NEW CAMP CURTIN MEMORIAL CHURCH TO BE SOCIAL CENTER

Gymnasium, Clubrooms, Etc., to be Open to All Young Men and Women of West End Regardless of Affiliation; Big Campaign For $38,000 Starts Tomorrow; Patriotic Service in the Morning With Old Soldiers as Guests of Honor

REV. A. S. WILLIAMS, Pastor of Camp Curtin Memorial Church

When the new Camp Curtin Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church to be erected at Sixth and Camp streets as a monument to old "Camp Curtin" is completed the West End will have a "social center" rivaling any in the State.

The campaign to raise $38,000 for the erection of the church will be inaugurated to-morrow morning with a patriotic service in the present chapel to be attended by the Grand Army of the Republic members and the Sons of Veterans.

When the big church is completed, it will be equipped with all the modern institutional features such as gymnasium, locker rooms, shower baths, library, etc., which will be open to all the young men and women of the community regardless of their church affiliation.

Additional club life, social clubs, etc., will make the church a place full of interest for the youngsters of the West End.

has been steady. The cornerstone of the church was laid in May of 1890 and in July of 1893, it was found necessary to enlarge the building to take care of an increased Sunday school attendance. In December, 1894, the first church was burned to the ground. The cornerstone of the present chapel was laid in 1895 and it was dedicated in September of the same year.

To-day the activities of the church again demand larger quarters and during the next eight days the congregation will put forth every effort to raise the $38,000 needed.

The hundred men and hundred women who will constitute the working teams in the big campaign will give their final instruction in their duties at a rally last night.

The first actual work in the raising of the money will begin to-morrow. Each night throughout next week a luncheon will be held at 6 o'clock when reports of the day's work will be read. Strong rivalry between the various teams has stirred every worker to do his utmost and the report on the first evening will be watched with interest.

At the meeting to-morrow morning, patriotism will be the keynote of the service. Colonel Henry C. Demming of this city and Mahlon Shaaber, of Reading, will give the martial address of fifty years ago. Music of the ringing patriotic sort will be an added feature of the service.

GLOBE-GIRDLING BUM TELLS LIFE STORY

Has Wandered in Many Climes and Waged Successful 42-year Fight With Rum; to Speak Here

JOHN TYLER

John Tyler, scion of an old Virginia family, who, after spending a fortune in dissipation and sinking deep in depravity, was found and reformed by the McAuley Mission, of New York city, will speak in several Harrisburg churches to-morrow.

At Derry Street United Brethren Church in the morning he will speak on "The Moral Leper." He will address the men's Bible class at the same church in the afternoon. In the evening he will speak in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church. His address will be "Lot Pitched His Tent Toward Sodom." Late in the afternoon he will speak at the City Rescue Mission.

Fall Was Rapid Tyler is now 70 years old. A college man, well bred and given every opportunity in life, at an early age he began to dissipate. His first drink, he says, was taken in his dormitory room at a private preparatory school. From that time his decline into the depths of life was rapid.

In an interview Tyler recounted some of his countless experiences which have been a part of his life, both before and after his conversion, and graphically depicted how he reeled in the path of righteousness living.

Picked Out of Gutter "Picked out of the gutter and presented to the world a changed man, with the strength of character and desire of heart which sent me back to the park benches and dives as a representative of Christ," said Mr. Tyler, "my history reads like a miracle."

Holding down a lucrative position as superintendent of a large New York office building, I found myself devoting much of my time to preaching in city churches and city missions. Finally I decided to go forth into the world and tell the wonderful story of my conversion.

Went Abroad to Study "More than forty-two years ago my parents decided to send me to a private boarding school. I was a young man and had a tendency to become careless. It was shortly after I entered this institution that I obtained my first drink. The liquor was smuggled into the dormitory and I indulged my course at this boarding school my father sent me abroad to a prominent university.

"I finally left the college and returned to this country. They succeeded in securing me a responsible position, but the drink habit had taken upon me and I was fast becoming its slave. Shortly after I left college my father died and left me a large sum of money. The income netted me several hundred dollars a month.

Money Dwindles "After drifting from position to position, being discharged many times because of my intemperance, the constant use of strong drink got the better of me. Finally the money which had been left to me began to disappear.

Health Shattered "Broken in health, penniless and a mere shadow of my former self, I was a human derelict. Disheveled and cold, I sat on a park bench facing the East river contemplating suicide. Water street, where I was given food and clothes. For several months I remained here. My drink habit was broken, then cured. I became another man.

IT is ever so much easier to find a good, sound reason for going to church than it is to find an equally sound reason for staying away. The broad conception of the church is that of "humanity at its best." Your very nature does not permit of a neutrality of thought regarding the place in society which you occupy. The essential lies in bringing our lives into conformity with our convictions. The Christian church in this city, as everywhere, is reaching out through infinite channels, aiding humanity. The work has advanced for centuries, and will progress in proportion to the activity shown by you and your fellow-men. As an integral part of society, it is for you to determine how you are going to aid that advancement. The thought that you can aid the church in giving the world a better civilization, is but one of the many sound reasons for your being in attendance at church service to-morrow. If you find that you need other proof; you will find it if to-morrow you
