C. ROSS ONCE MORE IN AGAIN TO STAY

Youthful Handcuff Expert Goes to Glen Mills With Deputy Sheriff Hoffman and Steel Bracelets

Glen Mills "house of refuge" to-day claimed a young inmate Clarence Ross for its own. Ross is the negro bicyclist who was in-again, out-again propensities added a few gray hairs to the much-hairied head of the police head-quarters.

Because of the absence of a house of detention Ross was kept in the basement at the stationhouse for a week or so prior to the March session of the juvenile court. Twice he was locked up and twice he escaped. Clarence worried the officers as much as a month's rent. Everybody breathed a heart-felt sigh of relief therefore when Additional Law Judge McCarroll decreed that the boy should spend such portion of his young life at Glen Mills as is necessary to cultivate him into a nice, well-behaved boy.

If anyone felt the slightest uneasiness about Clarence it may have been Deputy Sheriff William Hoffman this morning who was delegated to escort the youth on his way. If he did, however, he never showed it. When Clarence was brought into the jail office preparatory to going away he grinned and told the deputy that he "was ready."

"Just a minute," coolly observed the deputy. And he slipped the steel bracelet of a handcuff over the youth's wrist and then got a strangle-double-clutch hold on the other cuff. "Now, then, Clarence, we're both ready," said he.

So for the first time in many moons a juvenile in knickerbockers went to Glen Mills—handcuffed. Dozen to "Head Guilty Monday." Just twelve defendants who prefer to take a chance with the Dauphin county court rather than with a jury will plead guilty on Monday morning according to a list issued to-day by District Attorney M. E. Stroup. Among the defendants is Charles Stinney, one of the men accused of helping to rob the rooms in the United States Hotel last September and who has been a fugitive ever since. The other day Stinney returned to the city and behaved in a way to get himself in the clutches of the police for disorderly conduct. As soon as he was locked up the district attorney arrested him on the larceny charge. Others who will plead, include: Samuel P. Baker, larceny as clerk; Jim Beiford, public indecency; Charles Chaney, assault and battery; Henry Davis, keeping gambling house; Samuel Engler, larceny; John Hill, nonsupport of children; Arthur H. Knouff, nonsupport; James Lewis, aggravated assault and battery; Mack Ritter, larceny as clerk, etc. Illia Rokerie, aggravated assault and battery; Moses Vorkapic, felonious entry and larceny.

Holiday in Offices.—With the exception of the prothonotary and the county recorder all the courthouse offices were closed to-day in observance of Good Friday. The offices of the city commissioners were open, however.

Building Permits.—Building permits included the following: Harry Barnhart, single-story bungalow, 1525 Regina street, $100; L. H. Lickel, addition to 1441 Berryhill, $150; C. M. Conover, single-story brick garage, 425 South Fourteenth street, $300.

SHOPMEN ARE GIVEN TWO DAY VACATION

Many Departments of P. R. R. Are Closed; Fast Freight Being Moved

Employees in all departments of the Pennsylvania railroad shops at Lucknow, with the exception of men engaged in special work ceased their duties last night until Monday, that they may observe the Easter season. Work in some departments of the shops is usually light. Many of the men have arranged to spend the day at seashore points. Passenger service slightly increased during the past few days because of the return of students from college. Freight traffic has fallen off and during the remainder of the week nothing but perishable goods will be run. To-morrow special trains will be run by the Pennsylvania and Reading companies to seashore pleasure places. Six specials will be started from Pittsburgh. QUICKLY STOPS HEAD COLDS AND SNUFFLES

Catarrhal Germs Cause Most Colds. New Germicidal Air Treatment Best Remedy For These Common Ailments

Reliable authorities say that upwards of 99 per cent. of the so-called colds in the head and throat are in reality dangerous indications of the presence of acute catarrh. When you hear a person sneeze or cough its almost certain they are throwing catarrh germs into the air for some other person to breathe and its just as certain that the person breathing these germs will soon have catarrh or a catarrhal cold. The time to make these germs harmless and drive out your catarrhal cold is the very instant you feel a desire to sneeze or cough, or start to snuffle. Rub life quickly destroys all catarrh germs, makes breathing easy, clears your stuffed up head, cleans out your throat and ends your snuffling and nose blowing. There certainly is no quicker or more satisfactory way of breaking up a cold, even after it is well started, and a few weeks' use will do away with all danger of a return. Catarrh is sold by druggists everywhere, including H. C. Kennedy, who agrees to return the full purchase price to any one who is not satisfied. In buying Hyomei for the first time be very sure to get the large size, which contains the inhaler, as this is very essential for best results.—Advertisement will be under the tutelage of W. S. Vivian, of Chicago, Ill., secretary of the Independent Telephone Association of America. Mr. Vivian will instruct the operators in the way and where-fores of the best service.

GOVERNOR TO TALK TO TELEPHONE MEN

ANNOUNCE PROGRAM

The complete program of the convention was announced this morning by O. K. Kines, secretary of the Eastern Pennsylvania Association. The first day will be given over to the registration of delegates and to a big banquet in the evening.

Henry M. Tracy, president of the association, will preside over the convention session on the eighth. Following the Governor's address, E. E. Fisher, president of the Independent Telephone Association of America, Grand Rapids, Michigan, will give a talk on "Retrospect and Prospect." W. H. Hay, service engineer of the Western Pennsylvania Independent Telephone Association, will speak on "Long Distance Transmission." A general discussion will follow.

The afternoon session, which will be convened at 1:30 o'clock, will be addressed by Richard Hawkey, general manager of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Telephone Company on "Eliminating of Night Toll Rates in Pennsylvania," and by E. D. Schade, general manager of the Johnstown Telephone Company, on "Amendment to the Female Labor Act and Proposed Child Labor Act."

JOHNSON IS CAUSING HIS BACKERS ANXIETY

Johnson is stubborn. He says he will carry out this program, and that he is anxious to find out just how good he is. Every man financially interested in the fight is exerting his influence on Johnson to-day.

A large force of clerks will be at work the best part of last night in allotting and distributing tickets. No less than 1,000 complimentary seats will be given out. Out of more than 70 press representatives who will be about the ring more than 30 are from the United States.

The ring, it was decided to-day, is to be about 19 feet inside the ropes, with a two-foot extension outside. Threatening weather to-day again interfered in a measure with the training work of the two men. Heavy rains last night left the roads wet and slippery, and as a result the early morning work was short and slow.

The promoters are rapidly completing the final arrangements for the fight. With the expected arrival of Referee Jack Welsh all directly concerned in the contest will be on hand, including principals and officers there will be twenty persons in and about the ring during the battle. This number will be made up of the two pugilists, the two referees, timekeepers, the eight seconds, the four physicians, the stake holder and the announcer.

The first rains of the season are expected about April 5, the day of the fight. The promoters are planning to avoid any disastrous delay, in case of a shower or a downpour by the erection of a temporary protection over the ring. Provision has been made for four posts, one at each corner of the ring, supporting a light overhead frame work with a tarpaulin canopy ready to be stretched over the fighters if necessity arises. This would give protection to the men and the floor only. If it rains all the spectators, including Cuban government officials, wealthy American sportsmen and American tourists must watch the fight from unsheltered positions.
