AUTO HITS GIRL AT THIRD AND WALNUT

Accidents Numerous in Circus Day Crowds; Jitneys Cause Some Trouble

Harry N. Heckman, Mechanicburg, employed by R. E. Rakestraw, an ice cream dealer of that place, while driving a runabout past Third and Walnut streets last evening, struck Miss Katherine Critchley, of Penbrook, proofreader of the Harrisburg Telegraph. Miss Critchley sustained severe bruises about the body, abrasions of the face and contusions of the left knee and shoulder. Heckman stopped his machine after striking Miss Critchley but then drove on. He later reported the accident at the police station and inquired about the injuries the young woman received. Miss Critchley was hurried to the hospital in a private automobile, where her injuries were treated. She was taken home last night.

Accidents were numerous yesterday, resulting in damaged automobiles and a number of injuries. Jack Patterson, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Patterson, 1712 Green street, was knocked down by an unidentified colored boy who was riding a bicycle. The boy, watching the performance of the circus closed. A jitney crashed into a street car in a head-on collision. The auto was badly damaged, but the driver proceeded down town with his passengers, none of whom were hurt.

AUTO VICTIM IMPROVING

Florence Watt, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Watt, 2245 North Second street, who was struck yesterday morning at Third and Muehler streets, by an automobile owned and driven by Nathaniel Lerch, Middletown, is improving slightly according to reports to-day from the Polyclinic hospital. The little girl sustained a concussion of the brain and several bruises about the body.
