

ELABORATE SERVICES
FEATURE HOLY WEEK

Palm Sunday Will Open One of Chief Observances of Church; Pretty Decorations

Palm Sunday observances in all churches of the city to-morrow will open the busiest week of services in the church year. Special sermons, music and floral decorations are prepared in commemoration of the most significant event of the Christian faith.

Practically every pastor will hold a service of special services next week, commencing with a Good Friday service, in preparation for the Easter observance.

The Rev. J. H. Daugherty, the retiring pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church, will preach his farewell sermon to-morrow. The Rev. B. H. Hart, of the Fifth Street Methodist, who also was assigned to another church at the recent conference will not preach his last sermon until Easter Sunday.

At Christ Lutheran Church the final exercises of the week of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the church will be held in conjunction with the Palm Sunday service.

KANSAS CITY MINISTER WILL HAVE CHARGE OF DEDICATION

REV. ROGER H. FIFE

The dedication services for the new Church of God, of Lemoyne, will be in charge of the Rev. Roger H. Fife, of Kansas City, who will preach at every service during the day. The formal dedicatory exercises will take place in the afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock. During the next week the Rev. Mr. Fife will conduct special revival services each evening, at 7.45 o'clock.

The new church cost $16,500, and seats 750 people. It contains a fine basement under the entire building, with a large social hall, kitchen, dressing room, etc. One of the features of the main building is the beautiful open baptistry with plate glass front.

Ten months ago the small building that had stood for twenty years at the corner of Hummel avenue and Clinton street was torn down to make room for the new church.

Organized Twenty-one Years Ago
The church was organized twenty-one years ago with twenty-four charter members. Among the chief movers were: Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Musser, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Long, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Coble and G. W. Haggerty. The growth of the congregation and Bible school was gradual, reaching last year to 190 members in the church and 200 in the Sunday school.

A more spacious, modern building was seen to be needed, and the present building is the outcome.

The building committee was composed of V. C. Shope, D. C. Hamilton, George Hamblin, N. Y. Pittsburgh (Manchester) Pa.; Cleveland, Ohio; Rochester, Pa.; North East, Pa.

"HOLY WEEK" IN

To-morrow Begins
Holy Week

No matter what the usages and beliefs of the various churches in this city; all stand united in recognizing this week as the anniversary of the greatest Sacrifice made for mankind. Most vitally during this week is brought home to us the thought that Christ died that, "through Him the world might be saved."

At this time there comes a clearer vision of the all-embracing power of the Cross of Jesus Christ, with its message of salvation from sin; the most precious possession of the church, and the freest gift to the world.

Palm Sunday

begins this greatest of church weeks. It commemorates the entrance of Christ into Jerusalem amid the Hosannas of the throngs. The dominant note of that story, which will be told in countless churches tomorrow, is

The Triumph of Enthusiasm

As we hear the story, what a reminder there is that we, in this age, need an enthusiasm such as greeted Christ on that day. In our church work, in our church life, in our reception of Him, in our daily life, we need that enthusiasm. We should show it by giving our faith to the world. We should stand upon our faith and proclaim it to men.

If you had not thought of going to church to-morrow, just reflect that the message of Palm Sunday is, enthusiastic welcome of our Saviour; aside from being a privilege beyond estimate, it is also a duty that to-morrow you
