NEWS OF THE RAILROADS

NEED MORE ROOM AT P. R. STATION

Changes Now Underway Will Give Only Partial Relief; Changes at Newsstand

Pennsylvania Railroad officials are skirning for more room at the local station. Additional seating accommodations for passengers, it is said, will be gained through changes in location of telephone booths. The Union Transfer Company stand, when alterations are made, will take up one-third more room than at present. Additional light will also come to the main waiting room when the partition used for the old telephone booths is removed. It was stated to-day that the ticket office quarters are too small and that in the near future the parcel room will have to undergo a change.

Name New Supervisor For Cumberland Valley

J. W. Keenan, who has been supervisor on the Cumberland Valley railroad between Chambersburg and Winchester, has been transferred to the Northern Central Railroad with headquarters at Millersburg. He has been succeeded by C. A. Falzgraf, who comes from East Aurora on the Buffalo division of the Pennsylvania system.

New Locomotive Order For Western Maryland

Hagerstown, Md., May 7.—Because the management of the Western Maryland railroad looks for an increase in the coal and coke traffic during the coming summer and Fall, it is learned that orders have been placed for twenty additional freight locomotives of the heavy company type. According to traffic reports for April 1,200 more cars of freight were delivered to the Western Maryland from the Connsville division than during any previous month since that line was opened. Large shipments of steel, pipe, barb wire, etc., for export to Europe are also being received by the Pittsburgh territory for shipment to the eastern seaboard.

This Is Also a Paid Advertisement

RIGHT OR WRONG.

We do not believe a whole lot in expending much money for newspaper advertising so that we are thereby compelled to ask increased prices for our goods. However, we do, just occasionally like to let EVERY ONE know that this store is now as always selling furniture and other housefurnishings at lower prices than most other stores.

OUR WAY—

We do a large business under an economical expense system which enables us to quote the lowest possible prices on EVERYTHING. Our prices are uniformly low on all our goods. Our stock is one of the largest and most complete in the city.

Our customers will tell you that this store is not only one of the largest, but the best store in which to purchase their home needs. In fact, our customers really prove to be our advertisers and they have done it very well indeed. We believe thoroughly in a business system that will convince the customer that what he purchases here is at least just a little better for the same money, or as good for less money than he can obtain it for elsewhere.

This is the system which has built up our business to its present large proportions and is still doing good work for us. We try our best to give our customers the most for their money and our experience has been that the customer can always be depended upon to return the favor in some good way.

REMEMBER THAT—

You may not see our advertisement in the newspapers very often, but we ask you to chalk this down: When you want to buy good furniture at the way-down price, this is the store that is sure to be there with the goods you may want and with the price that will suit.

A JITNEY WILL LET YOU OFF RIGHT AT OUR DOOR.

GOVERNOR GOES ON FISHING TRIP

Starts For Philadelphia on His Way to the Poconos to Angle For Trout Tomorrow

Governor Brumbaugh started to go fishing to-day. He left for Philadelphia by automobile and to-morrow morning, bright and early, he will go with a party of friends to Pocono Manor, Monroe county, where he will engage in a fishing match. This trip is an annual affair and the last two years the Governor has won the fishing contest. He will return to this city on Monday. Before leaving to-day the Governor took up a large number of bills on which his action will be announced later in the day. He made no statements regarding appointments to the Public Service Commission although the presence here of ex-Lieutenant Governor John M. Reynolds, of Bedford, caused a buzz of gossip. It is believed the Governor will not send in any names until just before the session closes.

Danner's Big Payment.—Register of Willis Roy C. Danner to-day paid the State $12,000 as collateral inheritance tax. It was his largest payment for any month.

Represented State.—Deputy Attorney General W. M. Hargest has returned from Washington where he represented the State in the United States Supreme Court in the Equitable Life Assurance Society appeal from State tax on payment of premiums.

Inspecting York Roads.—Highway Commissioner Cunningham went to York to-day to make an inspection of roads in that county.

Case Closed.—The Public Service Commission to-day heard the final arguments in the case of the Philadelphia Team Owners' Protective Association against the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company on the ground that it has failed to provide the additional storage space ordered at Thirtieth and Callowhill streets. The case was heard some time ago and to-day the arguments were presented by W. L. Kinter, for the Road, contended that the reduction of the free storage period really provided additional space in effect. Ward Pierson for the team owners, asserted that the accommodations demanded were not given. The commission will adjourn to-day.

No Appointments.—Auditor General Powell will not name any new men to the positions created by the act approved last night. The book-keeping methods of the department have been changed by him and the plan is to select only the additional men who have been temporarily employed.

Counselors in Demand.—The demands for the presence of the State farm counselors are increasing and they now have enough visits listed to take up the next six weeks. The advisors are being grouped so that they can cover the largest territory with the least trouble.

State Did Well.—The State did well in the financial line this week, as large payments of liquor license money were made. On one day almost half a million dollars were received. Philadelphia contributed a large share.

Numerous Arrests.—More arrests have been ordered this week for the violation of the State laws governing milk and cream than in any week this year. The arrests are mostly in central counties, where recent inspections were made.

Williamsport Visitors.—N. M. Edwards, city solicitor, M. C. Rhoads, ex-Judge Max L. Mitchell, of Williamsport, were here yesterday to attend a hearing.

May Not Be Hearing.—It is possible that there may not be a hearing on the workmen's compensation bills next week. Talk of opposing the bills is subsiding.

Gawthrop Well-Known Here.—Robert S. Gawthrop, designated for the vacant judgeship in Chester county, is well known here. He was special representative of the State in the Coatesville lynching cases.

WANT COUNTY'S HELP TO GET BETTER ROAD

Swatara Township Delegation Petition Commissioners to Join in Improvement Request

Dauphin county's board of commissioners was asked to-day by a big delegation of Swatara township citizens to join with the township in asking for State aid in the construction of several stretches of highway in the vicinity of Steelton and Oberlin. The entire stretch will cover less than two miles and will cost, it is estimated, about $15,000. The delegation from Swatara which included commissioners, supervisors and other citizens headed by William H. Horner, want the county to join on the same basis by which sections of road are improved by the Commonwealth—fifty per cent. to be assumed by the State, twenty-five per cent. each by the county and the township. The county commissioners took the matter under advisement.

Bids For Monroe St. Sewer.—Bids were opened at noon to-day for the construction of a sewer in Nelson alley and Monroe street by City Commissioner W. H. Lynch, superintendent of streets and public improvements. G. W. Ensign, Inc., was low bidder at $286.88. The other bidders were John A. Stucker, $357, and Henry Opperman, $212.

Ex-Prothonotary Diferender Here.—Ex-Prothonotary Jonas G. Diferender, formerly general manager of the Steelton Gas Company, and of late years head of a similar concern in Cincinnati, was a courteous visitor to-day.

Common Pleas Tipstaves.—Tipstaves who will serve at the May session of Common Pleas court beginning Monday were appointed to-day as follows: John Pottorf, R. W. Green, M. F. Graham, Joshua Porter, Hugh McCloskey, Robert Dougherty, George W. Myers, John Arnold, Henry Chubb, Harry Mathias, James Earp, J. U. Yentzer, Harry Fulchner and Jacob Boyd.

County to Pay Its Constables.—The county commissioners to-day decided to pay the claims of the twenty-six constables who had asked for the recovery of their back fees by compensating on the basis of full amount of the claims and twenty per cent. of the back interest. The constables had asked for forty per cent. William L. Loeser and Robert Fox represent the constables. Squire J. H. Strook of the county commissioners' office was instructed to draw up the statement of amounts due, and the bills will likely be paid within a week or ten days. The sum will amount to approximately $2,000.

All Tennis Courts at Reservoir Are Now in Shape For the Players

All the tennis courts at Reservoir Park are now in service and unless the weather to-morrow is unfavorable, the indications are that a record crowd of players will be on hand. Since early in the season the six courts, fronting on Whitehall street have been undergoing extensive improvements. The work has been delayed to some extent by the inclement weather, but announcement was made at the park offices to-day that the work has been completed.

By to-morrow, too, it is probable that the new permanent nets, provided by the park department will be in place, although this has not been definitely decided.

WOMAN STILETTOS FORMER LANDLORD

Sheriff's Sale Nearly Ends in Riot When Stabbing Occurs

Angered over high bids, made to-day at a sheriff's sale by Joseph Chiari, her former landlord, Mrs. Giovetti Papanetti, of 1235 Wallace street, whose goods were being sold, stabbed Chiari in the right ear with a stiletto. Friends of Chiari and friends of the Papanetti woman started to mix things up after the stabbing. A riot was prevented by the timely action of Malcolm Graham, special officer of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, who drew his gun and held back the crowd. Sheriff Harry Wells and his deputy, Charles E. Walmer, were conducting the sale on the second floor when the stabbing occurred. Officer Graham called to the sheriff, and held the woman and her intended victim until Sheriff Wells sent for the patrol. Mrs. Papanetti was taken to jail on a charge of assault and battery; and Chiari went to the hospital to have his wound dressed. He is not badly hurt.

According to Sheriff Wells and his deputy, it was "a regular movie drama." Officer Graham who understands the Italian language, resides in Wallace street. He expected trouble when he overheard a conversation between Mrs. Papanetti and her husband and attended the sale.

Sale Result of Lease Fight
Chiari resides at 1914 1/2 North Seventh street. The Papanettis rented his house last November for one year, signing a judgment lease. Early in April the Papanettis moved to 1235 Wallace street. Chiari issued an attachment for $105, claiming that amount was due on the lease. Sheriff Wells levied on the stock in the store, and on household goods. The sale took place this morning.

It was said that Mrs. Papanetti had several friends on hand to buy in the stock and furniture. Their bids, according to the sheriff were frequently followed by higher bids by Chiari. Chiari's high bids greatly angered the woman.

At one time it was said Chiari bid up two smoked shoulders from $2 to $5. The woman made an effort to get at the plaintiff landlord but was prevented by her husband. After disposing of the goods in the dining room and kitchen, Sheriff Wells and his deputy went to the second floor.

Deputy Walmer was offering a piece of furniture for sale when someone called out from the first floor "come down sheriff, someone has been stabbed." There was a rush to the first floor. Officer Graham turned the woman and Chiari over to Sheriff Wells.
