Principal in Midnight Shooting Fray Is Held

Edward Schraudenschlag of 741 South Ninth street, this afternoon was held by Mayor John K. Royall on a charge of forcible entry. Schraudenschlag was arrested last night on a charge of attempting to shoot Mrs. Emma Quigley, who resides with her brother-in-law, Samuel Acker, at 203 Nectarine street.

Each and Mrs. Acker had a quarrel following a drinking party. Mrs. Acker was knocked down by the man, while on her way home with Mrs. Quigley.

Later Schraudenschlag called at the Acker home and was refused admittance. He broke a window and climbed through. Mrs. Quigley secured a shotgun and threatened to kill him. Schraudenschlag in trying to get the gun from Mrs. Quigley, accidentally discharged it.

Violent to wrench loose the doors of cabins nearby. The authorities believe the explosive had been placed with criminal intent in a trunk which was stored with the baggage of first class passengers in No. 2 hold.

Aroused Suspicion
With this first report of experts at hand, the State attorney at Harris examined as many passengers as could be reached. The witnesses stated, according to the Matin, that they had been amazed at the statement made one night during the voyage by a fellow passenger when they were discussing German threats to torpedo ships passing through the war zone.

Placed Under Arrest
Commissioner DuBer, attached to the Secret Service Department of the Ministry of the Interior, undertook the task of tracing Swoboda.

He found him in the Place De Rivoli, where he was arrested. When his room was searched, the police declared a number of letters written in German were found which seemed to point strongly to his guilt. He was turned over to the Havre police by the Paris authorities.

Swoboda Sailed For France on February 27
New York, March 31.—The circumstances under which Mr. Swoboda sailed aboard La Touraine February 27 were clearly recalled to-day at the office of the French Line here.

American Note Received by Ambassador in London
Washington, D. C., March 31.—Ambassador Page, at London, had before him to-day the American note to Great Britain regarding the British order in council against commerce to and from Germany.

NO PASSPORT ISSUED

Washington, D. C., March 31.—State Department records show no American passport issued to Raymond Swoboda or to any other person bearing a name approaching that in similarity.

Lots of hard scrubbing and cleaning to do in your house every week? Let

do it quickly, easily and thoroughly for you.

With Fels-Naptha there's no need to use lots of strength over a scrubbing brush, and it works best in cool or lukewarm water.

Your grocer has the new Fels-Soap Powder. You are sure to like it.

UGH! NOT CALOMEL, OIL OR SALTS, TAKE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

Delicious "fruit laxative" cleanses stomach, liver and bowels

A harmless cure for sick headache, biliousness, sour stomach, constipation, indigestion, coated tongue, salivaceous "take California Syrup of Figs." For the cause of all such misery comes from a torpid liver and sluggish bowels.

A tablespoonful to-night means all constipation points, waste matter, fermenting food and sour bile gently moved out of your system by morning without griping. Please don't think of "California Syrup of Figs" as a physic. Don't think you are drugging yourself or your children, because this delicious fruit laxative can not cause injury. Even the most delicate child can take it as safely as a robust man. It is the most harmless, effective stomach, liver and bowel cleanser, regulator and tonic ever devised.

Your only difficulty may be in getting the genuine, so ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." This city has many counterfeit "fig syrups," so watch out—Advertisement.

APRIL 7 LAST DAY FOR BILLS IN HOUSE

the township commissioners to levy a special tax, not exceeding 1 mill, for support of a fire department.

Other bills presented were: Mr. Milliron, Appropriating—Permitting Department of Forestry to make agreements with counties or municipalities or private organizations to suppress forest fires.

Mr. Gark, Philadelphia—Repealing act of April 11, 1907, and supplements, for poorhouse in Oxford and Lower Dublin, Philadelphia.

Mr. Smith, Fayette—Repealing the act of May 23, 1873, prohibiting use of any adulteration or imitation of dairy products in charitable and penal institutions.

Mr. Swan, Allegheny—Amending school code so that no contractor who defaulted on a supply contract can be awarded subsequent contracts.

Mr. Body, Berks—Appropriating $6,000 to purchase collection of Indian relics owned by H. K. Delsher, Kutztown.

Mr. Bovee, Erie—Reducing state tax on stock of real estate companies from 5 mills to 1.

Mr. Dell, Huntingdon—Erecting Huntingdon county into a separate judicial district. It is now in a district with Mifflin and Bedford.

Mr. Horton, Fayette—Authorizing cemetery associations to assess lot owners for general improvement and maintenance.

Mr. Fruit, Mercer—Fixing salaries of clerks in Department of Public Instruction.

Mr. Oaks, Cambria—Making it unlawful for any person in charge of a highway to permit surface to be raised above grade where road crosses a culvert.

The Cullin bill providing that when a candidate for a majority nomination receives fifty-one per cent. of votes at primary he shall be sole candidate, was reported to the House with an amendment, making it applicable to candidates for council.

Representatives Forster and Baldwin occupied the chair during the morning session.

House cleared its second reading calendar, passing on that stage the bills reorganizing the Attorney General's Department.

Bills Passed Finally
These bills passed finally: Senate bill validating sales under orphan's court orders upon petition of executors or administrators; regulating admission of children to tubercular and insane hospitals; regulating practice in actions of assumpsit and trespass; providing for reconstruction by the State of bridges on State highways; Senate bill regulating payment of liens on property taken for public improvements.

Objections made by various members that 300 petitioners would bring county to large expenditures caused the defeat in the House to-day of the Stewart Senate bill authorizing county commissioners to make appropriations for co-operative agricultural extension work.

"Gentlemen—Through your instrumentality I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1904, I was taken with typhoid pneumonia, which developed into Tuberculosis (bacilli were found). In February, 1905, I went to Fort Worth, Texas, and later to Canon City, Colorado. After being there two weeks my physician informed me that my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I returned home, weighing 103 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching that stage. On July 14, 1905, I began taking Eckman's wonderful remedy for Lung Trouble. Now I am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator." (Abbreviated.)

Eckman's Alternative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and upbuilding the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitutes.
