to The Telegraph. Tarrytown, N. Y., March 18.—Hyman Levy, after being asleep for seven years, like Rip Van Winkle came back into his own at Sleepy Hollow yesterday, when he was elected trustee of the village of North Tarrytown.

Eight years ago Levy, who was one of the leading politicians and most widely-known business men in North Tarrytown, had his leg injured. He worried so much about it that his mind became a blank. He did not know his most intimate friends during all those years, until one day last summer he asked to go camping with his sons. While at the camp his mind cleared, he grew stronger and, in a few weeks he was his old self.

At the recent election he got up his own ticket, to show the inhabitants that he could "come back" like Rip Van Winkle. When the results were announced Levy and his ticket had won by a big majority.

Philadelphia were not used to the sight of Kid Williams taking a beating. He has always trotted through his bantam rivals here and came through with a victory, but last night he went out of his class and had to take second honors. But it was not an insidious defeat. He fought a real champion, Kilbane, being a marvel in ring generalship.

Johnny held the Baltimore lad at arm's length on any number of occasions and then jabbed away with his left. He jarred Williams in the closing rounds and Williams' head was accidentally cut.

Manager Harris claimed that Williams was butted by Kilbane in the third round, but Referee Frank O'Brien passed it by. At any rate, Kilbane was fighting hard and waded in at every opportunity. Kilbane was the busy boy all the time. Williams made a game fight but lacked cleverness at critical times.
