TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL RELAY RUNNERS FOR SATURDAY

This is the week for the annual relay races at Philadelphia. On Saturday, the local high schools and Harrisburg Academy will send relay teams to the Quaker City. They will compete in the annual relay events on Franklin Field, under the direction of the University of Pennsylvania Athletic committee. Central high school will announce its team after practice this afternoon; Harrisburg and Academy and Tech high have selected their runners. The Tech squad will include the above sprinters who are, reading from left to right: Demming, Stansfield, Stiteler, Davies, Evans and Heffelfinger, captain.

FUTURE GREATS ARE LINING UP STRONG

Games Saturday Attract Large Crowds; Local Firemen Have Lively Contest

The amateur season had a preliminary opening on Saturday. The official start is scheduled for next Saturday, at which time there will be at least fifty teams in the field. The league season will start on or about May 1.

The games Saturday showed promising aggregations. While in a number of contests victory was one-sided, the games were interesting. The big crowd was found at Fourth and Seneca streets, where the West End team opened the season on the new field. West End defeated Enola Country Club, score, 11 to 4.

The local fire department series started Saturday, the Friendship team defeating the Good Will nine; score, 12 to 11. This game was exciting and attracted a large crowd.

The Seneca team had a strong opponent in the Keener A. C., but won out; score, 9 to 3. At Carlisle Tech High was swamped; score, 17 to 3. Hasser, A. C. defeated New Cumberland; score, 10 to 4.

SPORTSMEN'S SHOOT

On Saturday in a silver spoon trophy shoot the winners were Martin with 48; Hickok and Hoffman, each, 47. Other scores were: Hoover, 45; Miller, 42; Stewart, 41; Wilson, 41; Hawbaker, 37; Halderman, 36; Radie, 34; Essig, 32. In a practice shoot Shoop broke 114 out of 125; Hoover, 109; Hawbaker, 91; Stewart, 89.

ENOIA STARTS BASEBALL

Under the direction of General Secretary S. G. Heford, the Enola P. R. Y. M. C. A. baseball diamond is being put in shape for the season. Manager A. L. Wynn, of the baseball team, has called his candidates for practice this week. He will be assisted by the following former baseball stars as coaches: Edward N. Bachman, assistant manager; William H. Kaufman, W. H. Kreider, Samuel G. Heford and W. H. Deckard. The captain of the team will be F. H. Steas.

Games are wanted with strong uniformed teams throughout Pennsylvania.

FOREST FIRES IN YORK HILLS

Marietta, Pa., April 18.—A fierce forest fire is raging in the York county hills, opposite this place. Summer cottages and resorts are in danger of destruction. The flames are visible here, and the high wind has caused the fire to burn over considerable woodland.

Floyd A. MacFarland Dies After Fight With Candy Man

Newark, N. J., April 18.—Floyd A. MacFarland, general manager of the Cycle Racing Association and one of the most widely known bicycle riders in the country, received a fractured skull and other injuries about the head from which he died in an altercation with David Lantimberg, a confectionery dealer in the Velodrome here Saturday night. Lantimberg was arrested and held without bail, a charge of murder being lodged against him.

MacFarland has had the distinction of winning nearly every sort of cycling event from a quarter-mile dash to a six-day race. He was teamed as a winner in three different six-day races in Madison Square Garden, New York. His last appearance on the track was at New Haven, Conn., in 1911, when he won a ten-mile race.

DEFEATS HARRISBURG ACADEMY

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC Saturday, matinee and evening, April 24.—McIntyre and Heath in "The Ham Tree."

COLONIAL Every afternoon and evening—Vaudeville and Pictures.

MOVING PICTURES Palace, 10 a. m. to 11 p. m. Photoplay, 10 a. m. to 11 p. m. Regent, 12 noon to 11 p. m. Royal, 8 p. m. to 11 p. m. Victoria, 10 a. m. to 11 p. m.

McINTYRE AND HEATH IN "THE HAM TREE" John Cort's production of George V. Hobart and Jean Schwartz's novel musical comedy, "The Ham Tree," with McIntyre and Heath, most famous of negro impersonators, heading the large company, will be the attraction at the Majestic next Saturday, afternoon and evening.

"The Ham Tree" is in three acts and four scenes, showing the Travelers' Rest, a country hotel at Merion, S. C.; a water tank on the P. D. & R. R., near Dover, Del.; a wood near the railroad track, and a drawing room in Mrs. Nicklebacker's Fifth Avenue palace. These settings form the background for the humorous play. Mr. McIntyre plays the character of a livery stable attendant named Alexander Hamiltonian, the "natural comedian," who is lured from his job to throw himself into the arms of fame as a footlight favorite.

Mr. Heath's character is that of a Georgia minstrel, Henry Jones, who jumps Alexander into the limelight. Seats on sale Thursday.—Advertisement.

EDUCATED BARBOONS AT COLONIAL Demarc's Baboons in which some wonderful animal training is exhibited, will be one of the features of the Colonial Theater the first three days of the week. On the same bill will be Catherine Chalmers and company in a comedy sketch was originally booked for the Orpheum Theater, but switched to the Colonial owing to the closing of the other house. Al and Fanny Stedman, who will appear in a pleasing song and dance act, were also booked for the Orpheum. Another act scheduled for the first three days at the Colonial is Billy Ellwood, a clever cartoonist.—Advertisement.

"RUNAWAY JUNE" AT THE ROYAL AND NATIONAL

At the Royal and National theaters, to-day, will be shown the twelfth episode of the great new serial by George Randolph Chester, the first of the writer's stories to appear in the newspapers and in motion pictures. Norma Phillips, the "Mutual Girl," was selected to fill the leading role in "Runaway June," the new serial. This film is being shown at this theater every Monday for the period of fifteen weeks. The story is one of love, dollars and mystery. The mystery that follows is left for you to solve. The twelfth episode will be shown at the Royal, Third street above Cumberland, and the National, Sixth and Dauphin, to-night.—Advertisement.

"RUNAWAY JUNE" AT THE VICTORIA

The twelfth episode of the new serial in motion pictures will be shown at the Victoria to-day. This new work by George Randolph Chester, writer of hundreds of interesting fiction stories, is "Runaway June," a story of a girl who married the man she loved, but who left him two hours after she married him.

After running away she meets the man of mystery, the man with the black Vandyske who offers to assist her but she refuses to accept aid from a stranger. The man with the black Vandyske was attracted to "June" and continually followed her about, filling her life with fear. This story is growing more interesting as it progresses and all the mystery is gradually made clear in the pictures.

Norma Phillips, well remembered for her work in the "Mutual Girl," was chosen to fill the role of "June." Arthur Donaldson, producer of the role of the man with the black Vandyske.

To-morrow we offer "Arizona," Augustus Thomas' great story in five parts, enacted by an all-star cast. Hear the wonderful music furnished by our great musician, our Harrisburg's greatest theater piperorgan.—Advertisement.

THE PHOTOPLAY

To-day's feature, "The Lady of the Snows," produced by the Essanay Company, and featuring Edna Mayo and Richard Travers, is a wonderful three-act dramatic production. Taken from the old Indian legend this tale of the North Hills is woven around its characters in a manner shown only in these high-class Essanay releases.

MARATHON RACE IS BIG EVENT AT BOSTON

Runners From Nine States Compete For Honors in Annual American Contest

Boston, Mass., April 19.—Runners from nine States and two Canadian provinces are here to-day for the American marathon over the twenty-five miles of roads between Ashland and Boston. While the field of seventy-five entrants is the smallest within recent years, it includes many athletes of high grade.

Canadian runners are prominent among the favorites. Among them are Edouard Fabre, of Montreal, who finished second in last year's race; Arthur Jamison, of Hamilton, Ont., an Indian, who won the annual Hamilton road race sensationally last fall, and Walter J. Bell, of Montreal, winner of fourth prize in last year's event.

Cliff Horne, of the Dorchester Club, New England ten-mile champion; Charles Pores, of New York, winner of the Brooklyn Seagate marathon; Nick Gianakopoulos and Frank Zuna, of the same city, and William Kennedy, of the Illinois A. C., Chicago, are leading American representatives.

Other runners who are entered are Edward Martineau, Montreal; Sidney Hatch, Chicago; R. H. Wentworth, Lynchburg, Va.; Robert Mohrman, Wilimantic, Conn.; C. L. Phillips, Hamilton, Ont.; M. J. Lynch, Washington, D. C.; Hugh Honohan, George B. Moss, William G. Wilson, Jack McDermott, P. M. Coyne, New York; George F. McInerney and Harry A. Garvin, representing the Shanahan Club; J. Weiss and J. J. McKeeney, Philadelphia; Joseph S. Christon, Lowell, and Percy Weyer, Toronto.

PALM IS DICKINSON STAR

Carlisle, Pa., April 19.—High individual points were scored by A. M. Palm, a Dickinson College freshman from Phillipsburg, Pa., in yesterday's Spring interschool track and field meet on Biddle Field. The freshman class scored the highest number of points, running considerably over 1,000.

Standings of classes: Freshmen, 1,043 1/2 points; Sophomores, 995 9-10 points; Juniors, 784-3-10 points; Seniors, 711 4-10 points. Law, 452 7-10 points. Individual high scores: Palm, "18, 26 1/2 points; Wardell, 15, 23 1/2 points; Courtney, "17, 204 5-10 points.

MRS. SAGE GAME ENTHUSIAST

New York, April 19.—Mrs. Russell Sage surprised the trustees of the Permanent Wild Life Protection Fund Saturday by sending her check for $15,000. She had previously given $10,000.

Dr. W. T. Hornaday says, in the annual report, he was offered $25,000 a year for five years for protection of wild life if he would cease opposing the use of automatic and pump guns in hunting.

MACK TURNS DOWN DEAL

Insists That J. Franklin Baker Must Play With Athletics. Philadelphia, April 19.—The report that the new owners of the New York Americans are still after J. Franklin Baker, of the Athletics, is still going the rounds, but there is no more truth in it than there was earlier in the season. Manager Mack wasted enough time last night to again deny the rumor and said there was no chance of any club in either league getting Baker for any amount of money or players.
