Joyful Anticipation of Motherhood

There is apt to be a latent apprehension of distress to mar the complete joy of expectation. But this is quite overcome by the advice of so many women to use "Mother's Friend." This is an external application designed to soothe the muscles and to thus so relieve the pressure reacting on the nerves, that the natural strain upon the cords and ligaments is not accompanied by those severe pains said to cause nausea, morning sickness and many local distresses. This splendid embrocation is known to a multitude of mothers.
Many people believe that those remedies which have stood the test of time, that have been put to every trial under the varying conditions of age, weight, general health, etc., may be safely relied upon. And judging by the fact that "Mother's Friend" has been in continual use since our grandmothers' earlier years and is known throughout the United States it may be easily inferred that it is something that women talk about and gladly recommend to prospective mothers.
"Mother's Friend" is prepared only in our own laboratory and is sold by druggists everywhere. Ask for a bottle to-day and write for a special book for expectant mothers. Address: Bradford Regulator Co., 407 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

"ROYAL CABARET" DRAWS BIG HOUSES
In "The Royal Cabaret," the Colonial Theater is presenting the really best musical and dancing offering that has ever been shown at the Busy Corner Theater. Beautiful scenery, charming music and whirling dances by a company of nine persons, combine to make this act a headliner. As a result of booking this excellent act the Colonial is doing record-breaking business this week. The four Slickers are a comedy quartet calculated to make the soberest face turn to laughs. Crowley and Newell, the song and dance order that is full of good things from start to finish. A. J. Farrell offers a novelty act of the same type as that shown by Bert Levy, an Orpheum favorite. — Advertisement.

"THE ARRIVAL OF PERPETUA" AT REGENT TODAY
A remarkable production of "The Arrival of Perpetua," with Vivian Martin in the title role, will appear on the Regent stage in addition to a program of real Lubin and Kalem comedy. Miss Martin is the most refined artist in the moving picture world and she is given ample opportunity to display her pleasing personality which stands out more markedly and distinctly as the play progresses. "The Arrival of Perpetua" is a story in five acts. Perpetua is a rich little girl, an orphan, with a guardian much her senior. While her money lasts she has many ardent suitors, but when her funds are gone their ardor cools. The guardian then offers himself to her for he had been in love with her, but was unable to present his affections because of her wealth. The play is rounded out in wonderful style and is given a pleasing ending. For to-morrow Manager Magaro has arranged for Francis X. Bushman and Alice Joyce, two of the biggest stars in the picture world, will appear on the same bill. The former will be seen in "The Battle of Love" and the latter in "The School for Scandal." In addition to the feature to-day "Monkey Business," a Lubin picture, and "He Was a Traveling Man," a Kalem comedy, will be shown.—Advertisement.

PHOTOPLAY TODAY
"Pawns of Mars," a Broadway Star feature in three parts, is a magnificent picture with many very real war scenes. The plot cannot be improved upon and it is acted with the utmost care and skill. The picture is bound to create a stir among movie fans who like a well played war drama. "A Race for a Crossin'," episode No. 24, of the "Hazards of Helen," railroad series and "The Conspiracy at the Chateau," two-reel Essanay, featuring Miss Beverly Bayne, finish the show.

Coming Saturday, Charlie Chaplin in "By the Sea."—Advertisement.

"THE LOST HOUSE" AT THE VICTORIA
Every Tuesday and Friday will hereafter be known as Mutual Masterpicture Day at the Victoria. To-day we present Richard Harding Davis' famous play, entitled, "The Lost House." This great Mutual Masterpicture is in four parts and was produced under the personal direction of Mr. David W. Griffith, America's highest priced motion picture director. "The Lost House" is a thrilling and a vital drama. It is a brilliant of swinging, tingling movement from the first striking scene until the smashing climax is reached. It rings true to life although it is one of the most exacting plays of mystery and adventure you ever saw. The leading part of the heroine is artistically played by Miss Lillian Gish. Wallace Reid and E. A. Turner are two other stars who play important parts in this great Mutual Masterpicture.—Advertisement.

To Men and Young Men Who Have Never Put Doutrichs to the Test

This is the store of greater values; today, tomorrow, 365 days in every year . . . We've made this statement repeatedly and every day some one puts it to the test; weighs us and our merchandise in the balance of honest comparison and thereafter, in justice to themselves, confine their clothes-buying to Doutrichs.

And now we propose to make such a startling, such an unusual offer as to win at least one hundred new friends for the Live Store before closing time tomorrow . . . We purpose to our-Doutrich-Doutrichs with an offering of hundreds of brand new Spring and Summer 1915 Suits in the latest exclusive fabrics, patterns and shades; in up to the second styles—original, accepted, much copied but found only here; styles direct from and other good makers which are being talked-about and worn-about by men in every city the country over.

We purpose to show you at $15, $20 and $25 results in style, in fabric and in fit which you have never been privileged to examine elsewhere at less than $20, $25 or $30.

Mind you, we do not claim these suits to be $20, $25, or $30 values as measured by the Doutrich standard of value giving—those figures are comparative, those figures are based on what we know others will ask for quality which attempts to parallel ours.

This, we believe, is one of the most important messages we have ever directed to the clothes-buying public within reach of this great store. We want you to come here tomorrow, we'll place no restrictions upon your investigation. We claim these suits to be the finest ever shown by this or any other store in Harrisburg—we challenge comparison on every point whereby good clothing should be judged—
