Dr. Dernberg Says Press of America Is Unfair $1,500 IS NEEDED

New York, April 27.—Dr. Bernhard Dernberg, former colonial secretary of Harrisburg's second plot for garden workers, at Twelfth and Calder streets, will be ready by to-morrow afternoon. A section of students, engineers from the Technical high school, to-day arranged the plot in divisions. The students were alone and made working plans without the aid of a professor. The Tech students are members of the senior class and included C. E. Kutz, Robert Andrews, William Reift, Harold Cobaugh, Earl Shuey, H. S. Reeser, Samuel McIlhenny, Albert Compton and Merle Beach. The new plot will include seventy-three gardens. A request has been made that ail desiring gardens should call up or write the Poor Directors at once.

TRACTION ENGINE BILL IS PASSED BY THE HOUSE
The House to-day passed by a vote of 164 to 6 the Spangler traction engine bill, backed by a number of manufacturers and farmers. The bill would cut the present licenses in half and create two classes of machines, one class would include all hauling machines, which cannot exceed 32,000 pounds and for whose operation pernits from State or local highway authorities must be obtained. The other class comprises agricultural machines, Messrs. Spangler, York; McConnell, Mercer, and Herman, Wyoming, spoke for the bill.
