

Do You Feel Well All Day?

No, not all day. In the morning I cough and raise with difficulty stringy mucus. Coughing, gagging, hawking. Towards evening I feel tolerably well. Catarrh? Well, maybe. I had not thought of that. Yes, I believe, it is catarrh, now that I think of it. Say, what is the matter with my getting Peruna?

That certainly is what you ought to do. Peruna will soon fix you all right. It did so for Mr. Lee Jones, Burning Springs, Ky. He had catarrh of the head, nose and throat for several years. Peruna cured him.

THE FACTS—In a recent letter he said his catarrh was so bad it caused dizziness, headache, partial deafness, offensive breath, bad taste in the mouth. "In fact, my whole nervous system had run down. I never imagined my whole trouble was due to catarrh until I read a Peruna pamphlet. I began Peruna, and the first bottle made me feel like a new man. I cannot praise it too highly. One of my neighbors was afflicted with catarrh. His case had been pronounced hopeless. I persuaded him to try Peruna, and the result is a perfect cure."

HOW TO BE SLIM

By Winifred Grace Forrest

If you are to fat and want to reduce your weight 15 or 20 pounds, don't starve and weaken your system, or think you must always be laughed at on account of your fat, but go to W. H. Kennedy or any other good druggist, and get a box of Oil of Kola capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night. Weigh yourself once a week and note what a pleasant and reliable method this is for removing superfluous fat from any part of the body. It costs little, is absolutely harmless and I am sure a week's trial should convince anyone that it is unnecessary to be burdened with even a single pound of unsightly fat.—Advertisement.

That Cough of Yours

Racking your lungs, weakening your arteries, straining your throat membranes and jarring your head might be the forerunner of more serious trouble, and should have immediate attention.

SCHENCK'S SYRUP contains no narcotics. It comforts the throat, soothes the inflamed air passages, loosens the irritating secretions that causes the cough and makes expectoration free. For 80 years SCHENCK'S SYRUP has been successfully used for the treatment of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness and Bronchial Affections.

GOLD STORAGE ACT REPEALED IN HOUSE

Lower Branch Sends Along the Clark Bill to What Looks Like the Guillotine

The Clark Senate bill to repeal the gold storage regulation act of 1913, defeated last Wednesday, was reconsidered and passed by 114 to 74 in the House last night after two hours of lively debating in which the whole gold storage situation in the State was reviewed. It now goes to the Governor.

W. H. Wilson, Philadelphia, charged the Senate with not acting fairly in dealing with the uniform act, but was informed by Mr. Kitta, Erie, that while he was speaking the Senate had passed the "desperate efforts" were being made to repeal the law and remarked that last year gold storage people had agreed to regulation. He declared that the members should stand by their constituents and predicted that if they did pass the repealer the Governor would veto it.

Mr. Baldwin, Delaware, declared the gold storage law not needed, as the act of 1909 gave all the regulation required, and he did not think attorneys knew the proposition as well as he did. He said the act discriminated against Pennsylvania food men and in favor of the people in other states. Mr. McNichol, Philadelphia, said the House should not put the control of foods back in the hands of "unscrupulous men" and Mr. Roney, Philadelphia, said to repeal the act would be a repeal of the consumer. Mr. Walter said repeal would take away the right of the marketer to know what he or she was buying to eat. He said if the State Grange favored the repealer it would be a good thing.

Mr. Wilson, replying to Mr. Baldwin's charge that western packers wanted the law to stand, said that the packers had not been heard from and wanted to repeal it now. Mr. Baldwin said the Philadelphia man was in error because the packers had branches that did not come under the law.

"BIRD DAY" BILL REPEALED IN CALENDAR

Plans Now For It to Be Incorporated With Arbor Day at the Governor's Suggestion

The House placed on the calendar notwithstanding negative action by committee the Senate bill providing for "bird day" last night. This action was taken on motion of Mr. Milliron, Armstrong, who stated that the Governor desired to have the bill amended so that "arbor day" and "bird day" could be observed on the same day.

The bill to prohibit cancellation of insurance policies without written request of the insured was reconsidered and postponed after several divisions. A joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment so that the General Assembly shall meet the first Monday of December in each odd-numbered year was introduced by Mr. Phillips, Clearfield. The Legislature now meets in January of each odd-numbered year, or within two months of election. The amendment would have it meet thirteen months after election. The first regular session, should the amendment carry, would be held in 1916.

A bill authorizing insertion in charters of religious corporations of a provision to make the rector or minister in charge ex officio president of the vestry, trustees or other governing board was introduced by Mr. Walsh, Philadelphia. The bill would also validate such action already taken.

The House refused to reconsider the vote defeating the bill to require automobiles to be equipped with fenders. The Stern bill, to fix fees for examining moving picture films, which was a special order, was postponed, and the agricultural commission bill, an administration measure, made a special order for Wednesday at 11 a. m.

The Governor's bill to amend the calendar and passed finally: Creating municipal pension funds in second and third class cities; Establishing municipal liens in boroughs.

GOVERNOR'S CHILD LABOR BILL PASSES

Snyder's Attempt to Amend Fails and Measure Is Now Up to Executive

Governor Brumbaugh's child labor bill, unamended, finally passed the Senate last night by a vote of 44 yeas to 6 nays. This was the final step in his administration victory, and the measure now goes to the Governor for his signature.

The defeat, just before midnight, of a motion to go into committee of the whole for the purpose of amending the bill heralded its final and successful passage in the form as it came from the House. The vote on this motion was 37 to 13.

The new law, which will go into effect on the first of next year, was passed by the Senate after a lengthy debate, at the conclusion of which amendments in the interests of the manufacturers and then in the interests of the miners were successively voted down. Senator C. A. Snyder, of Schuylkill, made the principal argument in favor of the manufacturers' amendments.

In his speech he attacked the "encroachment of the Chief Executive upon the Legislature" and also his champions, Senators McNichol and Vore. These latter senators replied, saying in effect that it was not a question of constitutional lines of demarcation, but rather of being guided by the light of experience with childhood.

Test Vote on Amending
The final vote on the bill was 44 yeas to 6 nays. This vote was preceded by a vote of 37 to 13 on the question of going into committee of the whole for the purpose of considering amendments.

The six Senators who voted against the final passage of the bill were Buckman, of Bucks; Catlin, of Luzerne; William Wallace Smith, of Vore; W. H. Wilson, of Philadelphia; Snyder, of Schuylkill; Scenes, of Lycoming; and Warner, of Carbon. The vote bill was as follows: Beideman, Burke, Clark, Croft, Crow, Daix, and Witt, Endsley, Farley, Gerberich, Graf, Gyger, Hackett, Herbst, Hilton, Hindman, Hoke, Homsher, Jenkins, Kline, Kurtz, Lynch, Magee, Martin, McConnell, McKee, McNichol, Miller, Mills, Moore, Patton, Phipps, Salus, Schantz, Semmens, Sensenich, R. E. Smith, P. W. Snyder, Sproul, Stewart, Thompson, Tompkins, Vore and Waters.

MRS. MELTON'S LETTER
To Tired Worn-out Mothers
Jackson, Miss.—"I shall feel repaid for writing this letter if I can help any tired, worn-out mother or housekeeper to find health and strength as I have. I have a family of five, sew, cook and do my housework and I became very much run-down in health. A friend asked me to try Vinol. I did so and now I am well and strong and my old time energy has been restored. Vinol has no superior as a tonic for worn-out, run-down, tired mothers or housekeepers."—Mrs. J. N. DENTAL COURSE MADE FOUR YEARS

Governor Approves the Forster Bill to Make Many Changes in the State Laws

Governor Brumbaugh disposed of eighteen bills last evening, signing seventeen and vetoing one. Thus far thirty-six have met the ax.

The Forster bill, amending the State dental act of 1907 to provide that the course of dental study shall be four years and prohibiting the use of fraudulent or misleading advertisements as to skill, quality of materials or methods used, was approved by Governor Brumbaugh last night. Under its terms a complete system of licensure is established and it is provided that after July 1, 1921, the State Board of Dental Examiners shall require that candidates for licensure shall have graduated from a dental school maintaining a four-year course. When this clause shall have become operative the board may examine prospective candidates in the fundamental branches at the end of the second year.

The Governor also signed the Walton House bill appropriating $240,320.47 to reimburse the counties of the state for the payment of bounties for scalps and heads of noxious animals and birds. This money is half of the proceeds of the hunters' license during 1913 and to November 1, 1914.

The following House bills were also signed: Amending act of May 4, 1855, to provide that no wife who shall have for a year or upward prior to the death of her husband deserted him shall have the right to claim any part of his property under intestate laws.

Prohibiting municipalities from imposing a license fee or tax on any insurance companies or their agents paying a state license.

Establishing fees of prothonotary and recorder of deed of Allegheny county.

Authorizing orphans' courts to reduce bonds of fiduciaries upon hearing and upon certain procedure.

Amending school code to make it a misdemeanor to hinder an attendance officer in performance of duty.

Authorizing Jennie Cly Swogger, Lawrence county, to sue the State for injuries to Lawrence L. Swogger alleged to have been caused by a defect in a state highway.

Authorizing Charles H. Sorge, Harrisburg, to sue the State for damages alleged to have been received from collision with a State Highway Department automobile.

The Governor also signed the following Senate bills: Repealing first and second sections of the "wide tire" act of 1901.

Regulating publication of advertisements in Italian, German and Yiddish newspapers.

Authorizing John E. Joos, of Pittsburgh, to sue the State for money alleged to be due for publishing mercantile appraisers' list in 1885.

Regulating holding of magistrates' courts in Philadelphia and establishing powers of night court.

Permitting any court to impose costs in lunacy proceedings upon the proper county.

PRISON REFORMS ARE UP TONIGHT

Two of the Bills Recommended by the Terner Commission Will Be Considered

Two of the four prison labor bills framed by the Commission for the Revision of Penal Laws, appointed by Governor Terner, have been placed on special order of business in the House for to-morrow night. They amend the penal laws so that inmates of State penal institutions can be put to productive employment and provide a system by which the prisoners can make goods which can be consumed in the various State institutions.

The two bills which may be dropped are providing for a system of State penal farms and for a penal farm for the Eastern Penitentiary. Representative Warren Graham, of Philadelphia, who introduced the measures at the instance of the Penal Law Revision Commission, will likely move that these two latter bills be placed on the postponed calendar. They may be abandoned because of the prospect of the ultimate consolidation of the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries, at the Center county site, as authorized by the House in the passage of the consolidation bill a few nights ago.

The two bills, which are scheduled for special order and which are exceedingly likely to pass, will allow prisoners to be given the employment which most of them crave and which it is said will keep them from possible insanity. The law has hitherto prevented more than a small percentage of the prisoners being employed at a time. They will also provide that the prisoners will manufacture goods which can be utilized in county and State institutions, and thus cut down the cost of operating these institutions.

The bills were amended in the judiciary special committee of the House, on the protest of some State institution managers, so that the institutions will not be compelled to buy these goods from the Prisoners' Employment Board. This Prisoners' Employment Board is a body created under the bill as originally framed by the revision commission. Its purpose is to act as selling agent for the prison-made goods. It will also handle the proceeds of such sale.

This employment board is to give 75 per cent of the proceeds of the sale of prison-made goods to the dependents of the prisoners who made care for the professional care of the goods. The remainder is to be laid aside by the board for the prisoner upon his or her release, in three payments, spreading over a period of six months. The prisoners' wages are to be from 10 cents to 50 cents a day.

Representative Graham's reason for retiring the bill which provided for a farm for the Eastern Penitentiary was owing to an objection of Warden McKenty, who did not think it feasible to have a penal farm attached to the prison in its present location.
