REVOLUTIONISTS IN CONTROL OF CAPITAL

to deliver up all arms at the arsenal under pain of arrest. The casualties in Friday's fighting numbered 67 killed and 300 wounded. The insurgents wrecked and looted the house in which Captain Coucledro, the royalist leader, stayed until recently. Order has been partially restored and the new government is taking measures to re-establish normal conditions. The former minister of marine was arrested and taken aboard a warship for having ordered a destroyer to sink the warships which were bombarding the city.

Jack Tars Rescue 40 in Peril Near Fleet

Special to The Telegraph. New York, May 17.—Forty men, women and children aboard a motorboat on a trip around the fleet were in danger last night when the boat began to sink in the North river. Launches from battleships and a revenue cutter took off all the passengers.

CRUISER'S CREW DELIVERED ULTIMATUM TO GOVERNMENT

Paris, May 17.—Absolute calm has been restored in Lisbon and the Portuguese capital has resumed its normal appearance, according to a dispatch to the Havas agency filed late yesterday. Some of the best known monarchists are leaving the city. The movement is said to have been directed solely toward strengthening the republic, which the revolutionary elements believed threatened or weakened by the policy of Piementa Castro as premier.

When the cruiser Almirante Reis caught fire and began to sink the crew escaped to shore and sent an ultimatum to the government, giving it until 11 o'clock that night to resign.

Senhor Cunha, former governor of Madeira, was killed by a shell which entered his house.

INSURANCE FUND STARTS WITH MUCH

Over $300,000 Automatically Available for the Creation of the State System

Pennsylvania's state fire insurance fund, which has been created by Governor Brumbaugh's approval of the Senate bill providing that the Commonwealth shall carry its own insurance on its buildings, will start off with over $350,000. It is estimated that it will amount to a million dollars in five years. It will save the State about $100,000 a year.

"Crazy" Jack, Human Fly, Ordered to Move

If "Crazy" Jack, the human fly, who walks up the sides of tall buildings on his toes, does any of his stunts in Harrisburg he must do them when the police are not looking. The police have ordered him to move to the next town. "Crazy" Jack has given notice that he will climb up the side of the Union Trust building late this afternoon whether he gets permission or not. He "drags down" on his feet by collecting nickels from the crowds that gather.

TELEPHONE SOCIETY TO MEET

E. G. Mateer, district manager of Altoona, of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, will speak this evening in Board of Trade Hall on "Thoughts" before the Telephone Society of Harrisburg. A number of organizational changes were made by the company in this state, several of them affecting the Harrisburg district. They are as follows: F. W. Stahlheber, former supervisor of salesmen, Scranton, special agent, reporting to Harrisburg division manager; Anna Reese, night chief operator, to evening chief operator; Katie M. Snyder, operator, to night chief operator. The changes were announced in The Telephone News.

THE USE OF SOAP SPOILS THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

LEBANON CAPTURES KREIDER FACTORY

to locate at Lebanon the big new shoe factory which he has considered for a time placing at Harrisburg. Mr. Kreider has had the subject of a new factory under consideration for a long time and had various offers from cities to locate in their respective territories. Last week his local businessmen heard that Harrisburg was being seriously considered and they made proposition to give the Kreider shoe concern $5,000 in cash toward a plant if they would locate it here. The offer was accepted and on Friday evening, Mr. Kreider was here to consider for a time placing at Harrisburg. A committee consisting of George S. Speaker, president of the Chamber of Commerce, H. J. Shenk, Arthur C. Harpel, Benjamin F. Patschke and other businessmen went to see Mr. Kreider on Saturday and the deal was perfected.

Mercury Falls to Just 14 Above Freezing

Causing Harrisburgers to ransack closets and trunks for top coats, replace straw hats with more seasonable headgear and worry about garden truck, the thermometer went on a rampage yesterday which, it is predicted, will continue until to-morrow night at least.

Fire on Steamer Is Reported by Wireless

Tokio, May 17, 7:15 P. M.—A wireless message has been received from the steamship Mongolia, that a fire occurred on the steamer Chiyo Maru Sunday night, according to the Asahi Shimbun. No details were given. The Chiyo Maru is due at Yokohama to-morrow. The Mongolia sailed from San Francisco yesterday. The officers of Chiyo Maru deny the report of a fire on board here.
