

TO-MORROW WILL BE EASTER SUNDAY

Underlying everything that Easter means to you; is there not a deeply religious instinct which inspires you in an unconscious manner to seek that which the day celebrates? Good Friday and Easter--the Cross and the Open Tomb, mark the the giving of Christianity to the world. Not alone Christianity, but its counterpart as well, Divine Love, exemplified in man by thought of fellow-man, human love and civilization. The world's symbol of Life Eternal is portrayed in the Resurrection.

The Church's Easter Message Is Life

Our life to-day is one of many vicissitudes to which we must adapt ourselves. But Death, which is ever in our midst, never changes. Many of us in the past year have experienced it within our circles. With what manifold blessings does the Easter message come because of Death--for that message is Life--Life conquering Death--Life Eternal. The Triumph of Life will be the theme of song, sermon and service in most churches to-morrow. And how great is the comfort of the assurance of a Resurrection for us; that just as our Redeemer broke Death's power; so can we who follow in His footsteps.

Thousands Will Hear This Message

You should be one of those who will be in church to-morrow. The churches of Harrisburg extend a most cordial invitation to you to attend any service that is held on this glorious day. If there is a church to which you belong; you should be in attendance there. If you have no church relations; every church invites you. The Easter message is yours, and in song and service you should allow your soul to fully embrace it.

The Easter Cantata "Death and Life" An Easter Sermon "The Ever-Present God."

What difference would it make to you to-day if the last picture on the pages of the Gospels was that of a weeping woman with an aching heart, gazing into an empty tomb? What difference it would make, this Easter message and Easter music will tell you.

Next Sunday Evening
"The Providing God"

The Shepherd Psalm! Who Scripture sets forth as well as this, the Providing Care of God? Come and study this Psalm, and sing this Psalm that you may enter into the full meaning of this Psalm.
