PRISONERS IN JAIL EXTEND GREETINGS

Sing "Hail! Hail! the Gang's All Here," When Special Officer Arrives at Carlisle

Special to The Telegraph

Carlisle, Pa., April 16.—When Harry Forney, special officer at Shippensburg during the crusade against the 'whisky runners,' ten of whom have been arrested on various charges, was brought to the jail here last night he was tendered a reception by his fellow-townsmen. Forney, it is said, was formerly in the business and from inside information was able to furnish evidence that resulted in the jailing of his former friends.

Charges that he furnished liquor to a 15-year-old Shippensburg girl and later assaulted her were made against Forney and he was arrested Wednesday and brought here last evening.
The news of his coming preceded him
and when he was placed in the county prison the other Shippensburgers kreeted him uproariously to the tune of 'Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here.'

Class Meets Here Every Sunday at Ten O'clock. We Need Two More Men to Make the Enrollment Five Hundred." These figures change as the membership grows. Usually the small red circle with a white center—the emblem of the organized Bible class—is painted on the sign.

In some cases the men's Bible classes are really larger than the membership of the church itself. They go in for all kinds of social and fraternal enterprises. In some industrial centers they have organized "doings" every Saturday night to keep the men with their full pay envelopes away from the saloon and other evil centers. It is a common story that poolrooms and clubs have been put out of existence by the vitality of these new men's Bible classes with their ingenuity for good times and hearty fellowship.

One incidental effect of the Bible class movement has been to secure for the teaching of these classes the strongest laymen in a community of the teaching of these classes the strongest laymen in a community of the teaching of these classes the strongest laymen in a community of the eaching of these classes the strongest laymen in a community of the professional men have found this and other professional men have found this can exhilaration, the men of Holy Trinity Chapel, Philadelphia, have, since the Sunday campaign, organized a Bible class of about one thousand members, and George Wharton Pepper, the distinguished lawyer, has agreed to be come its teacher.

Sible class work is given by the various Sunday School parades that are now common throughout the country. As many as twenty thousand men have paraded at a single time in these demonstrations.

Without premeditation or direction, it has come to pass also that the Bible class button is the most common badge seen at evangelistic meetings. The white circle surrounded by red symbolizing a "White Life Safeguarded by the Blood of Christ." has become to be almost an evangelistic badge.

The most definite result of the campaigns of "Billy" Sunday, for instance, is the rapid increase in organized adult Bible classes. Fifty thousand men were so enrolled in Philadelphia, and twelve thousand in Scranton. The Bible class ties the new converts and other interested men to a local church; $ sets them to work for others. It restrains them from religious excesses by regular Bible study.

This new force, which has been unleashed in American life, has possibilities that reach out in many directions, and all students of the trend of the times will keep a careful eye upon it.
