Boys' Band Wants New Uniforms and Has Gone Into Vaudeville to Get 'Em

Within the past year Kilgore's Kolonial Kids, that aggregation of musically inclined boys organized a little over a year ago have made such rapid strides.

And they're going to prove it! By presenting themselves as the feature act at the Colonial Theater during the first three days of next week and showing the Harrisburg public that the city has something to be proud of in its juvenile band.

Rehearsals have been held once or more each week and there isn't a member of the band, no matter how small, who would think of letting a rehearsal get by without attending.

Dick Kilgore, assistant manager of the Colonial Theater, was the instigator of the band and acts as its manager. Edward M. Fisher, a member of the Orpheum orchestra, is the instructor.

The boys have a splendid program arranged for their engagement at the Colonial. They will appear three times daily, along with the other program of regular vaudeville.

The boys' motto is "Every Ticket Buys a Button on a Uniform," and it takes a good many buttons to fit out a well-dressed juvenile band.
