

THE GLOBE

THE GLOBE

Talking About Clothes---

GLOBE Glen Urquhart Plaids Will Lead in the Easter Parade

We've just "unloosed" some "spirited" styles for Easter, that you'll feel like owning as soon as your eye strikes them...

Hand tailored clothes that make them perfect fits---stay perfect and stay fit. That's the only kind of clothes we sell.

$15---$18---$20---$25

Fashion-Clothes---Adler-Rochester Clothes---Griffon Ultra Clothes---"Rochester-Special"---Globe Fifteens

THE GLOBE

HOLIDAY COMES FOR CAPITOL HILL

Governor and State Officials and Legislators Go Home For the Easter Period

COMING BACK MONDAY

Hearing Announced by the State Industrial Board; News of the Capitol Today

Pennsylvania's Legislature will be in session for the week-end...

The members remaining here for the week-end will be invited to attend the legislative Bible class meeting...

Hearing Fixed.—The State Industrial Board has announced that a hearing will be held at the capitol on Tuesday on the proposed rule to prohibit any person under sixteen working in tobacco factories in the State.

New Quarantine.—Officials of the state livestock sanitary board said today that a new foot and mouth quarantine would be issued within a few days...

No Action To-day.—Governor Brumbaugh left for Philadelphia to-day without announcing his action on any bill...

The Lybarger Check.—The State Treasury to-day announced that Jesse J. Lybarger had cashed his $175 check for January, 1913...

To see Captain Delaney.—Herman P. Miller, senate librarian, left to-day for Washington to see Captain John C. Delaney who is seriously ill.

No Action Taken.—The Governor did not act on any of the vacancies or appointments to-day.

Did Not See Governor.—James P. Mulvihill, of Pittsburgh, for years prominent in the labor interests, organizations, called at the Executive offices yesterday. He did not get in.

Start the Tests.—Commissioner of Health Dixon to-day sent word to people throughout the State that the laboratories of the department would be ready Monday to undertake the test for certain diseases.

TO CONFER ON PLAN TO CLOSE GAP IN WALL

[Continued from First Page.]

so do most of the people, I believe, except the few river coal men who will be affected. Not all of them are opposed to it at that.

"Before we do anything, however, we'll confer—the other councilmen and myself—and try to arrive at some definite conclusion as to what seems to be any doubt but what the majority, in fact all but a few interested people, want the gap at Market street closed and the coal wharf moved away from there."

WORK ON ALL ROADS WILL START MONDAY

[Continued from First Page.]

ready for some time and the telegram to-day indicates that the Governor has determined to proceed with maintenance pending working out of the bills for the general highway improvement.

The State Treasury report of yesterday indicated that over $100,000 is to be expended for road improvement. For some time the county superintendents have had their forces ready for organization and have also the work to be done with the division engineers.

Governor Brumbaugh made no comment on his telegram, but it is understood that he expects men to be at work in every county in the State on Monday.

Easter Candies For Sylvan Heights' Girls

A big box of chocolate eggs, rabbits and other Easter candies was delivered to the Sylvan Heights orphanage for the little inmates to-day by members of Branch 163, Knights of St. George.

Other organizations throughout the city, it is understood, are preparing to send donations of candy to the home. Holy week is being observed at the orphanage and special masses are being said every day.

STEELTON PUPILS WILL GIVE SHOW FOR CHARITIES

Ten High Class Acts and Music Are Few of the Features of the Program

Steelton folks will have an opportunity to see a regular high-class vaudeville show, with chorals as the principal actors, next Tuesday evening...

One of the features of the "show" will be a number of selections by an orchestra from the Steelton Band. There will be ten high-class acts. The sale of reserved seats will open at Frum's jewelry store to-morrow morning.

Maryland Steel Lands Big Steamship Order

The Maryland Steel Company, a subsidiary of the Pennsylvania Steel Company, has obtained an additional steamship order from the Hull Steamship Company...

Speaking of operations in the Pennsylvania Steel Company's plant, the Public Ledger this morning says: "The Pennsylvania Steel Company is operating at 65 per cent. of capacity."

CHURCH OF GOD TO HAVE BIG PROGRAM

The Steelton Church of God has prepared an elaborate musical program for services Sunday. It follows: Selection, choir; prayer, the Rev. Mr. Farling; selection, choir; dialogue, "Little Robins," Mildred Sweigart...

Address, pastor; selection, male chorus; dialogue, "Christ Arose," recitation, "O Son of God," Daisy Welsh; selection, male chorus; dialogue, "The Cross and Its Bearers," Mrs. Ellen Riegel, Kathryn Enney, Daisy Welsh, Ella Diffendaffer, Blanche Swiser; recitation, Ida Diffendaffer; drill, "Onward Christian Soldiers," selection, congregation.

CHILDREN'S CHORUS TO SING AT REFORMED

Elaborate preparations have been made for Easter in the First Reformed Church. One of the most difficult programs of music ever attempted will be presented.

Morning, "And Behold There Was a Great Earthquake," Simpson; recitative bass solo; "Christ Our Passover," Choppe, soprano and bass, soprano and contralto duets and full chorus; "The Deum," Terman, contralto solo and ensemble.

Evening—Recital by W. R. Stonesifer; "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah," choir; Awake, Thou Sleepest, male chorus and ensemble; solo, "Suffer the Little Children to Come Unto Me," Miss Marguerite Wildman; of Harrisburg; children's chorus, "Oh, Loving Father," Miss Wildman; postlude.

HOLD DEBATE

Members of the freshman class of the Steelton high school presented an Easter program at the afternoon session yesterday. A debate, "Resolved, That the America Indians Has Been Unjustly Treated by the Whites," was a feature.

Those who participated in the program were Leroy Spinger, Miss Dorothy Whitman, Miss Edith McGovern, Myron Billet, Chester Loy, Donald Wren, Earl Brown, Miss Virginia Eckensrod, Miss Mary Hager and the high school orchestra.

BURY DR. SNAVELY

Funeral services were held yesterday over the body of Dr. John H. Snavely, who died Sunday. Short services were held at the Snavely home at 209 Front street.

Church at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Charles A. Huyette, assisted by the Rev. Dr. E. N. Kremer of Harrisburg, officiated. Burial was made in the Baldwin cemetery. The pallbearers were James L. Dickinson, R. M. Frey, John P. Croll, George W. Neff, M. R. Alleman and Dr. J. L. Wierich.

BYROD, INTERNE

Fred W. Byrod, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Byrod, has been appointed an interne at the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital, Philadelphia.

Byrod is a graduate of the Steelton high school and will graduate at Medico-Chirurgical College in June. Byrod will take up his new duties some time in July.

STEELTON PERSONALS

George B. Beldel, Philadelphia, is the guest of his brother, Charles Beldel, 3011 Front street.

Mrs. C. H. Fressley is seriously ill at her home in Chestnut street.

H. Zeigler, of Lewistown, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Jennie Zeigler, 318 Myrtle street.

Advertisement for Watson & Cooper Worthy Clothes, featuring men's attire and a window display index.

STEELTON SNAPSHOTS

To Hold Dance.—The Benton Catholic Club will hold a dance in the club hall Monday evening.

Give Easter Music.—The Sunday school of the Main Street Church of God will present a special Easter program at 7.30 o'clock Easter evening.

LEWIS BEARD BURIED.—Funeral services for Lewis C. Beard were held from his late home, in Highspire, this afternoon. Burial was made in the Highspire cemetery.

MRS. PALUS DIES.—Mrs. Conrad Palus died last evening at her home, 311 South Fourth street, from apoplexy. Funeral services are incomplete.

HIGHSPIRE

SELL FLOWERS FOR CHURCH.—Hundreds of bouquets of pretty Easter flowers were placed on sale yesterday by ladies of St. Peter's Lutheran Church. The sale will continue until to-morrow evening.

HIGHSPIRE PERSONALS.—Mrs. Charles Fahs, of Balmbridge, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Kaylor.

Mrs. H. McDanel attended the funeral of Mrs. Mary Nissley at Hershey on Tuesday.

The Rev. B. L. C. Baer and Harry Hoak were recent visitors in Balmbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strickler, of Hummelstown, was the guest of Mrs. Margaret Lehman Saturday.

Miss Lillie Coble, of Bellefonte, is the guest of relatives here.

Miss Carrie Mathias has returned from Anville.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Deviney, of Harrisburg, are guests of friends in Highspire.

Mrs. John Chubb is seriously ill. Townsend, Del., was a recent visitor with relatives in Highspire.

Miss Edna Hocker and Miss Bessie Wolfe, of Shippensburg Normal School, are home for the Easter recess.

Foot and Mouth Disease Caused $5,000,000 Loss

Washington, April 2.—While confident that the foot and mouth disease which has been epidemic among the livestock of the country for the past six months virtually has been wiped out, Department of Agriculture officials declared to-day that they would not relax their efforts to prevent a future recurrence of the scourge.

All the infected animals are said to have been killed and buried, but officials are not sure that all possible means of conveying the infection have been destroyed.

Altogether more than 120,000 animals have been killed because of the epidemic at a cost of between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 the expense of which has been shared equally by the federal and State governments.

NO TRUTH TO PEACE REPORT

Rome, April 1, 8.50 P. M., via Paris, April 2, 2.05 A. M.—Both the Giornale D'Italia emphatically asserted that there was no foundation to the report that Djavid Pasha, Turkish minister of finance who is now in Geneva, has been entrusted with the task of negotiating a separate Russo-Turkish peace treaty.

EXPERT DIVERS LEAVE NEW YORK TO HELP RAISE F-4

New York, April 2.—Five navy department divers left the navy yard here early to-day for Honolulu to aid in raising the lost submarine F-4.

DIES AFTER FALL FROM WINDOW

Philadelphia, April 2.—Adolph Hess, a wealthy retired rubber merchant of this city, fell out of a third story window of his home here early to-day and was killed.

Advertisement for Baker's Boot Shop, featuring shoe features for Easter.

$2,365,258 COLLECTED IN TOLLS

Washington, April 2.—Ninety-two vessels carrying 424,606 tons of freight passed through the Panama Canal during February, maintaining a daily average of more than 15,000 tons which had been handled during the three preceding months.

AVIATORS DROPPING BOMBS

London, April 2, 6.50 A. M.—An Amsterdam dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company says a message from Berlin states that a hostile aircraft appeared above Mullheim, Baden, at 5.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and dropped a bomb, which caused considerable damage.

VETERAN SHOPMEN RETIRED

A trio of Altoona veteran shopmen, Albert Hautz, John W. Dore and Joseph Kurtz, were retired on pension yesterday. All had notable records in the railroad service.

ACTUAL WORK ON NEW BAKERY TO START SOON

Plans for the new bakery to be erected by Mary L. O'Quinn will be made by L. S. Beardsley, a New York architect. Actual work on the building will begin probably as soon as the buildings at Tenth and Market streets are razed.