U. S. MUST DECIDE ON ITS FOREIGN POLICY

So Declares Senator Lewis, of Illinois, in Address Before Missouri Legislature

By Associated Press Jefferson City, Mo., March 19.—Warning that the United States must now decide on a definite foreign policy was given by Senator James Hamilton L. Lewis, of Illinois, who addressed the Missouri Legislature today.

Senator Lewis said the United States should decide whether she would retain the Philippines and maintain two large fleets to resist aggression on the part of foreign powers, or the United States must decide to leave the Philippines and return to the traditional policy of isolation.

"Should the United States find it necessary to make a protest against Japan's forcibly seizing China, Japan would probably exact of her present allies—England, France and Russia—support for her against the United States," said Senator Lewis. "Then America would be confronted with a remarkable situation. Should Japan, in conjunction with China, be forced to vent the grievance of her people by war, she would seize the Philippines and then would seize Hawaii as the base from which to intercept our fleet on its way to recover the Philippines. Then Russia, the ally of Japan, would seize Northern Alaska.

"This would divide our army and navy. England, because of her alliance with Japan, would render no aid to the United States in Canada or Alaska—nor would she dare to do so in view of English possessions and English citizens in Japan and China.

"Central America, which has a grievance against us because of the claim that we forcibly took Panama, might lend itself to aid our foes by destroying the Panama Canal to prevent our fleet in the Atlantic and Pacific from joining.

"It is plain that the United States has but one of two courses. Either we must come out of the Philippines and remove any government of our choice from the Far East or we must maintain an Atlantic fleet large enough to cope with combined Europe and a Pacific fleet large enough to combat the combined Orient."

To Award Prize Vase to Winner of Story Writing Contest at the Academy

The Harrisburg Academy to-day received from James P. Lawson, of the Tatler & Lawson Decorating Company, of Trenton, N. J., a Lenox blue china vase, engraved on one side with the Academy crest, made in royal blue, on the other side in gold letters the following: "The Lawson Prize in story writing, the Harrisburg Academy, 1914-1915."

The vase is decorated with gold bands. The gift is on exhibition in the show window of the Boas jewelry store, 214-216 Market street.

The vase will be awarded on commencement day to the writer of the best original short story in a contest held April 26. Posses Trailing Indian Ordered to Return Home

By Associated Press Denver, Col., March 19.—The posse of federal deputies under United States Marshal Hebecker at Bluff, Utah, which for more than a month has been attempting to arrest Taso-Na-Gat, a Piute Indian, wanted by the federal authorities on a charge of murder, has been ordered home, according to a dispatch from Bluff to-night.

"Old Polk," father of Taso-Na-Gat, and a large party of renegade Indians have for several weeks been aiding the fugitive in resisting arrest. No reference is made in the dispatch to the activities or the present whereabouts of General Scott, chief of staff of the army, who arrived in the Bluff district recently to attempt to pacify the recalcitrant Piutes.

Departments desiring them must submit can become acquainted with them, and can become acquainted with them, all legal business of the State will be handled through the department instead of each branch having its own collector.

The anthracite act will raise over 4,500,000 a year, Mr. Brown believes, and this will furnish a steady fund for road improvement, maintenance being taken care of by the automobile license income.

Roland S. Morris, Democratic State chairman, called on Governor Brumbaugh to-day in relation to the vacancy on the board of Philadelphia registration commissioners caused by the resignation of John J. Green, who was named by the courts to succeed Judge W. H. Showmaker as a member of the board of viewers.

Mr. Morris declined to say who he was backing and referred newspapermen to the Governor. The Democratic chairman was equally noncommittal about the Democratic bill, and the selection of a successor to A. Mitchell Palmer as national committeeman.

"I told the Governor that I was with him in the local option fight and will do what I can to help," said he. "Are you coming up when the bill comes out of committee?"

"Yes, I'm coming up to work for it and so will Vance McCormick," replied Morris.

The Governor's office said to-day that numerous letters and telegrams endorsing the Governor's stand on local option had been received and that word had been received that many petitions were being sent to legislators.

The House law and order committee will learn the Governor's plans on local option Monday night and the action on Tuesday will be as he desires.

HARRISBURG DISTRICT REPORTS INCREASE

Had 3,000 Conversions, 1,500 Accessions and Contributed $29,000 For Charity

Special to The Telegraph Shamokin, Pa., March 19.—Three thousand conversions, $29,000 for benevolent work and 1,500 church accessions are the most important figures in the report for the Harrisburg district read yesterday at the forty-seventh annual Central Pennsylvania Methodist Episcopal Conference by Dr. A. S. Fasicik, of the Harrisburg district.

The Juniata district report also shows a big increase. The districts together have made a total of more than 7,000 conversions within the past year. The Harrisburg district also raised more than $18,000 for home and foreign missions.

At the evening session the Rev. Dr. Dan B. Brummitt, editor of the Epworth Herald, spoke at a big Epworth League mass meeting. Much uncertainty is felt by the delegates, it is said, over appointments. The selections will probably be announced Monday or Tuesday by Bishop William Burt, who is presiding.

The Rev. A. S. Williams, Curtin Heights, Harrisburg, a member of the conference home mission society, had a resolution adopted that "the basis of the distribution of mission funds for married men members of the conference should be $800." President B. A. Conner, of Dickinson Seminary, reported a successful year at that institution.

Do You Face the Day's Work With Vim and Energy?

Morning is the time when workers need food that will not overload the stomach, but give strength and mental vigor for the day.

Much depends on the start. For one can't be keen and alert on a heavy, indigestible breakfast.

Grape-Nuts FOOD

is not only easy of digestion (digests in about one hour), but it aids in the assimilation of other foods. Made of whole wheat and malted barley, the malting of the barley awakens the digestive ferment, diastase, one of the essentials in the assimilation of all food.

Grape-Nuts comes ready to eat from the package with cream or milk; delicious, economical, and a powerful energizer for folks who "do things."
