

Operation Not Needed

Mrs. W. A. Barnes, who lives in Ballard, Calif., has sent to the Pinau Laboratories a very strong endorsement of Fruitola and Traxo. In her letter, Mrs. Barnes says:

"Doctors say gall-stones cannot be cured without an operation, costing much money as well as unnecessary suffering. I am cured, I know, and this is proof positive, and my friends know that such is the case."

Fruitola is a powerful lubricant for the intestinal organs, softening the hardened particles that cause so much suffering and expelling the congested waste in an easy, natural manner. A single dose is usually sufficient to clearly indicate its efficacy. Traxo is a splendid tonic alterative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion, and removes bile from the general circulation. Traxo should be taken three or four times a day following a dose of Fruitola to strengthen and restore the weakened, run-down system.

For the convenience of the public, arrangements have been made to supply Fruitola and Traxo through leading drug stores. In Harrisburg, they can be obtained at Gorgans, the Drugist, 16 North Third street, P. R. R. Station.

JULIAN SANDERSON, DONALD BRIAN AND JOSEPH CAWTHORN

Each of the three stars in "The Girl From Utah" company has reached their present high position in the theatrical firmament through years of hard work and their careers in this respect are strangely similar. They are admirers of Miss Sanderson, who has perhaps watched her smile, and sing and dance her way through the big musical comedy coming to the Majestic to-morrow evening, may think that hers has been an easy lot, or that all she has had to do has been to smile and look beautiful. Miss Sanderson, if she would tell you, could disabuse anyone of this theory quickly. Her singing of years of traveling around in the chorus of other years of playing "bits" in stock companies, her constant study to perfect herself in singing and dancing and stage presence. She would say that it has meant years, her best years, all spent in study and work of the hardest kind, until to-day, as one of the first stars in the "Girl From Utah," she is working harder than ever.—Advertisement.

GILLETTE-BATES-DORO
"Diplomacy" is unquestionably one of the most fascinating dramas ever staged. Of the original cast presenting "The Countess Zicka" in the city at Wallack's Theater, New York, in 1878, the only player now actively before the public is the brilliant and gifted Marie Doro. She was the first American actress to essay the role of the "Countess Zicka." In "Charles Frohman and the Colonial" the famous drama Blanche Bates appears as "Countess Zicka," and needless to say gives a brilliant and perfect impersonation. Her co-stars, William Gillette and Marie Doro, playing "Henry Beaumont" and "Catherine," are likewise admirably suited with striking parts of equal importance. The musical comedy "The Colonial" on Mr. Frohman's part to bring together three stars of the magnitude of Gillette, Bates and Doro.—Advertisement.

SONGBIRDS A COLONIAL HIT
Colonial audiences yesterday much enjoyed the work of the Songbirds. This is a sextet of children, three boys and three girls, all possessors of excellent voices, and they have a refined act that takes well with every audience. There are three other very good acts on the program. "The Colonial" is a song and dance team of the eccentric type. Fred Thomas and his company will present a sketch that is full of laughs, and Dave Vanfield gives a juggling novelty. To-morrow and Thursday Colonial will show an authentic moving picture of the starting of the Lusitania from New York on her last ocean voyage. The film was made after rumors had become spread about New York that the Lusitania would be sunk by the Germans, and in the light of more recent events, that brought about the death of the Lusitania, the passengers and crew the film becomes of great historic value as well as of current interest.—Advertisement.

MARIE DORO AT THE REGENT
Marie Doro, the Duncannon girl, who is making her first appearance in the "movies" in "The Outcast," has made a wonderful impression in a production of the masterpiece at the Regent Theater last evening. The great feature, shown in five reels, will be repeated to-day. In addition to the big production, "The Outcast," a biographical drama: "Aunt Mary," Selig drama; "Mr. Jarr Takes a Night Off," Vitagraph comedy, will be shown. To-morrow and Thursday a drama of romantic youth, "Young Romance," with Edith Taiferro, will maintain the attraction. To-day will be the last time that the big Marie Doro picture will be shown in this city. It is a Paramount feature, and cannot be shown in any other theater. Miss Doro is well-known here and has appeared in some famous plays here as the star. Although "The Morals of Marcus" is her first adventure on the screen her artistic acting is not lacking and she gives every indication of having been in the moving picture world for years.—Advertisement.

"THE OUTCAST" AT THE VICTORIA TODAY
To-day is the Mutual Masterpiece day at the Victoria, and we present for the first time in this city "The Outcast," a powerful four-reel production. The great feature was taken from the story written by that great American writer and Ambassador to Italy, Thomas Nelson Page. It is a play of excitement and thrill—humor and pathos—that has made it one of the scale of human emotions. The heroine is a girl in the slums, by environment, but she comes into her own and realizes her dream of a life in the open far away from the city's streets. There is a wonderful courtroom scene in which "The Outcast" is on trial for murder, is saved from the severity of a prison and justice turns out to be her father. There is also a true-to-life cabaret scene in which the heroine saves the part of a dancing girl.—Advertisement.

Playwright Who Went Down on Lusitania

CHARLES KLEIN
Charles Klein, the famous English playwright, who has been as successful in the United States as in London, was on the Lusitania on her fatal trip. He took passage hurriedly when he learned that Charles Frohman, the theatrical producer and Justice Miles Forman, were going aboard. It is said that Mr. Klein had intentions of preparing a play for the autumn opening in New York. He was born in London and had done much of his playwrighting in England. Recently he has lived most of the time in that country, and it was said at Mr. Frohman's office that there was no particular significance in a trip abroad at this time. His first play, "A Mile a Minute," was produced in 1890, and was followed two years later by "By Proxy." In 1893 "A Palmy Million" was produced, and then two years later came "The District Attorney," which was followed by "The Gleaner" and "Heartsease," both of which were produced in 1896. The latter play was written in collaboration with J. I. C. Clarke. Mr. Klein then spent two years working on a next play, "The Hon. John Grigsby," which appeared in 1898. In 1900 "The Cliper Code" was produced and a year later came "The Auctioneer."

A Host of Pretty Creations, Picturing Warm Weather Beauty and Brightness: A

Summer Millinery Opening

The first really large showing of styles for the warm months, that has come to Harrisburg

This big May Day event marks a decided change from the medium and near-dark colors of a few weeks ago, to the snowy white, or pastel shades that will dominate immediate future head dress. Newest are:

- Smart Sailors
- White Dress Hats
- Panama Sailors
- Evening Hats
- Tailored Hats
- Sport Hats

The Millinery Department is fairly overflowing with the new and the newest. A timely clearaway, following at the heels of Easter, carried off Spring styles to a large number of satisfied patrons—to wear while they were yet in style—at a substantial saving.

That provided room for a most complete assemblage of summer styles—and this is the time to begin wearing them.

Sport Hats Deserve Special Prominence

So much attention given to outdoor life, demands equal attention to the proper hats. We're showing these hats for all sorts of wear—comfort; first consideration—including some that won't mind being handled roughly; fact is, they invite rough wear.

A knowledge of Summer hat-craft is incomplete without seeing this showing.

May Time Showing of the Newest in Lancaster.—Thomas Dyer and Frank Blake were arrested here this morning at the instance of the authorities of West Chester, where they are wanted on a charge of burglary. They were taken to West Chester this afternoon.

Note Well

"I purchased my CASE during the early months of 1910, and have driven it more than 45,000 miles, under all conditions, and with the exception of tire and fuel expense, and 400, has been very economical. I have only paid out $1.50 for repairs. The motor has never been taken down, and today runs almost as well as a new one.

I cannot recommend this car too strongly, as nothing too good can be said of the famous CASE, and as a further appreciation of the services derived from this car, I expect to place my order for one of the new CASE cars, completely equipped, within the next few days."

(Upon request, name supplied)

Only $1.50 for repairs in the last four years. This is merely one of hundreds of records sent to us by satisfied users. Think of it—45,000 miles with only $1.50 for upkeep! This is not an isolated record—all over the country CASE Cars are known for their economy.

It is just such economy as this that proves two things:

1. The "Hidden Values" of the CASE Car give it that remarkable vitality that withstands troubles.
2. It costs less in the long run than other cars of its class, and no more than higher priced cars.

Have you seen the new CASE Car? Do you fully appreciate how much money this famous car is saving for its thousands of owners?

If not, we would suggest that you become acquainted with this vital information. It will mean saving where you otherwise might spend—it will mean satisfaction where otherwise you might be continually annoyed.

Costs Less What we maintain that you pay less for the CASE Car at first—regardless of its later economy—because we include in its equipment the accessories you'll have to buy later. Such as extra tire casing and extra inner tube on rim with cover, Weed non-skid tire chains and eight-day clock. Including this extra equipment the price is only $1350—5% discount if cash. As you know, you'd have to add the price of these accessories to the price of any other car.

Another Saving What we save in selling expenses goes into the car in better material and workmanship. For CASE Cars are sold by our ready-organized sales organization. For 72 years we have been in the field—so CASE Cars carry no undue burden of selling charges. It wouldn't take you long to take a "first look" at the CASE. So why not come in today? We are always glad to explain its superiorities.
