LOVELY WOMAN AT PANAMA EXPOSITION

Sprang Up Everywhere Just Like to Jonquils, Pansies and Poppies

Suddenly, where only foliage had been in the Exposition gardens, jonquils and pansies and poppies and bloom against the opening day. Just so, Lovely Woman sprang up everywhere, bringing with her light, warmth, color, gaiety. She came with her sacred dear domestic virtues to be hostess in the State buildings of the South and East. She brought her achievements as voter and business woman to her reign in the western State buildings. She filled the Palace of Food Products with the tempting odors of her cooking. She took possession of the Palace of Education, to advise, instruct, uplift. She blossomed among the flowers in Horticulture; she was Ceres among the fruits. She officiated in a hundred capacities in Manufactures, Varied Industries and Liberal Arts. She helped her husband in the exhibit booth when she was not running the booth alone! She was a giant policewoman in Toyland. She danced in the Jimtown hall and understood the technical explanations. In dignity and broadcloth she welcomed all comers to the California Host Building. Her countenance of wholesome hospitality beamed in the Y. W. C. A. She shuffled on her little sandaled feet in the Japanese tenhouse. Her camera-shy face was to be seen of all who frequented the Chinese Pavilion. She rang the bells of a thousand cash registers. The keys of the office piano hummed under her nimble fingers. She presided at the telephone switchboard. She examined visiting babies and gave medical advice to mothers. She waited in the cafes. She sang in front of the Tower of Jewels on opening day. One hundred thousand of her rubbed elbows with one hundred thousand of him in the crowd that reached from the tower to the gates. She sold buttermilk and peanuts and Exposition with Christofferson. She chewing gum from gaily ornamented kiosks. She gyrated in the hulahula. She bounded up wounds in the Emergency Hospital. She answered a million questions. She asked ten million. Wrapped in a wrap, she lectured in the Grand Canyon. She trumpeted from the balcony of Alt Nuremberg. She was a giant policewoman in Toyland. She danced in the Jimtown hall and understood the technical explanations. In dignity and broadcloth she welcomed all comers to the California Host Building. Her countenance of wholesome hospitality beamed in the Y. W. C. A. bit of color, decorating and adorning life. Arrayed in velvet, fur, jewels and plumes, she is the dominating specter at all the great events. She takes part in some of these events. She comes from the rural districts of California, bearing violets or jonquils or fruit blossoms in her arms. So throughout the Fairtime, Lovely Woman will be there, brightening, vivifying, serving, amusing, beguiling, instructing.—Frances A. Groff in Sunset Magazine.

Union Self-Sealing Tubes Made Good on Trip With twenty-five cars equipped with the Union Self-Sealing Tubes and not a one delayed with puncture trouble, is the honor claimed by the Union Sales Company. Special reference is made to the Humobile car, which carried the manager and sales force of the Union Sales Company. The tires on this car were punctured twenty-five times before the car started on the run, the punctures being made with a large ice pick driven into the tire by a heavy mallet. Following the puncture the car made the entire run of nearly 500 miles without further pumping. Throughout the run they kept the car going at its best clip in order to show that abuse, even of the Personal Social LUNCHEON THIS AFTERNOON Luncheon guests to-day of Miss Louise Carney at her Stealton home had the pleasure of meeting Miss Grace Post, of Hartford, Conn., the house guest of Miss Sara Cooper, of Camp Hill.
