NEW YORK STOCKS

| New York, April 16.—Mrs. Christine Wheeler, wife of the Rev. Francis Rolt Wheeler, Episcopal clergyman, author, lecturer, poet and former chaplain of St. Luke's Hospital, has asked the court of domestic relations to force him to pay $7 a week toward the support of herself and two children, who, she says, he deserted for another woman, with whom, she asserts, he is living in luxurious quarters. "New dances and free love literature crazed my husband," said the wife, who bears him no animosity." "Even now my heart goes out in pity for him for the hours and days in which he must pay. Then I, the woman who should be at his side to comfort him in his time of trial, will be out of his reach forever."

grave than has ever before confronted our trade," the annual report said.

"Formerly we were called upon to oppose town and county option. To-day we must combat State and nation-wide prohibition. Originally our opponents were few and scattered. To-152 % day they are many and united."

It is pointed out that the Kentucky manufacture of whisky in January, 1914, was over six million gallons, while in January this year the production had fallen to less than two million gallons. In Maryland, too, the rate of decrease was nearly as great.

Of course, the falling off in whisky consumption will bring financial hard-ship to the distillers, and it may conceivably affect the farmers to a slight degree. But most farmers will be degree. But most farmers will be degree. But most farmers will be reasonable about the adjustment. They would rather lose a few cents a bushel on corn and rye for a year or two than to have the good grain made into a drink for poisoning their own and their neighbors' sons.—Farm Life.
