Fire of Mysterious Origin Breaks Out in West End

Fire Chief John C. Kindler found a fire of mysterious origin at 921 North Sixth street last evening. The blaze was in the rear of the tailor shop of A. Baer and caused damage amounting to $150. The Hope company was called by telephone and worked for an hour. The proprietor of the tailor shop said he had no fire in his shop for several days. This fact, with the failure of the firemen to get results with a chemical stream aroused Fire Chief Kindler's suspicions and to-day he reported conditions to State Fire Marshal Baldwin. An investigation will be made.

CROSS EXAMINATION OF ROOSEVELT ENDS

In One Speech He Said Barnes Was a "Menace to State of New York"

By Associated Press Syracuse, N. Y., April 28.—Theodore Roosevelt told to-day as a witness in the $50,000 libel suit brought against him by William Barnes why, when Governor of New York and President of the United States, he conferred with former United States Senator Thomas C. Platt the "boss." While he was Governor of New York, the Colonel declared he discussed things with Senator Platt because he had found out that the Legislature obeyed his orders. And the witness thought it best, when there was any likelihood of that lawmaking body of the State disagreeing with him, to first go to headquarters and talk things over. Further, as Governor, the Colonel said he did not want to run any chances of disrupting the Republican party. As President of the United States the Colonel readily admitted he conferred constantly with the senator from New York on all manner of things. He said he valued the senator's advice and wanted to take advantage of his wide experience.

Speech at Malone

In a speech delivered at Malone, N. Y., Colonel Roosevelt charged that Mr. Barnes and Mr. Murphy were in collusion in regard to elections. An objection to a question on this passage was sustained. Mr. Inves argued in vain that he be allowed to read the speeches to show that Colonel Roosevelt repeated his accusations against Mr. Barnes many times. "Do you remember speaking at Gloversville?" "Yes." "Mr. Inves read a speech. In it Colonel Roosevelt was represented as saying that he wouldn't say Mr. Murphy's and Mr. Barnes' principles were the same because he wasn't sure they had any principles. An objection was sustained. Mr. Inves referred to speeches made in several places in which Colonel Roosevelt was said in the newspapers to have repeated his statements about Mr. Barnes. Colonel Roosevelt said he remembered the speeches he made last year and that he mentioned Mr. Barnes.

TRAVELING EXPENSES

"What was your salary as President of the United States?" "$50,000." "Did Congress appropriate $25,000 for your traveling expenses?" "Mr. Bowers objected and was sustained. Mr. Inves argued that he wanted to test the good faith of the witness and show that although $50,000 was the President's salary he approved the bill which gave him $25,000 for traveling expenses.

DYING GERMAN OUTPOST IN POLAND

The photograph shows an Uhlan who has come on a dying German outpost in Poland. The soldier has been wounded and has dragged himself to a roadside pool of water to slake the burning thirst that always accompanies a bullet hurt. He has crawled directly to the foot of a rude cross erected at the spot where two Russian soldiers are buried.
