

WILLARD WINS IN TWENTY-SIXTH ROUND

JACK JOHNSON MEETS WESTERN COWBOY IN RING NEAR HAVANA

Both Men Arise Early and Following Short Exercises, Start For Ring, Where Thousands of Persons Had Gathered; Sunrise Found Many Natives and Visitors Already in Stands; Johnson Was Favorite Before Gong Sounded; Both Men Expressed Confidence as They Climbed Through Ropes

Ringside, Oriental Park, Havana, April 5.—The sun broke through a darkly overcast sky as the crowd began to enter the arena of the world's heavyweight championship fight between Jack Johnson, of Texas, and Jess Willard, of Kansas. The setting for the battle was picturesque. A ring had been erected on the racetrack in front of the big steel grandstand which furnished the principal seating facilities.

JOHNSON-WILLARD FIGHT BY ROUNDS

Ringside, Havana, April 5.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist since 1910, lost his title this afternoon to Jess Willard, the Kansas cowboy, in the twenty-sixth round of their scheduled forty-five round bout. The fight ended when the challenger landed a terrific blow on the negro's jaw and he took the count.

JESS WILLARD

"JACK" JOHNSON

Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist since 1910, lost his title this afternoon to Jess Willard, the Kansas cowboy, in the twenty-sixth round of their scheduled forty-five round bout. The fight ended when the challenger landed a terrific blow on the negro's jaw and he took the count.

The former champion began to show signs of weakness after the twentieth round and Willard appeared to land telling blows at will. The cowboy, in the early rounds, took probably more punishment than any pugilist in many years back and with every blow he received he grinned.

GREAT DEMONSTRATION FOR LOCAL OPTION TO BRING THOUSANDS HERE

Governor Returns to Capitol Refreshed For the Fight and Pleased With Outlook; Will Be Greatest Anti-liquor Rally in History of the Commonwealth

At a late hour this afternoon word was received at the office of the Governor that United States Senator Oliver will preside at the great local option rally to-morrow evening. Senator Oliver had all of his plans made to go South this week for a much needed vacation, but his own deep interest in the passage of the local option bill and the earnest request of Governor Brumbaugh caused him to subordinate his own plans for the good of the cause.

Harrisburg will have the greatest demonstration in its history in favor of local option—plain home rule in the matter of liquor licenses—to-morrow. Over ten thousand men will assemble here to attend public meetings and to give their countenance to the local option speakers at the hearing on the Williams bill by the House and order committee.
