PRE-NUPTIAL EVENTS FOR MISS MILLER

Two Showers of Gifts For House-keeping Presented to Popular Bride-elect

MISS MAUD MILLER

Miss Maud Miller, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Miller, Nineteenth and Market streets, whose marriage to Ernest F. Whitman, of Philadelphia, will be an April event, was guest of honor at two pretty pre-nuptial parties this week.

The first was a surprise shower arranged by some of her more personal friends, when lovely linens, cut glass and silver articles were presented to her. Mrs. Miller, who was in the secret, had the house decorated with primroses, hyacinths and pussy willows, and served a buffet supper to the guests. In the party were the Misses Carolyn Patschke, Marjorie Lutz, Hilda Floitz, Ethel Baldwin, Blanche Fleischer, Bessie Weller, Celia Hoffman and Mellie Reigle, Mrs. C. R. Wolfe, Mrs. A. Wayne Heckert, Mrs. Charles Lawrence, Mrs. C. R. Reigle, Mrs. Harry Baldwin and Mrs. C. R. Miller.

Steelton Friends Surprise

Last evening a party of friends from Steelton, where Miss Miller formerly lived, came quietly to her home and amid cries of "surprise" gave her many gifts of fancy work, and useful household articles to be used in her new home.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Harry Witt, Mrs. Eitner, Mrs. Croll, Mrs. Albert Metzger, Miss Leona Heckert, Mrs. Boyer and daughter, Ibea, Mrs. H. P. Laudenslager, Mrs. Charles Clendenin, Miss Elsie Clendenin, Miss Ruth Thomas, Miss Mary Whitmoyer, Miss Pearl Hale, Mrs. Ray Yohe, Mrs. S. S. Krout, Mrs. George Fessler, Mrs. Mary Smith, Miss Sylvia Hapler, Mrs. Harry Young, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lawrence, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Miller. Miss Miller is a musician of rare ability and a former pupil of C. Damrosch's School of Musical Art in New York city.

CLUB WITH MISS HARMAN

Miss Vera Harman was hostess for the B. R. E. Club at her home in the South Seventeenth street last evening. Refreshments were served to the Misses Opal McCann, Lucy Teahl, Lillian Long, Marie Moretz and Sue Long.

MR. AND MRS. J. L. ANDREWS LEAVE FOR HOME AT ERIE

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Andrews left today for Erie, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Andrews, who has been manager of the Harrisburg Baking Company since February 3, will return to the real estate business in Erie. He will sever his connection with the baking company on April 1. The Harrisburg Baking Company plant is now a part of the Capital City Baking Company.

COMPLETES NURSE'S COURSE

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Snyder, of 925 South Nineteenth and a half street, have gone to Pittsburgh to attend this evening the graduating exercises and reception of the 1915 class of the school for nurses of the Allegheny General Hospital. Their only daughter, Miss Blanche E. Snyder, graduates with this class, having completed a three-year course of training.

HICK-A-THRIFT CLASS HOLDS A BANQUET

Reminiscences of Past Days in Camp Part of the Evening's Pleasure

The first annual banquet of the Hick-a-Thrift class club of Pine Street Presbyterian Church was held last night in the social room of the church. After the banquet fifteen minutes of laughter was enjoyed at the expense of two members of the class, Raymond Snow and Eddie Tittle, posing as Jewish artists.

Profitable as well as witty speeches were given by Col. Joseph E. Hutchison, the Rev. J. S. Armentrout, Benjamin Whitman, J. Harry Messersmith, the Rev. Lewis S. Mudge, the Rev. John Warden, concluding by a speech from Eugene ("Shorty") Miller of the first camp at Bowmandale in 1905, followed by William Naugle on the last camp at Millersburg last summer.

Curtis B. Wagner and Fred A. Haynes, Jr., who were visiting in Philadelphia and Harrisburg, returned to their home in Lewistown yesterday. O. D. Barnes, who was the guest of friends in Lewistown, returned to Harrisburg yesterday.

Powell-Williams Recital: Event of Easter Week

Lovers of music in this city and vicinity are looking forward with pleasure to the appearance of Maud Powell, the renowned violinist, and Evan Williams, America's greatest tenor, who will be heard in a joint recital Thursday evening, April 8, in Chestnut Street Auditorium.

It is not often two such eminent artists can be secured for one concert, for in most instances one is the attraction, but here will be heard two artists of the same magnitude but in different spheres.

Henry T. Fink, in the New York Evening Post, says: "She has no superior among living violinists." As an artist in concert and oratorio no native voice has been discovered able to wrest the title "greatest concert tenor" from Mr. Williams, and scientific men as well as members of the musical profession have marveled at his wonderful voice.

Sale of seats opens next Friday morning, April 2, at the J. H. Troup Music House.

This concert will be under the local management of C. Kuschna and Chalmers L. Enck.

Park Street Mothers in Semiannual Banquet

A semiannual banquet of the Mothers' Class in the Park Street United Evangelical Church was held at the residence of Mrs. Ida C. Ensminger, 340 South Fourteenth street. Mrs. Steese gave a temperance reading and vocal solos were sung by Mrs. Boyer and Mr. Stahler. Mr. Koops, the teacher, and the new pastor, the Rev. Mr. Hangen, made brief addresses.

Refreshments were served to Miss Verna Leanker, Mrs. John Ensminger, Mrs. E. Turns, Mrs. C. Werwick, Mrs. Erin, Mrs. C. H. Orner, Mrs. Koons, Mrs. J. Stahler, Mrs. Shultz, Mrs. Stahler, Miss L.
