RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are impurities seeking an outlet through skin pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from a pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of such eruptions. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

An Easy Way to Increase Weight

GOOD ADVICE FOR THIN FOLKS
The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on druging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following foolishly physical or culture studies while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, healthy blood. This masterstroke of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through its regenerative, reconstructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every part of your body. You can readily picture the result when this amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappear and you take on from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. George A. Gorgas and other leading druggists at Harrisburg and vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package. Caution:—While Sargol has given excellent results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles it should not be taken by those who do not wish to gain ten pounds or more.

NO MORE RUNNING SORES

George A. Gorgas Sells An Ointment Called San Cura That Is a Positive Relief
It matters not how old, persistent or poisonous the sore, the San Cura ointment the powerful antiseptic, will draw out the poison and promptly heal the sore.

B. D. Dutton, Titusville, Pa., says: "My arm was covered with twenty-four running sores and swollen to twice its natural size. San Cura Ointment relieved the pain, drew out the poison and healed the arm in an incredibly short time. It is the greatest compound for healing I ever used." The healing powers of San Cura Ointment are little short of marvelous. It gives relief, and is guaranteed to help salt rheum, eczema, bleeding, itching or protruding piles, ulcers, boils, carbuncles, chapped hands and chilblains. In cuts, burns, scalds and bruises, it always pain and is healing, 25c and 50c a jar.—Advertisement.

MAUDE ADAMS
Maude Adams entered into the preparation for the revival of Barrie's comedy, "Quality Street," with great desire of zest and pleasure. And the more she worked over the play the happier she seemed. Charles Frohman once said that he never questioned the judgment of Maude Adams, for he discovered when she first came into the theatre at the beginning, Miss Adams was always right in the end. She has certainly been right in assuring that the play would again become popular, for the demand for it since its revival has been great enough to push her other plays into the background. "Quality Street," which Miss Adams is to give at the Majestic to-morrow evening, will be to many people a blessed relief from the turgid drama. It is a charming comedy of a long time ago, dealing with lovable men and women and emotions that can stand the light of day. There is a sweet odor of lavender hovering over the comedy and it will make you alternately laugh and see things with dim eyes as the story of Phoebe Throssell's love for young Valerian Brown is unfolded.—Advertisement.

"WITHIN THE LAW"
Bayard Veiller's intensely interesting new American play "Within the Law," which Selwyn and Company will present at the Majestic, Wednesday, matinee and evening, is one of the best critics in New York and Chicago, in both of which cities it has scored the greatest sensation of the theatre since the most attractive dramatic novelty the native stage has produced in a decade. The story deals with the double life of a young woman to rehabilitate herself in society after serving a term in prison for a crime of which she is innocent.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM
Music is the charm of the Orpheum's bill this week. It is served up chiefly by Ralph Dunbar's "Eight Royal Dragons," vaudeville's musicians and vocalists of the last half of the century. The act is staged on a most refined order, the act does not adhere to high-class selection but instead, chooses out of the popular to make it appeal to all classes. Another vocal turn on the bill is that of Claire Rochester, the fascinating Southern belle, who sings a wonderful double voice, singing baritone just as beautifully and with as much volume as she sings soprano. Another interesting songstress is Miss Stanley, of the duo Muller and Stanley, who is a competent comedienne as well. Miss Stanley thrills audiences. Another singing comedy duo is Hines and Fox, a neat pair of comedians who might be compared to Van and Schenk, and they are walking away with a big bit at each performance. The Orpheum bill is a good one. —Advertisement.

COLONIAL
A Keith attraction of sterling worth is that known as the Six Musical Gorgans, heading the Keith bill at the Colonial for the last half of the week. Their offering is a refined vocal and instrumental act and is alone worth the price of admission. A corking comedy hit of this bill is that of the German language twisters, Gordon and Marx, who scored a laughing hit at the Orpheum several seasons ago. Two other clever Keith hits of variety and merit will complete the roster. Interesting features on the bill include moving picture program during the last half.—Advertisement.

PHOTOPLAY TODAY
A melodrama of power and appeal has been worked up in "On the Stroke of Twelve." An epic of a most excellent three-part feature play will disclose elements of pathos, gaiety, love, intrigue, perfidy and revenge. In the will of her father, Irene Bromley is allowed so much annually by the trustee, Sidney Villon, a lawyer of loose morals, but who enjoys a refined social life in society. Arthur Colby, a wholesome, straightforward young man, is in love with her, but the latter's mother is entirely. Many interesting scenes make up these three reels of drama.—Advertisement.

THE VICTORIA PIPEORGAN IS DRAWING LARGE CROWDS
From the very beginning the Victoria has maintained a policy which provides for the presentation of only the highest class pictures of a refined type—pictures that please everybody, and in addition to this have just recently installed a new $25,000 Hope-Jones unit pipeorgan orchestra for the enjoyment of the patrons. During the presentation of these high character motion picture the operator of this wonderful musical instrument gives added pleasure by introducing the proper tone expression to each action of the picture. This musical wonder is made up of innumerable pipes, stops, strings, flutes, clarinets, drums, cymbals, xylophone and other instruments. Each and every of these is at the command of the performer, which gives some idea of the possibilities of the Victoria great pipeorgan. Every day great crowds are enjoying its beautiful music. And together with other people enjoy "movies" under more pleasant conditions. The special feature for to-day is entitled "In Truth Wagon," a strong five-part offering, featuring Max Fikman and Lolita Robinson.—Advertisement.

CLEO MADISON IN "HAUNTED HEARTS" AT THE PALACE
Rose Lane, Jack Devore and Nathan White and a party of friends are on a yacht cruising in the South Seas. They sight a small island of rock coral and are looking at it through their glasses when Rose sees a beautiful flower growing on the face of the cliff, near the top. She expresses a wish for it and both Nathan and Jack vow to get the flower for her. Jack reaches the island first and climbs the rock. Just as he gets the flower in his hand he falls to the bottom, breaking his leg. During this time a tropical storm has arisen and the wind and rain blot the island from the sight of those on board the yacht. Nathan takes the flower in his teeth and swims to the boat. He tells them Jack was drowned. A year later finds Rose and Nathan married, both haunted by the memory of Jack.

Jack is living on the island, subsisting on fish and vegetation. Finally, Nathan is crazed with remorse and unable to work, decides to go in search of Jack. Nathan reaches the island and he and one of the sailors put off in a small boat. The rough waters capsize it, drowning the sailor. Nathan is washed ashore. Jack pulls him in, unconscious and barely alive. He tells him the story of the yacht, and how Jack helped him aboard with Nathan. They drift about the seas and are finally carried to New York. There Jack is successful and in four years has made his fortune. Jack decides to take Nathan back to New York to an expert surgeon to be operated on. In the meantime the fortune Nathan left Rose has been swept away and Rose is compelled to earn a living for herself and little son. Dr. Gordon has helped her to secure training as a nurse and she is head nurse at the hospital at the time when Jack brings Nathan there. She and Jack meet and he learns the truth about Nathan. He recognizes the house broken-hearted. She is to assist in the operation, and when she sees Nathan's condition she recognizes him, she is almost overcome. He recognizes Rose and asks for Jack, when Jack enters the room and she recognizes him, and putting her hand in Nathan's, starts to leave the room. Nathan calls her back and tells her how Jack helped him, and she recognizes him with Rose's aid, and sees peacefully away.—Advertisement.
