Special to The Telegraph Pittsburgh, March 27. — Confidence in the Republican party's power to rehabilitate itself in national politics and a declaration that the revitalizing is already under way are high points in an interview given here last night. by Philander C. Knox, Secretary of State in the Taft administration. . It was Mr. Knox's first real political inferview since his retirement. from office two years ago, and coming so soon after Senator Root's address be-fore the Union League, in Philadel-phila, on the subject of party revival, it has made a deep impression here. To Continue Demonstrations.—Dr. 1 H. A. Surface will start the fifth week of the orchard demonstrations on 1 Monday and expects that the attend-ance will be greater than ever owing to the great interest that has been aroused. The present week's series was well attended.
To Return Monday. — Governor Brumbaugh*is expected to return to the Capitol Monday morning.
Not to Fight Veto.—Representative F. E. Geiser said this morning that he would not fight the laurel bill veto, but would make a statement of his position on it and ask that the veto be sustained.

"We find that to the majority of prospective purchasers, the balance of an automobile motor is a rather vague and misunderstood subject." states C. E. Hoin, of Roberts and Hoin, distribu-tors of the Haynes, America's First Car. "A baalnced motor by the simplest definition is one that runs perfectly smooth withour vibration at any speed. Technically, the perfect balance of a motor is obtained when the resultant centrifugal forces are equal and oppo-site, and hence equal to zero in any plane.
