'SWAT, FIRST FLY' IS STEELTON'S CRY

Civic Club Will Launch Campaign Early Next Month; Preparing Plans

"Swat the first fly." This is the slogan of the Steelton Civic Club's "fly swatting" campaign to be launched early next month.

Armed with the knowledge that every fly swatted at the beginning of the season means 1,000 less flies in September, the Civic Club will launch this year's campaign for the extermination of the fly nuisance somewhat earlier than in former years.

Several scores of large fly traps will be placed along the curbs in the business section and prizes will likely be offered to the persons who "swat" the greatest number of flies. Mrs. J. M. Heagy, president of the club, announced this morning that the campaign plans will be formulated at the next meeting of the Civic club and that this year's crusade against the fly will be more vigorous than formerly.

Quoting from a bulletin issued by the Wisconsin State Board of Health, the Civic club president said: "Would you enjoy your dinner if you saw bed bugs, roaches, fleas or spiders crawling all over the food on your table? No wonder you are comparatively clean in comparison with flies. Prepare now to swat the first fly you see in the coming Spring."

The Governor added that he thought the State should have its own flower and not one already chosen by another state, and that the power when chosen should be one more related to the life of Pennsylvania than the laurel.

TO SHOOT DUCKS UNDER OLD LICENSE

Deputy Treasurer Obtains Opinion of Game Commissioner Kalbfus Regarding Spring Hunting

In order to answer intelligently the numerous inquiries relative to their right to shoot wild ducks this spring, J. E. Rutherford, deputy to County Treasurer A. H. Bailey, yesterday got an opinion on the subject from Dr. Joseph Kalbfus, of the Pennsylvania State Game Commission.

During the last few days a dozen or more nimrods have applied for licenses for the purpose of hunting wild ducks. The influx, it is believed, is due to the story that got about that a western federal court recently decided that the national law against the slaying of wild ducks was unconstitutional. The case has been appealed to the Supreme Court. Dr. Kalbfus says, "No State law prohibits the shooting of the ducks, however, and the game commissioner told Mr. Rutherford that ducks could be shot up until April 10. The hunters' licenses for 1915 have not been issued and Dr. Kalbfus said that the State authorities were recognizing the 1914 licenses for duck hunting purposes.

Morgan Robertson Who Died Standing, Had Varied Career; Penniless at End

New York, March 25.—Morgan Robertson, who was found dead standing up in his room in a hotel in Atlantic City last night had a romantic career as a sailor, author, jeweler and inventor of a submarine which he shipped as a cabin boy and made two voyages around the world, occupying in the next ten years nearly every post office box in America.

Returning to America he made his home in New York and became a watchmaker and diamond setter, but after two years in which he said he was "almost constantly broke," he began to write his sea stories which have been familiar to all readers of periodicals for twenty years. Although he wrote more than two hundred stories, only one has been published in four-teen volumes, he recently asserted in an unsigned autobiography that he had been reduced to straitened circumstances. Friends were making an attempt to aid him at the time of his death.

Developing the idea while writing a story, Mr. Robertson invented in 1905 an improved periscope for submarines. The following year he was in Japan, 110,000 boxes of tin plates for China, Japan and India; 25,000 tons of barb wire closed by one Central western company and 10,000 tons by another; 6,000 tons of steel and small billets bought at Youngtown for England.

On the last named $1 a ton more than domestic prices was realized.

Many Grades of Hard Coal Will Drop 50 Cents Per Ton, April 1

Reduction of 50 cents a ton in prices of various grades of hard coal will be made April 1 by all city dealers, following the usual custom of other years. The practice was inaugurated by the mine producers to stimulate the summer sales of coal and equalize shipments throughout the year.

After the reduction the price is raised 10 cents every month by the wholesalers until the normal winter price is resumed September 1, but many local dealers maintain the reduced price until July 1 when 30 cents is added, then holding off again to September, when the last 20 cents is put on.

Prices this year are the same as last, although 10 cents a ton higher than two years ago, on account of the 10 cents state tax put on the cost of mining last year.

The following schedule shows the prevailing prices, the reduction being given in the second column:

While the lead is being shipped to private parties in London, it is said, it is for use by the English army. The lead comes from the Omaha Smelting Company and from this shipment 600,000,000 bullets can be made.

Karlsruhe Reported to Be at Bottom of Sea in Vicinity of West Indies

New York, March 23.—German naval officers at Bremerhaven are quoted as authorities for the statement that the cruiser Karlsruhe lies at the bottom of the sea in the West Indies by Jesse Boyd, second officer of the American steamer Carib that was sunk by a mine in the North Sea, who reached here to-day from Rotterdam aboard the steamship Rotterdam. Mr. Boyd said he spent five days at Bremerhaven and through an old-time friend, now an officer in the German navy obtained positive confirmation of the rumor that the Karlsruhe was no longer afloat.

She went down with the German flag flying from every mast, at her stern and bow and as she sank the ship's band played martial music. Mr. Boyd quoted his friend as saying: "A German bomb sent her to the bottom after she had struck on a reef. As the last flag dipped beneath the water German rifles fired a full salute in her honor—a salute that is fired in her burial at sea of naval officers who have fought and fallen in the fight."

Some of her crew is now at Bremerhaven, the naval officer is said to have told Mr. Boyd. The others are still alive—somewhere.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in few moments
