horrors of war.
The last official mention of his name was from Berlin several days ago, when he was mentioned as being present in a conference of the upper war lords when the kaiser ordered a consultation.

Be merciful, reap gratitude, Sow courtesy and love shall be; In one thing be thou prodigal, And spread true kindness far and free.

Strive then to help each living thing, Lift up the burden of the dumb, For mercy shown to them will bring A blessing in the days to come. If we but realized that they,

When all the folks are fast asleep, And stars are shinin' dim, A little goblin comes to sit Upon the fountain rim. He's such a tiny little wee, I'm most afraid some day That noisy little childrens Will frighten him away.

My Faver's such a funny man. He doesn't seem to know, That where the lonely children play The fairies come and go.

He says besides the fountain,
That only flowers grow,
That I was "Just a little child,
And didn't really know." But when I'm lonely in 'e dark,
An' no one's there to see,
I listen, and I'm sure they come
An' talk awhile to me.
