MUSICAL NUMBERS WILL VARY PROGRAM

Monologues, Readings and Character Sketches in Tech Auditorium Friday Evening

Mrs. Karl D. Fogg, dramatic reader, and some of her more advanced pupils will give a recital Friday evening, May 14, in the Technical high school auditorium, assisted by Charles Clippinger, tenor; Miss Lillian Miller, violinist, and Mrs. Anna Walker Weinhold, accompanist.

The program comprises monologues, readings with music and costumes and various character sketches. Mrs. Fogg herself to present "A Bit of Pine." Those participating in the entertainment will be the Misses Ada Merkel, Martina Moeslein, Katharine Keene, Wilhelmina Wohlfarth, Margareta Gault, Merle Smith, Mary Rhoades, Mildred Sheesley, Adele Claster, Jeanette Claster and Catherine Bricker.

Mrs. Fogg is a graduate of the Curry School of Expression, Boston, and studied also with Kate Ryan, dramatic teacher, and Professor G. W. Ellish, of the Ellish School of Expression, Boston, receiving coaching in dialect from Charles Grilley, the famous dramatic writer and reader.

Mrs. James Newell Moore, of 209 Pine street, has gone to New Brighton and her former home at Butler for a stay of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Runverich, of Jersey City, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cotterel, 1800 North Sixth street, over Sunday.

Miss Helen L. Wallis, of Dauphin, has returned to a visit with friends and relatives at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Winegardner, of this city, spent Sunday with relatives at Dauphin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Calahan have returned from their wedding trip and are at their home, 1520 Allison street.

Sunshine President Delegate to Convention

At a special meeting of the Roberta Disbrow Lloyd Sunshine Society held yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. hall Mrs. Homer Black, the president, was elected a delegate to the national Sunshine convention, held in New York city, May 20-23.

An interesting feature of the session was the presence of several crippled children for whom the society has been caring for the past year. These little ones who had never walked are, with the aid of braces provided by the society, able to run about and play. Braces have been straightened, legs made strong and much responsibility lifted from the hearts of anxious parents.

The children, who were brought to the meeting by Miss Miller, of the Associated Charities, were guests of the society after the business meeting and were treated to refreshments.

The June meeting will be held at the suburban home of the president, Mrs. Homer Black.

CHAS. MACKAY SHOWS PIANISTIC ABILITY

Recital Last Evening His Debut in the Field of Concert Pianists

The recital given last night by Charles Mackey in Fahnstock Hall, has again demonstrated the possession of unusual musical talent pianistically, by this city. For not only is Mr. Mackey a native citizen of Harrisburg, the foundation of his musical training, his essential schooling was gotten here as a basis for his European polish.

Never has Mr. Mackey played as well as he did last night in this recital, which was virtually his debut in the field of concert pianism, through the medium of an unusually well planned program. While his grouping followed traditional lines there was every opportunity to display the versatility, technically and interpretatively demanded of the pianistic aspirant.

There was well played Bach, Beethoven, Brahms, with the expected Chopin group of the familiar "A Flat Ballade," an unusually characteristic "Mazurka," the well-known "Black Key Etude," the beautiful "Sharp Major Nocturne" and the frequently played "First Scherzo." There was Grieg's "Wedding Day in Troldhaugen" and Debussy's "Reflections in the Water," both of which Mr. Mackey succeeded in making picturesque and convincing.

Finally there was a most effective group of Liszt, the "D Flat Etude," "The Betrothal" after the Raphael's famous painting in the Brera, at Milan, and the well-known and brilliant "Tarentelle" from the Italian "Years of Pilgrimage." Most noteworthy were the etudes and the bravura of the "Tarentelle."

Characteristic is the sweep and vigor of the "let go" and the convincing sincerity of Mr. Mackey's playing. There is no question of his success in the field of his chosen profession. That was most conclusively demonstrated by the enthusiastic applause and appreciation of his representative musical audience last night.

Robert Muenich, of Wisconsin, spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. William E. Stroup, 1921 Derry street.

Mrs. John Oenslager and children are home after a short stay at their Aunt's cottage.

Miss Esther Wengert, a student of the Centenary Collegiate Institute, Hackettstown, N. J., was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wengert, 1827 Market street.

Memorial to Mrs. Chambers by the Y. W. C. A. Board

Resolutions on the death of Mrs. George S. Chambers, first president of the Y. W. C. A. of this city, were adopted yesterday by the board of directors of the association. The committee in charge included Mrs. D. S. Herr, Mrs. D. M. Gilbert, Mrs. John W. Jennings, John H. Weiss, Mrs. W. W. Jennings.

The resolutions follow:

"Whereas, God in His providence has called from this earthly life Mrs. George S. Chambers, and

"Whereas, Mrs. Chambers was, for the first eight years of its existence, the devoted and active president of the Young Women's Christian Association of Harrisburg, and therefore be it resolved, that we, the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. do express our sorrow in the death of one, whose untiring efforts, and prayerful preservation laid a firm foundation for the work among young women in Harrisburg, and that we tenderly acknowledge our appreciation of her continued interest in our refreshment, in expressed time, and of her often expressed faith, and her prayers for the future of the association, and be it further resolved, that we extend our sympathy to her bereaved family, together with a copy of these resolutions, and that a copy of this action of the board be sent to the city papers, and spread upon the minutes."

Wrist Watches --For-- Girl Graduates

Here is an ideal gift for the girl graduate—something that will please her beyond measure.

We recently secured a special lot of these magnificent Wrist Watches from a manufacturer who made a big sacrifice for spot cash, and we are able to sell them 35 per cent. under the regular selling price. They are excellent timekeepers of the very latest design, with expansion bracelet, gold filled, finely jeweled, and are warranted for 20 years. They will actually last a lifetime and will give the best of service.

Regular value $18.00.
Special price, $12.00

Claster's guarantee goes with each one.

Diamonds

We also have a treat for you in Ladies' Diamond Rings at $10 and up

These rings were made up especially for commencement presents and each and every one is a great big special bargain.

The diamonds are about one-fourth larger than those usually sold at corresponding prices and are very beautiful. They are white, very brilliant and are fashionably mounted in Tiffany and other stylish settings. Starting at $10.00 we have them graduated in prices at $15, $25, $35 and $50

Our purpose in making up these rings was to give you a much larger and a much finer diamond than you could get elsewhere for the same price. We earnestly invite you to come in and see these extraordinary values.

There are hundreds of other pretty articles here that will make useful and lasting presents.

Civic Club Will Close With a Social Meeting

The last regular session of the Civic Club for the year will be a social meeting at the Country Club next Monday afternoon, May 17, at 3 o'clock. A short and very delightful program has been arranged. Mrs. Willbur F. Harris will sing a group of four lullabies; Miss Helcher will also sing; Miss Clute will give a few civic current events, and there will be a brief discussion of the methods by which funds can be raised for a woman's clubhouse and how women run their clubhouses with the least expense and the greatest financial return.

Refreshments will be served and an informal social hour will mark the end of a most successful year's work. The new president, Mrs. William Henderson, will preside.

MRS. KIRK IS HOSTESS AT S. S. CLASS MEETING
