NEW

Dictionary of To-day's English

New and Authoritative
ACKNOWLEDGED authorities from the great seats of learning have been brought together to make this dictionary an absolute authority—with ALL the NEW words and the correct pronunciations.

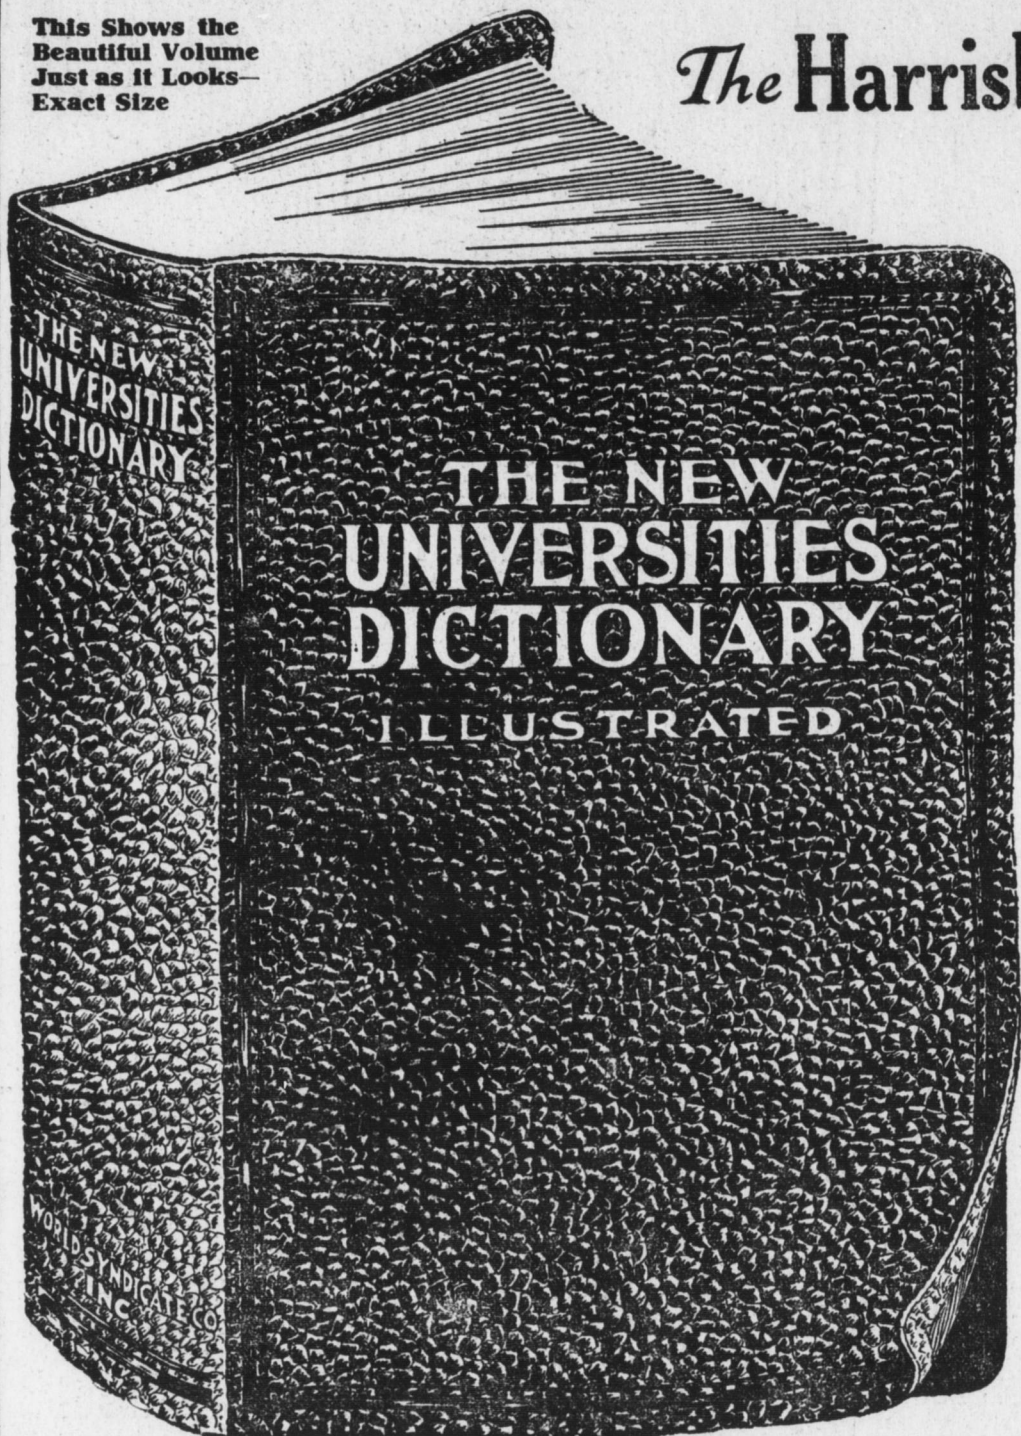

The Telegraph takes great pride in presenting to its readers this new inventory of to-day's English.

This is more than a dictionary, for it contains twenty-five supplementary dictionaries, placing thousands of new words within quick and easy access of all workers in every line.

Every page alive—every line up-to-date. Full of useful information needed daily.

CLEAN AS WELL AS NEW
A DICTIONARY, not only new but clean—all vulgar and obscene words being omitted—nothing coarse, nothing offensive, yet contains all English words in general and proper use to-day.

The Harrisburg Telegraph

FIRST in everything is FIRST to lend aid along advanced educational lines by now offering this NEW dictionary for the benefit of its readers. Newspapers are acknowledged "public educators" and it is indeed most fitting that this LATEST dictionary should find its way to the public through newspapers, on the popular coupon plan.

Made for the People

The editor says: "Designed to meet the demand among the masses of the people for a dictionary that shall be complete in its vocabulary, accurate in its definitions, and contain the LATEST and NEWEST words whose general usage warrants their incorporation into a dictionary made primarily for the people,"

HERE are but a few distinctive and exclusive features of this new, correct and authentic dictionary.

It Is Just Off The Press

Newly Edited---
Newly Printed---

Bound in beautiful flexible leather, lettered in gold; rounded corners; red edges; profusely illustrated; contains 1300 pages, printed on special paper from new type; strong and durable; accurate and complete. Necessary in home and office.

AUTHORITATIVE

Authoritative means "coming from due authority"; "entitled to obedience, credit or acceptance"; "determinative"; "commanding." Thus the New Universities Dictionary, with strength contributed by teachers of English in Pennsylvania, Cornell, Princeton, Columbia and Harvard Universities, "comes from due authority," is "entitled to obedience and acceptance." An old dictionary with a new name has no value.

Federal Inspectors Make Farm to Farm Canvass

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., March 27.—The corps of Federal inspectors at Spring Grove has been increased by the arrival from Berks county of Drs. J. E. Bender, of Camden, Miss.; C. R. Graham, Reading, and S. W. Forbes, Washington. These men will engage in a second farm to farm canvass in the Adams county foot and mouth disease zone. Although the quarantine of this district has been lifted by the State department, the Federal order of quarantine is still on.

BABY EATS STRYCHNINE

Quick Action of Stomach Pump Saves Little One's Life
Special to The Telegraph
York Springs, Pa., March 27.—Strychnine placed in the house at different places to kill rats and mice, almost caused the death of a baby of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bushey, near here, on Tuesday. The child had been playing on the floor when it became violently sick. Being but 18 months old, the little tot could not make the parents understand what was wrong, but they drove quickly as possible to the office of Dr. E. W. Cashman here, who employed a stomach pump to relieve the baby. The child was in a dangerous condition,
