Moose Mighty Midway and Carnival

The Moose May Festival and Gala Celebration which opens Monday next, will, we predict, be the largest amusement event of the season. It is by all means the best advertised affair that has ever been promoted by a Harrisburg organization and much credit is due the publicity man.

They have secured the Leon W. Washburn's Mighty Midway Shows, Trained Wild Animal Arena and Carnival Company, an organization that is heralded as the Barnum of the Carnival World. Mr. Washburn is no stranger to Harrisburg, as this will be his second visit to our city, his previous visit having been a successful one, and his outfit of amusement paraphernalia being at that time a most complete one.

This year, however, his company has been enlarged and it requires thirty cars to transport from city to city, besides carrying with him 350 people.

The treat that will be offered Harrisburg residents and visitors will be a sumptuous repast of exquisite scenes and a host of attractions that are the wonder of nations. There will be an avalanche of startling surprises, novelties and features that are royal in richness and varying in their magnitude, magnificence and originality.

The press everywhere speaks in the highest terms of this unequalled organization and are emphatic in their comment of the refinement and morality that predominate, therefore, parents will attend and take their children with them, as they will learn something and enjoy the many interesting and wonderful sights.

The benefit is for the Charity Fund, which is worthy of your patronage, and the visitors to Sixth and Mantong streets (the regular city show grounds) may feel assured that the well-known courtesy that the Harrisburg Lodge of Moose are noted for will be repeated upon this grand and glorious occasion.

The location is accessible by street car lines from all parts of the city and suburbs, and with the advantage of the trolley bus lines, no delay need be feared in getting there.

There will be no admission charged to the showgrounds, and furthermore plenty of big free attractions and concert band music will entertain you while there. It will truly be a gala week and such a celebration as has never been seen in our city.

For six days and six nights the celebration will continue, rain or shine, and every arrangement will have the opportunity of their own to enjoy themselves, as every day will be a special day and every night a feature night. There will be something doing every minute from 2 o'clock to 11 o'clock every day.

A downtown office has been opened for the advance sale of tickets. This ticket is made up of five and ten-cent coupons, which are good all week at any and all of the twenty different shows and riding devices—the ticket sells for fifty cents. The ticket office is in charge of a young lady and is located at 18 North Third street. This coupon ticket will be on sale only this week, and will be withdrawn from sale after the carnival opens, so it will be wise to purchase your supply at once and partake of the advantages it offers.

Another feature is the contest that is being conducted by the Moose in connection with their carnival. It is progressing nicely and about fifteen different organizations of Harrisburg entered it Saturday last.

The prizes consist of a $75 silk banner and a $25 silk flag, which will be given the organizations receiving the largest and second largest number of votes.

The winners have the privilege of accepting the prizes offered on the value in cash. All Harrisburg organizations, fraternal or otherwise, are eligible.

As the Moose lodge themselves are not entered in the contest, nor have selected any of the organizations that are entered, any and all organizations that desire to enter the contest are invited to do so.

The prizes are worth contesting for and fifty balloting places are arranged throughout the city. You better start voting now for your favorite organization. List of balloting places will be found in the advertisement in this issue.—Advertisement.
