Special to The Telegraph Selingsrove, Pa., April 28.-Modern evangelism and "Billy" Sunday as its leading exponent were attacked to-day at the opening session of the forty-third semiannual convention of the Danville Conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium. The Rev. H. Douglas Spaeth, pastor of St. Mark's, Williamsport, led the discussion on "The Attitude of the Lutheran Church Toward Modern Evangelism." He said the revival is not the normal way to win converts to the church, and after uoting from a "Billy" Sunday sermon declared: "This is a fair specimen of the mes-uoting from a "Billy" Sunday sermon declared: "This is a fair specimen of the mes-sage hurled from tabernacle pulpits by the leading exponent of modern evan-gelism. No one can deny its vigor, nor the fact that it contains considerable element of truth, but its giaring faults and power for doing mischief are surely just as apparent. The trouble-with 'Billy' Sunday is that he doesn't know when he has said enough. Ex-aggeration is one of his chief stocks in trade, and exaggeration is just as false and immoral if it begins with a truth as if it begins with a lie. It is not true that most of the preachers are not converted. consecrated men: yet this is what 'Billy' Sunday implies and wishes his hearers to think when he cried: 'If God could convert the preacher, the world would be saved.' It is not anywhere near the truth, and 'Billy' Sunday knows very well it is not true. 'Billy' is simply playing to the galleries.''

Special to The Telegraph Hagerstown, Md., April 28.—A for-est fire that swept over both sides of the Blue Ridge Mountain opposite Weverton drove hundreds of buzzards and wild turkeys from their haunts destroying their nests. Numbers of rabbits, squirrels and other small game perished in the flames. A flock of wild turkeys flew across the Potomac river and sought refuge from the flames in the hills back of Weverton. Hundreds of buzzards had their nest-ing places in the crags on the moun-tain. The fire burned for several days, destroying a lot of timber. Rains yes-terday helped to check the fire.
