

MRS. THOMSON TELLS WOMEN

How She Was Helped During Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—“I am just 52 years of age and during the change of life I suffered for six years terribly. I tried several doctors but none seemed to give me any relief. Every month the pain were intense on both sides, and made me so weak that I had to go to bed. At last a friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me, and shall always recommend it as a woman's friend. You are at liberty to use my letter in any way.”—Mrs. THOMSON, 49 W. Russell St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Change of life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to help women so successfully through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

LEGISLATIVE NEWS

APPROPRIATIONS HAVE CLEAR TRACK

Will Be the Big Feature of the Coming Legislature During the Coming Week of Session

Appropriation bills will occupy much of the attention of the House of Representatives during the coming week and it is probable that a day may be set for consideration of the whole list on third reading. Over 235 have already reached that stage and Monday night sixty more will pass first reading and be put on second reading the following day. It is the plan to put them together and Wednesday may be devoted to appropriation bills exclusively.

The appropriation bills not reported out will be considered by the committee on Monday and Tuesday, State College and Capitol Park extension being among the number. The Senate appropriation bills will be held until within ten days of the close of the session, the same plan having been arranged for House appropriation bills in the Senate.

Owing to the diminished revenue of the state, some 150 bills carrying appropriations may not be reported, but will go into the "graveyard."

The House has commenced to have special orders for consideration of bills as a regular thing. Three are fixed for Monday night. They are authorizing plans for the ultimate consolidation of the two state penitentiaries, reducing fees for examination of moving picture films by the State censors and the creation of a commission of 1913 so that insurance companies may be taxed on personal property.

One of the surest signs of catarrh of the head, nose and throat is catching cold easily. When you have catarrh the mucous membranes are inflamed, swollen and sensitive and a slight draft or sudden change of temperature at once sets you sneezing, snuffling and wiping your nose. Then again while these delicate tissues are in a heated state the catarrh germs sneeze out and coughed up by other sufferers find their way into your system. The catarrh germs sneeze out and coughed up by other sufferers find their way into your system. The catarrh germs sneeze out and coughed up by other sufferers find their way into your system.

PROHIBITION IS TO BE HELD BACK

No Chance For Members to Vote on That as a Sop to Constituents on Local Option

Those who voted against local option to carry out their election agreements with the liquor interests will not get an opportunity to partially amend to their constituents by supporting the prohibition constitutional amendment. The Glenn amendment is in the House law and order committee and the administration is credited with favoring a plan to keep it there.

Two years ago after the local option bill was defeated by a vote of 121 to 82 the resolution proposing a constitutional amendment was put before the House and it polled 118 votes, while 108 were cast against it. The result of this was that in the primaries and election of 1913 the members who opposed local option were elected to the House. The friends of local option are in the majority on the law and order committee and if they stand together they can keep the resolution buried.

The Governor held a conference on Wednesday night at the Mansion with his lieutenants, planning for the fight in 1916, while some of his opponents were making speeches in the rooms and other places about what they would do to Mr. Brumbaugh. During the conference the Governor told his friends that he had promised to report from 108 members of the House to aid him pass the local option bill. He seemed to have a clear idea of how some of the voters could be won.

Now that the local option bill is out of the way and any debt that might have been owed to the liquor interests is paid, some of the most prominent Republicans in the state are talking about getting the party right in the 1916 campaign. The method of doing this is to draft a platform in advance of the May primaries in 1915 which will contain a local option plank. This would commit the nominees of the primaries to vote for this legislation in the session of 1917.

The adoption of a platform of this kind would bring thousands of men back to the party who have strayed away because of the friendliness shown to the liquor interests. The liquor men were able to again get control of the Democratic organization the result would be the accession of thousands of Democrats to the Republican ranks, at least in so far as the liquor question is concerned.

There is a strong possibility that unless the Republican party gets right on the question of giving the people power to determine the question of licensing the liquor trade the contests for United States senator, congressman-at-large, auditor general, state treasurer and proboscience and the election of national delegates will be determined next year in Pennsylvania along "dry" and "wet" lines.

It is now necessary to build a Republican ticket along "dry" lines in order to assist in the fight for legislators who will give the people what they want. It would not be surprising to see Dr. Brumbaugh head it as a candidate for President. Under the primary laws candidates for President can go on the ballot and candidates for national delegates can express their presidential preference.

With Dr. Brumbaugh as a candidate for President stumbling the state in the interest of "dry" senators and representatives, coupled with full ticket for all the offices to be nominated, including the twelve national delegates-at-large who are to be elected in the fall, the campaign would at least be interesting. Stating a candidate beyond the possibilities of the situation. The Governor seems determined to win his fight; the "setback" is apparently just stimulating him for the battle which is to come.

The whole patronage of the state to use in assisting him in building up the organization that will give the people in fighting with the weapon which have been placed in his hands. The ones who are willing to help him are the ones he believes should get his help.

OBJECTIONS TO "TWILIGHT SLEEP" ARE ANSWERED

In "Painless Childbirth," a German Survey of All Painless Methods with Special Stress on "Twilight Sleep" and Its Extension to America," Marguerite Tracy and Mary Boyd have met squarely and in detail the various objections raised by those opposed to "Twilight Sleep." In answer to the main argument, that the care and skill necessary in administering it make it impractical for general use, they say in part:

"Scientific surgery and the splendid modern hospital have grown together out of the humane practice of anaesthesia, and expensive as surgery is, it is practiced in the same way in the free wards as in the private ones; the operating room and the condition of the patient are the same. The humane practice of 'Twilight Sleep' will raise obstetrics to a costly science. Birth is reckoned by the average family at a cost of $25. The same family, confronted by the need of an operation, cannot afford the free or the cheap wards of a hospital, where the difference between the large expense of highly specialized work and what the family can pay is met by the community. The safeguarding of child-birth is even more the concern of the community, and would cost no more, as Dr. Foulkrod has estimated, than many communities feel justified in paying for filtration plants to guard against typhoid. 'Twilight Sleep' means the reorganization and the improvement of obstetrics. Its outcome will be painless spontaneous birth on as universal a basis as painless surgery. Its final outcome will be to relieve one-half of humanity from its antique burden of a suffering which the other half of humanity has never understood."

IS YOUR SKIN TENDER? TRY RESINOL SOAP

Any soap will CLEAN your skin—a bar of laundry soap will do if you do not care what becomes of your complexion. But you know that laundry soap contains harsh, drying alkali that would ruin your skin and hair, so you never think of using it for your toilet.

Many toilet soaps contain this same injurious alkali. Resinol Soap contains absolutely no free alkali, and to it is added that medication which has made Resinol Ointment so successful in the treatment of skin and scalp affections. This gives it soothing, healing properties, which clear the complexion, comfort tender skins and keep the hair rich and lustrous. Resinol Soap and Ointment are sold by all druggists.
