Collect Thousands in Taxes on Bonds

Whether or not the city will make in effort to collect the back State taxes of years gone by which had been paid to the Commonwealth on municipal conds held by banks, trust companies, bonds held by banks, trust companies, etc., will depend largely upon what results can be obtained from his petition to amend the last city treasurer's report to his effect, City Commissioner W. L. Gorgas declared to-day.

The commissioner yesterday petitioned the Auditor General to permit an amendment of the treasurer's report so as to show what amount of securities were held by banks, etc. Mr. Gorgas' contention is that the city should be exempt from paying the four mill tax on these bonds because the institutions have already been taxed as a part of their corporate holdings.
