JIM COFFEY WINS WITH 'K. O.' HONORS

Pick Dublin Giant as Strong Contender For World's Championship

Special to The Telegraph: New York, May 6.—Jim Coffey, the Dublin Giant, last night in New York, knocked out Al Reich, former heavyweight champion, in the third round. The bout was scheduled for ten rounds. From the outset the Irishman led, and from the time they first put up their hands the spectators realized that it was only a case of time before Coffey would put over the punch. A left to the stomach was the knockout blow. It followed a fusillade of lefts and rights to the head. A right to the jaw started matters, and as Reich tried to block an-

"The Best Tobacco Made" Emphatic Statement by an Eminent Authority—Pipe-smokers, Read what John G. Capers Has to Say

"When I was Commissioner of Internal Revenue under Presidents Roosevelt's and Taft's Administrations, I had a great deal to do with tobacco. In the collection of millions of dollars of tax I came intimately into contact with the whole business. Tuxedo I consider the best tobacco made. I smoke it myself and find it soothing and restful, mild, fragrant and non-irritating to the throat."

John G. Capers

Mr. Smoker, that's evidence straight from an authority that Tuxedo is the top-notch smoke of them all. The tobacco that a famous Internal Revenue Commissioner chooses for his own smoke because he considers it the best tobacco made.

And remember this, men:—that's picking Tuxedo from a mighty big field; for between you and us the account sheet, the Government collects $100,000,000 a year in revenues from tobaccos.

Mr. Capers is now a prominent and successful practicing lawyer in Washington, D. C., and we are glad to include his name in Tuxedo's great list of friends. It's the same old story everywhere Tuxedo is tried: Quality tells.

Don't quarrel with your pipe and don't quarrel with your tongue. Take your tobacco troubles to good old Tuxedo!

Your pipe'll be sweet and your tongue'll be sound if you smoke Tuxedo. Tuxedo can't bite or blister. That's all taken out by the famous "Tuxedo Process"—the original process which the other brands like so well that they try to imitate it.

And you'll find the Internal Revenue Commissioner absolutely right as to Tuxedo's quality.

JOHN G. CAPERS Prominent Washington Attorney, formerly Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Tuxedo The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Try Tuxedo for a week, and you'll know why Mr. Capers and thousands of other distinguished smokers say that it is "the best tobacco made."
