Mumper J. Bailey, Notary Public, Dies at Dillsburg Dilisburg, Pa., April 1.—Notary Public Mumper J. Bailey, one of Dilisburg's best-known residents and a retired businessman, died suddenly on Wednesday afternoon from heart fallene. Mr. Bailey had been a sufferer from rheumatism, but was able to be about his home. He was financial secretary of the Monaghan Presbyterian Church and was seated at a table balancing his books for the year when he fell from the chair and was dead before a doctor could be called. Mr. Bailey for many years was engaged in the

Kidney and Bladder Trouble Causes Great Distress

It gives me great pleasure to recom-need Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to any ne suffering from bladder trouble. mend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to any one suffering from bladder trouble. For four years I was troubled by hemorrhages from the bladder and was not able to get any doctor who could help me. I was in such shape that sleep at night was impossible on account of distressing symptoms. While bending over I would be stricken with such a pain that it was impossible for me to straighten up. Mr. Henry, one of our leading druggists, advised Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, although I never had any faith in patent medicines, as a last resort I purchased a dollar bottle of Swamp-Root. I noticed a decided change and after using two bottles I was completely cured. It seemed remarkable that I should be cured so quickly after being ill so long. But since this took place nearly two years ago, I have never been troubled and would highly advise any one suffering from the same trouble to at least give Swamp-Root a trial and I think the results will be the same as mine.

Yours very truly, THOMAS A. BENNETT.

Greensbury, Indiana. Personally appeared before me this, 14th day of February, 1913, Mr. T. A. Bennett, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact. L. A. BOWTE, Notary Public.

BANISH SCROFULA

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cleanses the Blood, Skin Troubles Vanish

Scrofula eruptions on the face and body are both annoying and disfiguring. Many a complexion would be perfect if they were not present!

This disease shows itself in other ways, as bunches in the neck, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, wasting of the muscles, a form of dyspepsia, and general debility.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine completely eradicates scrofula. It purifies and enriches the blood, removes humors, and builds up the whole system. It has stood the test of forty years, and has received thousands of ears, and has received thousands of estimonials of the entire satisfaction thas given.

Scrofula is either inherited or acquired. Better be sure you are quite free from it. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla and begin taking it to-day.—Advertisement.

Quay's Daughter Wins Suit in Beaver Court

Suit in Beaver Court

Special to The Telegraph

Beaver, Pa., April 1.—Litigation started in the county court last month in connection with the estate of the late United States Senator Matthew Stanley Quay by his daughter, Mrs. Mary Quay Davidson, of Buffalo, resulted in her favor to-day, when Judge Richard S. Holt made an order requiring Richard R. Quay, a son of the late Senator, and the Union Trust Company, of Pittsburgh, trustees, to file an account within thirty days.

The petition filed by Mrs. Davidson's lattorney asked that a citation be awarded directing the trustees to give an accounting of funds left under the provisions of the Senator's will. One section of the will provided that the income of one-fifth of the estate be paid to a son, A. G. C. Quay, of Beaver, with the stipulation that this amount sould not amount to more than $4,000 annually. All in excess of this amount was to be put into the principal trust fund and divided according to the provisions of the will. Mrs. Davidson, in her petition, asserted that funds accumulated in this way had reached such proportions that they should be divided.

Marysville Evangelist Intimates That They Are Obstinate in Refusing Christ

Marysville, Pa., April 1.—At the afternoon service held in the tabernacle the subject of Evangelist Hillis' sermon was "The Great Fight." The subject of the evening service was "The Philosophy of the Human Will."

At the evening services the evange-list asked the congregation to name their favorite part of the Bible. Some of his sayings at the evening services are: "Some men in Marysville would rather be damned in hell than surrender their will to God." "You should not doubt concerning whether you should acknowledge Christ for if you do the devil will pile your doubts higher than before." In speaking of the obstinacy of some men in refusing Christ he said, "That there is too much mule in some men," meaning by mule their obstinacy, which is characteristic of the mule.

Friday will be railroader's night. A delegation of over 400 men from Enola headed by the Enola brass band will attend. Mrs. Hillis will address women in the Evangelical church on that evening. On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Hillis will address married women only in the Evangelical church on "The Value of Purity."
