

HARRISBURG WINS COUNTY TEAM SHOOT

Harvey Disney, of West Fairview, is Big Star, Breaking 45 Straight

Harrisburg shooters won the team championship at targets on Saturday. The local sportsmen defeated West Fairview, representatives of Cumberland county; score, 453 to 429. It was the third and final shoot in the series. Harrisburg won all three matches.

Previous scores were: First, Harrisburg, 431 to 409; second, Harrisburg, 451 to 441. It is probable that Middletown and Highspire will challenge the Harrisburg team. Rutherford shooters are also considering plans for a championship shoot.

Saturday's event took place on the field at Second and Division streets. One of the largest crowds of the season witnessed the contest, including many women. The one big feature was the shooting of Harvey Disney, captain of the West Fairview team. He led his team with 48 breaks and made a record of 45 straight, new figures for Harrisburg.

Disney smashed the targets at all angles. He was up against shooters who have won national honors, and his form was the best seen in a long time. Disney knew that he had come back, having failed to qualify in two previous shoots. He challenged everybody. None accepted, or are likely to for the present. A quart of ice cream was offered by captain Disney for every shooter who made 45 or better on his team. Only two ate the ice cream, and one was Disney.

In a practice shoot Mrs. Ray Boyer, of West Fairview, shot out of 75 targets. Mrs. Boyer was one of the winners in the women's event in the West Hogan shoot at Atlantic City last year. The scores follow:

Central Grammar School Again Wins Championship

Central grammar school of Steelton, defeated the Evans grammar school of Reading at Steelton, Saturday, score 45 to 20. Central tossers will this week close a successful season and again win the championship of grammar school teams in Harrisburg.

This claim is disputed by the Lincoln grammar school, of Harrisburg by reason of Central cancelling the third and final game last week. Central, however, has beaten every team they won over all teams in Dauphin county, including Lincoln.

Saturday's game with Reading was spectacular. Steelton scored twenty-one field goals and four foul goals. Reading caged five field goals and ten foul goals. Reading had a big crowd of rooters.

Independents Win Game From Lancaster Tossers

Harrisburg Independents won over Lancaster five Saturday at Chestnut street auditorium, score 40 to 31. This victory gives the Independents right to their claim to Central Pennsylvania honors. It was to be the final game of the season, and attracted a large crowd. The Garnets, of Philadelphia, have asked for another game, and it will be played next Saturday.

The game was tied up in the first period, score 17 to 17. In the second half the Independents made a brilliant spurt and showed their regular form, caging goals from all angles. Rote, McCord, Gelsel and Ford were stars. Ranch and Evans were Lancaster stars.

READING LEAGUERS BACK OUT

Reading failed to show up in Philadelphia for the final basketball contest with Camden and the game and championship was forfeited to Camden. Severe criticism followed the announcement that Reading would not play and the Eastern League will take up the action at a meeting to be held this week.

A Picture Story With Just One Word

PHYSICAL GIANTS MEET NEXT MONDAY

Willard Has Advantage Over Johnson in Height and Weight; Lacks Ring Experience

New York, March 29.—The history of the prize ring offers no parallel of the battle for the world's heavyweight championship in which Jack Johnson and Jess Willard will engage next Monday at Havana, Cuba. Big men have fought for their premier title of fistiana since the early days of the eighteenth century, but never through the long list of champions from James Figg to Jim Jeffries have two fighters of the physical proportions of Willard and Johnson crossed arms in the roped arena.

Of the champions of modern times Corbett, Jeffries and Johnson all passed the six-foot mark, while Sullivan, Sharkey and Fitzsimmons were from one to three inches below this height. When the negro titleholder and his challenger step into the ring, Willard will tower six feet six inches in the air, while Johnson will stand five and a half inches below him. In weight these fighters are also far above the ring average of the heavy-weight class. Willard will weigh close to 235 pounds, which will give him an advantage of about twenty pounds over Johnson in the clinching and tussling which will doubtless play an important part in the battle.

Willard is a Samson Compared with those past heavy-weight gladiators Willard appears as a Samson. Even when ranged alongside of Johnson the Kansas cowboy overshadows the negro titleholder in almost every point of physical measurements. In addition he outweighs Johnson by twenty pounds. His reach of 83 1/2 inches against the negro's 76 inches will also prove of exceptional value if properly used. To offset these physical assets Johnson has the benefit of ring wisdom and craft cultivated during his long career as championship contender and holder. Just as Willard surpasses Johnson in every point of physical make-up the Galveston pugilist excels the Kansas boxer in all departments of the science of giving and evading glove punishment.

BLACK CHAMPION BECOMES BLEARY IN FOUR YEARS' IDLENESS

JACK JOHNSON at RENO, 1910 and at HAVANA, 1915.

There are unmistakable signs in these two photographs of Jack Johnson, the one taken in Reno in 1910, when he was training for the fight with Jim Jeffries which clinched his claim to the championship of the world, and that taken during his training in Cuba for his fight with Jess Willard, the giant white hope. The photographs show John's head has broadened and that his eyes have become dead and dull and his flesh flabby. Whether that indicates a like condition throughout his bodily tissue cannot be learned till he has fought. He certainly did not show in his fight with Frank Moran in Paris that he was as lively as the day he beat Jeffries. But he did not train faithfully for that fight. Herbert Corey, the famous war correspondent, who saw him there, said he spent some of his time in the evenings just preceding the fight drinking beer. However, Johnson does not have to be as good as he was in 1910 to win from Willard. The big white hope in his thirty-odd fights has not done anything to warrant the belief that he can whip the old Johnson.

FINAL SCHOLASTIC CONTEST; TECH HIGH HOPES FOR VICTORY

Central Claims Championship Honors by Reason of Victory Over Steelton; Present Figures Cause Much Controversy

Tech tossers held a short practice this afternoon for the final game with Central high to-night. A victory for Tech will further complicate the solution of this season's Central Pennsylvania honors. This contest is looked upon as the one important battle, and a record crowd is expected. The game will be played on the Chestnut street auditorium floor, starting at 8 o'clock. Central claims championship honors. A victory by Tech over Central by a large margin will even up local honors between Tech and Steelton.

MISTER SQUEEGEE

Mr. Squeegie, the quaint figure used in Diamond Tire advertising this year, has in addition to attracting widespread attention, aroused the curiosity of many people. The Diamond Tire Company has during the past few months been receiving letters from information-seekers, who desire to learn more about Mr. Squeegie—or "Mister Squeegie," as he signs himself—than is revealed in the advertising.

Central by winning to-night's game would be entitled to honors on points scored. Both teams are practicing hard for this contest. Both teams will put their full strength on the floor. Between the halves the scrub teams of the two schools will play. The regular line-up follows:

Central. Rote, f. (Captain) Ford, c. Beck, g. Scheffer, f. (Captain) Bingham, g. Lewis A. C. READY FOR GAMES Lewi A. C. will put a strong team in the field.
